Being Alive and Having to Die Dan Cryer,2011-10-25 One of the year s Top Ten Books on Religion and Spirituality Booklist Being Alive and Having to Die is the story of the remarkable public and private journey of Reverend Forrest Church the scholar activist and preacher whose death became a way to celebrate life Through his pulpit at the prestigious Unitarian Church of All Souls in New York Reverend Forrest Church became a champion of liberal religion and a leading opponent of the religious right An inspired preacher a thoughtful theologian and an eloquent public intellectual Church built a congregation committed to social service for people in need while writing twenty five books hosting a cable television program and being featured in People Esquire New York Magazine and on numerous national television and radio appearances Being Alive and Having to Die works on two levels as an examination of liberal religion during the past 30 years of conservative ascendancy and as a fascinating personal story Church grew up the son of Senator Frank Church of Idaho famous for combating the Vietnam War in the 1960s and the CIA in the 1970s Like many sons of powerful fathers he rebelled and took a different path in life which led him to his own prominence Then in 1991 at the height of his fame he fell in love with a married parishioner and nearly lost his pulpit Eventually he regained his stature overcame a long secret alcoholism wrote his best books and found himself diagnosed with terminal cancer His three year public journey toward death brought into focus the preciousness of life not only for himself but for his ministry Based on extraordinary access to Church and over 200 interviews with family friends and colleagues Dan Cryer bears witness to a full fascinating at time controversial life Being Alive and Having to Die is an honest look at an imperfect man and his lasting influence on modern faith English
