use Mr Martin's own words the selective power of events the actual importance of minor writers in forming doctrines which other and more famous men completed Another reason why the present book has kept its freshness must undoubtedly be seen in the fact that its author built its foundation on the original sources His analysis for instance of the influence of the salons is remarkable So is his treatment of Bayle Voltaire Diderot and Rousseau About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Freedom in French Enlightenment Thought Mary Efrosini Gregory, 2010 Freedom in French Enlightenment Thought examines how five eighteenth century French theorists Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Voltaire and Condorcet kindled the flame of freedom in America and France Each thinker laid down a building block that would eventually inspire the language in constitutions around the world They held that citizens have certain inalienable rights that are dictated by natural law and endowed to all by our Creator that these rights include equality before the law justice safety and security of persons and property and freedom of speech press assembly and religion Montesquieu recommended three separate branches of government that function independently of each other Diderot held that there is no true sovereign except the nation that there is no true legislator except the people Rousseau advised that the individual will must be subordinate to the general will and private interest to that of the community he warned against legislators who act from their own financial interests and enact laws to aggrandize themselves Voltaire believed that selfishness greed and the desire for luxury are not only part of human nature but that they compel people to achieve trade with others search explore and invent the passions are the engine that makes capitalism run and that stimulate all human endeavor Condorcet a champion of civil rights boldly proclaimed equality for women blacks and the poor The philosophes held that free and universal public education will permit more citizens to participate in the progress of the arts and sciences and will improve the standard of living among all strata of society An unrestrained press permits citizens to make informed decisions Their polemics have indeed changed the face of the world
