French Perspectives In African Studies A Collection Of Translated Essays:

French Perspectives in African Studies Pierre Alexandre, 2018-08-16 Originally published in 1973 this volume presents some of the main approaches that were developed by French Africanists during the 1940s 50s and 60s The book covers social structure kinship systems economic change ethnography language history and archaeology in West Africa

The Idea of Development in Africa Corrie Decker, Elisabeth McMahon, 2020-10-29 An engaging history of how the idea of development has shaped Africa's past and present encounters with the West

In Search of Sunjata Ralph A. Austen, 1999 These essays examine Sunjata from a variety of perspectives

African Religion Laurenti Magesa, 2014-07-30 Describes the moral teachings values norms and principles to follow so that life might be abundant for all of the African religion as it relates to individuals and community

The Black Man's Burden William J. Samarin, 2019-07-11 This book is an enquiry into early European colonial expansion in Central Africa especially in upper Zaire Congo and Ubangi rivers It explores the extent to which French and Belgian colonial enterprise were dependent on the African labor and their penetration into Zaire basin

Catalog of the Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University Library (Evanston, Illinois) and Africana in Selected Libraries Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, 1972

Politics and Society in Nigeria's Middlebelt Julius Adekunle, 2004 The European partition of Africa at the end of the nineteenth century produced enduring geo political changes with various ethnic groups permanently separated into different political formations Borgu was just one of the affected areas divided by the French and British in 1894 and 1898 Now independent after years of British rule the Nigerian Borgu is here examined in thorough detail from earliest times to now The book focuses on the new emergence of a political identity in the Borgu as well as its dynasties economic growth and relations with the Yoruba

Fire-Eaters Mwelwa C. Musambachime, 2017-01-13 As late as the beginning of the nineteenth century despite the many years of direct contact with European traders and the influx of European goods most African societies still produced their own iron and its products or obtained them from neighbouring communities through local trade The quality of iron products was such that despite competition from European imports local iron production survived into the early twentieth century in some parts of the continent The production process covered prospecting mining smelting and forging Different types of ore were available all over the continent and were extracted by shallow or alluvial mining A variety of skills were required for building furnaces producing charcoal smelting and forging iron into goods Iron production was generally not an enclave activity but a process that fulfilled the totality of socio economic needs It also fit the gender division of labour within communities

As Wide as the World Is Wise Michael D. Jackson, 2016-09-06 Philosophy and anthropology have long debated questions of difference rationality versus irrationality abstraction versus concreteness modern versus premodern What if these disciplines instead focused on the commonalities of human experience Would this effort bring philosophers and anthropologists closer together Would it lead to greater insights across historical and cultural divides In As Wide as the World Is Wise Michael Jackson encourages philosophers and anthropologists to mine the space between localized and globalized perspectives to resolve empirically the distinctions between the one and the many and between life and specific forms of life His project balances abstract epistemological practice with immanent reflection promoting a more situated embodied and sensuous approach to the world and its in between spaces Drawing on a lifetime of ethnographic fieldwork in West Africa and Aboriginal Australia Jackson resets the language and logic of academic thought from the standpoint of other lifeworlds He extends Kant's cosmopolitan ideal to include all human societies achieving a radical break with elite ideas of the subjective and a more expansive conception of truth French in Multilingual Anglophone Africa Michael Akinpelu, Tunde Ajiboye, 2025-09-04

Examining the impact of French language in Nigeria this book discusses the prospects of French language use for development as well as its connection to literature and translation Despite its ambiguous and indistinct official status in the country French remains the preferred foreign language in Nigeria and academia Michael Akinpelu and Tunde Ajiboye's French in Multilingual Anglophone Africa Language Literature and Translation in Nigeria discusses how the French language is not only taught as a foreign language in Nigerian higher education but is also an important linguistic code for literary creation translation and interpretation blending local and international francophone cultures Part I explores issues related to bilingualism language resource management and comparison between French and local languages Part II considers the French language's exploitation in relation to translation and interpretation with particular interests in cultural challenges Part III provides historical context tracing the evolution of literary engagement of Nigerian writers contact with French and evolving perspectives on the language in Nigerian literature from the 1930s to present day Using case studies classroom fieldwork and policy analyses this book shows how French in multilingual Africa is not just a mode of communication but a powerful instrument of socio economic integration and mobility in a globalized world Labor, Globalization and the State Debdas Banerjee, Michael Goldfield, 2007-12-13 This book explores the impact of neoliberal globalization on labour markets and the state in the developed and developing world It focuses especially on the United States and the economies of Asia in particular India Liberalized trade and investment are thought by neoliberals to be the best levers for raising labour standards provided labour market flexibility and capital market restructuring accompany them Labour market flexibility and capital market restructuring at a first glance appear to be complementary and symmetric policies In practice however they might have very asymmetric consequences This book addresses these issues and it presents a comprehensive analysis of the key questions such as How far is globalization a real threat to the conventional systems of wage fixation employment pattern and basic rights at work in both developed as well as underdeveloped countries Are casualization and informalization of the workforce direct outcomes of deregulation How do labour organizations cope with the volatility of the labour market Are the existing labour market conditions and forms of labour organizations misfits in the globalized business world Is it at all feasible to choose a high road that combines some degree of labour market flexibility with better labour standards This book will be of interest to academics working on International Development Development Economics Political Economy Comparative Labour Studies and Asian Studies African Studies Association Annual Meeting. [Program] African Studies Association, The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1880 How Lifeworlds Work Michael Jackson, 2017-10-10 Michael Jackson has spent much of his career elaborating his rich conception of lifeworlds mining his ethnographic and personal experience for insights into how our subjective and social lives are mutually constituted In How Lifeworlds Work Jackson draws on years of ethnographic fieldwork in West Africa to highlight the dynamic quality of human relationships and reinvigorate the study of kinship and ritual How he asks do we manage the perpetual process of accommodation between social norms and personal emotions impulses and desires How are these two dimensions of lived reality joined and how are the dual imperatives of individual expression and collective viability managed Drawing on the pragmatist tradition psychology and phenomenology Jackson offers an unforgettable beautifully written account of how we make unmake and remake our lifeworlds Africa South of the Sahara Library of Congress. African Section, 1971 British Books in Print, 1985 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Selected Africana Acquisitions University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Library, 1972 Under the Kapok Tree Alma Gottlieb, 2012-02-24 In this companion volume to Parallel Worlds Alma Gottlieb explores ideology and social practices among the Beng people of Côte d'Ivoire Employing symbolic and postmodern perspectives she highlights the dynamically paired notions of identity and difference symbolized by the kapok tree planted at the center of every Beng village This book merits a number of readings An experiment in ethnography that future projects might well emulate Clarke K Speed American Anthropologist An evocative rich ethnography Gottlieb does anthropology a real service Misty L Bastian American Ethnologist Richly detailed This book offers a nuanced descriptive analysis which commands authority Elizabeth Tonkin Man Exemplary Gottlieb's observations on identity and difference are not confined to rituals or other special occasions rather she shows that these principles emerge with equal force during daily social life Monni Adams Journal of African Religion An excellent study John McCall Journal of Folklore Research Africa Report, 1973
