Cultivating Freud's Garden in France Marion Michel Oliner, 1988 Find this and more great psychotherapy titles at our Jason Aronson website      Freud Peter Gay, 1998 A biography and study of the psychoanalyst's career family personal life and professional struggles      Reading Freud's Patients Anat Tzur Mahalel, 2020-06-01 Winner of the 2021 ABAPsa Book Prize Award What would the story of analysis look like if it were told through the eyes of the analysand How would the patient write and present the analytic experience How would the narrative as written by the analysand differ from the analytic narrative commonly offered by the analyst What do the actual analytic narratives written by Freud's patients look like This book aims to confront these intriguing questions with an innovative reading of memoirs by Freud's patients These patients including Sergei Pankejeff known as the Wolf Man the poet H D and the American psychoanalyst Abram Kardiner all came to Vienna specially to meet Freud and embark with him on the intimate and thrilling journey of deciphering the unconscious and unravelling the secrets of the psyche A broad psychoanalytic and literary historical reading of their memoirs is offered in this new entry to the popular Routledge History of Psychoanalysis Series with the purpose of presenting the analysands narratives as they themselves recounted them This makes it possible to re-examine the links among psychoanalysis literature and translation and sheds new light on the complex challenge of coming to know oneself through the encounter with otherness This book is unique in its focus on multiple memoirs by patients of Freud and presents a fresh even startling close up look at psychoanalysis as a clinical practice and as a rigorous discourse and offers a new vision of Freud's strengths and at times defects It will be of considerable interest to scholars of psychoanalysis and intellectual history as well as those with a wider interest in literature and memoir      Freud's House Laurence Klavan, 1997 THE STORY Eric and Sharon went to high school together now twenty years later they meet again during a service at a Manhattan synagogue He is a struggling model and substance abuser in a shallow relationship with a California blond she is an intensely bright and accomplished doctor whose current relationship is an uneasy flirtation with a gentile doctor He is there to join the current trend of rediscovering his religion she has always been fiercely devoted to hers Over a year's worth of religious holidays their relationship changes from hostility to attraction to a full fledged affair until they betray each other ostensibly in the name of faith A provocative romantic comedy FREUD'S HOUSE entertainingly examines how we use religion for our own ends and treats both of its characters with compassion but without sentimentality Each is sincere each is right each is at fault      Why Freud Fainted Samuel Rosenberg, 1978      A Garden A Day Ruth Chivers, 2023-11-09 An exploration of gardens through the ages and across the globe in 366 daily entries from the ancient hanging gardens of Babylon to a vegetable plot on the International Space Station In this fascinating and beautifully illustrated collection garden writer Ruth Chivers presents a garden for every day of the year It's a sumptuous journey through garden history design horticulture literary inspiration folklore and poetry From Sissinghurst to Versailles from the medieval poem The Romance of the Rose to the latest horticultural details of a rewilded garden from imaginary gardens in literature to the real gardens that inspired Van Gogh and Orwell here are absorbing garden stories for the whole year Botanical paintings sit next to historic plans and the very best garden photography The entries are annotated with intriguing facts and inspiring ideas telling the stories of gardens past present and even future A true celebration of gardens A Garden A Day is a beautiful and essential book for any gardener that brings home the wonder of these spaces to all of us Freud and Beyond Stephen A. Mitchell, Margaret J.

Black, 2016-05-10 The classic in depth history of psychoanalysis presenting over a hundred years of thought and theories Sigmund Freud's concepts have become a part of our psychological vocabulary unconscious thoughts and feelings conflict the meaning of dreams the sensuality of childhood But psychoanalytic thinking has undergone an enormous expansion and transformation since Freud's death in 1939 With Freud and Beyond Stephen A Mitchell and Margaret J Black make the full scope of twentieth century psychoanalytic thinking from Harry Stack Sullivan to Jacques Lacan D W Winnicott to Melanie Klein available for the first time Richly illustrated with case examples this lively jargon free introduction makes modern psychoanalytic thought accessible at last

The Lies We Tell Debra Webb, 2019-09-17 In this thriller by the author of The Secrets We Bury danger continues for a doctor grappling with an enigmatic past and the threat of a serial killer Doctor Rowan Dupont knows a serial killer is coming for her Julian Addington has been waiting Watching And it's only a matter of time before he strikes But what Julian doesn't know is that Rowan is ready for him And more than anything she wants answers How well did the depraved killer actually know her mother And how many lies have been spun in the years since she took her own life Working alongside her childhood friend Police Chief Billy Brannigan Rowan is determined to get to the bottom of her mother's puzzling suicide once and for all even if it means exposing an unsettling past It certainly seems like her family's Victorian funeral home has borne witness to more than one dark secret but when a recent double homicide leads to an even grislier discovery separating the truth from the lies might be the last thing Rowan does Praise for the novels of USA Today bestselling Author Debra Webb Rife with tension A gripping read 1 New York Times bestselling author Sandra Brown on The Longest Silence You will fly through the pages of this action packed thriller 1 New York Times bestselling author Lisa Gardner on No Darker Place Webb weaves incredible twists and turns and a mind blowing conclusion RT Book Reviews on The Longest Silence

The Unconscious without Freud Rosemarie Sponner Sand, 2013-12-18 During the first ten years of his career in psychological medicine Sigmund Freud espoused a theory of unconsciousness which predated his own As Rosemarie Sand describes in The Unconscious without Freud he would evolve this theory over the course of his career and eventually apply it to his own psychological practice Once Freud's hypothesis of unconscious mental functioning was published the same professionals who had valued the traditional concept turned against what they considered to be a catastrophic logically indefensible revision The scientific investigation of unconscious influences was retarded for decades as a war zone opened between implacable opponents and intransigent defenders of the Freudian concept of unconscious mind

In the din of this battle the traditional theory free of the features which Freud's foes could not accept was forgotten Sand argues that a return to this original theory which psychotherapists and experimenters might both espouse could contribute to a cessation of hostilities and lead to the peaceful development of a theory of the unconscious one that is free from the stigma that is currently attached to Freudian theory

Walking Cities: London Jaspar Joseph-Lester, Simon King, Amy Blier-Carruthers, Roberto Bottazzi, 2020-05-12 Walking Cities London second edition brings together a new interdisciplinary field of artists writers architects musicians human geographers and philosophers to consider how a city walk informs and triggers new processes of making thinking researching and communicating In particular the book examines how the city contains narratives knowledge and contested materialities that are best accessed through the act of walking The varied contributions take the form of short stories illustrated essays personal reflections and accounts of walks both real and fictional While artist and RCA tutor Rut Blees Luxemburg and philosopher Jean Luc Nancy recount a nocturnal journey from Shoreditch to the City of London architect Peter St John of the practice Caruso St John offers a detailed and personal reflection on the Holloway Road and architect and author Douglas Murphy examines what he calls London's more politically charged locations in his account of a solitary walk through an area of South London Ultimately Walking Cities London seeks to understand the wider significance of changing geographies to generate critical questions and creative perspectives for navigating the social and political impact of rapid urban change

Freud in Zion Eran J. Rolnik, 2018-03-05 Freud in Zion tells the story of psychoanalysis coming to Jewish Palestine Israel In this ground breaking study psychoanalyst and historian Eran Rolnik explores the encounter between psychoanalysis Judaism Modern Hebrew culture and the Zionist revolution in a unique political and cultural context of war immigration ethnic tensions colonial rule and nation building Based on hundreds of hitherto unpublished documents including many unpublished letters by Freud this book integrates intellectual and social history to offer a moving and persuasive account of how psychoanalysis permeated popular and intellectual discourse in the emerging Jewish state

The Enigma of the Oceanic Feeling William B. Parsons, 1999-06-17 This study examines the history of the psychoanalytic theory of mysticism starting with the seminal correspondence between Freud and Romain Rolland concerning the concept of oceanic feeling Providing a corrective to current views which frame psychoanalysis as pathologizing mysticism Parsons reveals the existence of three models entertained by Freud and Rolland the classical reductive ego adaptive and transformational which allows for a transcendent dimension to mysticism Then reconstructing Rolland's personal mysticism the oceanic feeling through texts and letters unavailable to Freud Parsons argues that Freud misinterpreted the oceanic feeling In offering a fresh interpretation of Rolland's mysticism Parsons constructs a new dialogical approach for psychoanalytic theory of mysticism which integrates culture studies developmental perspectives and the deep epistemological and transcendent claims of the mystics

The Lives of Lucian Freud: The Restless Years William

Feaver, 2019-10-29 The first biography of the epic life of one of the most important enigmatic and private artists of the 20th century Drawn from almost 40 years of conversations with the artist letters and papers it is a major work written by a well known British art critic Lucian Freud 1922 2011 is one of the most influential figurative painters of the 20th century His paintings are in every major museum and many private collections here and abroad William Feaver's daily calls from 1973 until Freud died in 2011 as well as interviews with family and friends were crucial sources for this book Freud had ferocious energy worked day and night but his circle was broad including not just other well known artists but writers bluebloods royals in England and Europe drag queens fashion models gamblers bookies and gangsters like the Kray twins Fierce rebellious charismatic extremely guarded about his life he was witty mischievous and a womanizer This brilliantly researched book begins with the Freuds life in Berlin the rise of Hitler and the family's escape to London in 1933 when Lucian was 10 Sigmund Freud was his grandfather and Ernst his father was an architect In London in his twenties his first solo show was in 1944 at the Lefevre Gallery Around this time Stephen Spender introduced him to Virginia Woolf at night he was taking Pauline Tennant to the Gargoyle Club owned by her father and frequented by Dylan Thomas he was also meeting Sonia Orwell Cecil Beaton Auden Patrick Leigh Fermor and the Aly Khan and his muse was a married femme fatale 13 years older Lorna Wishart But it was Francis Bacon who would become his most important influence and the painters Frank Auerbach and David Hockney close friends This is an extremely intimate lively and rich portrait of the artist full of gossip and stories recounted by Freud to Feaver about people encounters and work Freud's art was his life my work is purely autobiographical and he usually painted only family friends lovers children though there were exceptions like the famous small portrait of the Queen With his later portraits the subjects were often nude names were never given and sittings could take up to 16 months each session lasting five hours but subjects were rarely bored as Freud was a great raconteur and mimic This book is a major achievement a tour de force that reveals the details of the life and innermost thoughts of the greatest portrait painter of our time Volume I has 41 black and white integrated images and 2 eight page color inserts Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes's writings on photography and the film theory of Christian

Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay s reputation as one of today s premier cultural and intellectual historians

Bibliography of the History of Medicine , Love and the Novel Christina Lupton,2022-06-02 It is a clever well written book and I often found myself underlining whole paragraphs as I read wonderfully insightful I ve never read accounts of any of these texts that manage to be at once so searching and so wondrously concise and Lupton made me want to go back to them all Rachel Cooke Observer Incandescent Lara Feigel Guardian A subversive brilliant and beautifully written book about love play and power in fiction and in the well read life Sarah Moss author of Summerwater A delicious combination of critical thought and passionate personal experience Tanya Shadrack author of The Cure for Sleep Romantic love was born alongside the novel and books have been shaping how we experience and think about our most intimate stories ever since But what do novels give us when our own lives diverge from the usual narrative paths Christina is a professor used to examining stories with a critical eye until one day in middle age she finds herself falling in love and leaving her marriage for a romance with another woman This involves a familiar enough tale but when her new partner suffers a stroke Tina begins to reflect on the sorts of love that novels rarely capture A heady mix of memoir criticism and storytelling that draws on novels ranging from Pride and Prejudice to Price of Salt Anna Karenina to Conversations with Friends to illuminate the ways love and novels work and show how some types of love which don t race to a narrative end point might be the most important of all

Freud/Tiffany Elizabeth Danto,Alexandra Steiner-Strauss,2018-12-12 With over 100 archival photographs and nine original wide ranging essays Freud Tiffany brings to life the fascinating intersection of psychoanalysis and education Out of the cultural and political ferment of inter war Vienna emerged the Hietzing School founded in the 1920s by Anna Freud the youngest daughter of Sigmund Freud and Dorothy Tiffany Burlingham the youngest daughter of the great American artist Louis Comfort Tiffany Anna Freud s story unfolds over three decades from her adolescence through the 1940s as she and Dorothy Tiffany Burlingham leverage their hands on research with children into educational innovations at the Hietzing School and beyond The Viennese psychoanalysts of the 1920s demonstrated a unique sensitivity to marginalised populations and to the impact of war its threats and its aftermath especially on the lives of children The book features never before seen historical photographs including four of Sigmund Freud as well as unpublished archival material and original paintings Drawings manuscripts and memoirs make vivid the founders vision of the Hietzing School s origins its day to day experience and its enduring significance for our understanding of education and the developing mind Marking the first publication of many of the historic materials originally showcased in 2017 at a major Freud Museum London exhibition the international scholarship behind Freud Tiffany demonstrates that the Hietzing School remains the seedbed for a surprising range of modern theory and practice in child and adolescent mental health from Erik Erikson's lifespan model of identity to the legal concept of the best interests of the child The Freud and Tiffany legacies are now brought together as never before in this lively book and the Hietzing School is restored to its rightful place in the history of so many ideas with which we are still working today The book is essential for any reader interested in the cultural legacy of interwar Vienna

Western Rationality and the Angel of Dreams Murray Lionel Wax, 1999 Throughout recorded time people have been fascinated by dreams and their meanings Tribal societies valorize knowledge obtained from dreams and respect possession as a channel for revelation In contrast implicit in Western intellectual thought is an image of the human as a non social atom with a unitary and rational mind which turns dreaming into an epiphenomenon or for Freud a neurosis in miniature Integrating materials from anthropology post Freudian psychoanalysis social evolution and the social psychology of Mead Cooley James and Sullivan this book offers a view of the self and the psyche that provides meaning to the views of traditional peoples on dreams possession and the loss of self

Bestiarium Judaicum Jay Geller, 2017-11-14 Given the vast inventory of verbal and visual images of nonhuman animals pigs dogs vermin rodents apes disseminated for millennia to debase dehumanize and justify the persecution of Jews Bestiarium Judaicum asks What is at play when Jewish identified writers tell animal stories Focusing on the nonhuman animal constructions of primarily Germanophone authors including Sigmund Freud Heinrich Heine Franz Kafka and Gertrud Kolmar Jay Geller expands his earlier examinations On Freud's Jewish Body Mitigating Circumcisions and The Other Jewish Question Identifying the Jew and Making Sense of Modernity of how such writers drew upon representations of Jewish corporeality in order to work through their particular situations in Gentile modernity From Heine's ironic lizards to Kafka's Red Peter and Siodmak's Wolf Man Bestiarium Judaicum brings together Jewish cultural studies and critical animal studies to ferret out these writers' engagement with the bestial answers upon which the Jewish and animal questions converged and by which varieties of the species Jew were identified
