The Comforts of Home in Western Europe, 1700-1900 Jon Stobart, 2020-02-20 Comfort both physical and affective is a key aspect in our conceptualization of the home as a place of emotional attachment yet its study remains under developed in the context of the European house In this volume Jon Stobart has assembled an international cast of contributors to discuss the ways in which architectural and spatial innovations coupled with the emotional assemblage of objects to create comfortable homes in early modern Europe The book features a two section structure focusing on the historiography of architectural and spatial innovations and material culture in the early modern home It also includes 10 case studies which draw on specific examples from water closets in Georgian Dublin to wallpapers in 19th century Cambridge to illustrate how people made use of and responded to the technological improvements and the emotional assemblage of objects which made the home comfortable In addition it explores the role of memory and memorialisation in the domestic space and the extent to which home comforts could be carried about by travellers or reproduced in places far removed from the home The Comforts of Home in Western Europe 1700 1900 offers a fresh contribution to the study of comfort in the early modern home and will be vital reading for academics and students interested in early modern history material culture and the history of interior architecture

Crime, Law and Popular Culture in Europe, 1500-1900 Richard McMahon, 2013-06-17 This book explores the relationship between crime law and popular culture in Europe from the sixteenth century onwards How was crime understood and dealt with by ordinary people and to what degree did they resort to or reject the official law and criminal justice system as a means of dealing with different forms of criminal activity Overall the volume will serve to illuminate how experiences of and attitudes to crime and the law may have corresponded or differed in different locations and contexts as well as contributing to a wider understanding of popular culture and consciousness in early modern and modern Europe Migration, Settlement and Belonging in Europe, 1500-1930s Steven King, Anne Winter, 2013-11-01 The issues around settlement belonging and poor relief have for too long been understood largely from the perspective of England and Wales This volume offers a pan European survey that encompasses Switzerland Prussia Belgium the Netherlands and Britain It explores how the conception of belonging changed over time and space from the 1500s onwards how communities dealt with the welfare expectations of an increasingly mobile population that migrated both within and between states the welfare rights that were attached to those who belonged and how ordinary people secured access to welfare resources What emerged was a sophisticated European settlement system which on the one hand structured itself to limit the claims of the poor and yet on the other was peculiarly sensitive to their demands and negotiations The Lives of the Kings & Queens of England Antonia Fraser, 2000-02 A compendium of illustrated biographies of the British monarchs revised throughout and updated to include the recent history of the Windsors Royal Air Force Quarterly and Commonwealth Air Forces Journal , 1966
