European Society And Politics:

European Society and Politics Stanley Rothman, 1970 European Society and Politics Stanley Rothman, Howard Scarrow, Martin Schain, 1976 Politics and Society in Western Europe Jan-Erik Lane, Svante O. Ersson, 1999-02-23

Politics and Society in Western Europe is a comprehensive introduction for students of West European politics and of comparative politics. This new edition has been extensively revised and updated to meet with the new needs of undergraduate students as they come to terms with a changing social and political landscape in Europe. This textbook provides a full analysis of the political systems of 18 Western European countries: their political parties, elections and party systems as well as the structures of government at local, regional, national and European Union levels. Throughout the book, key theoretical ideas are accessibly introduced and examined against the very latest empirical data on civil society and the state. European Society and Politics Sh Rothman, 1970 The New Politics of European Civil Society Ulrike Liebert, Hans-Jörg Trenz, 2012-08-21

Over the past two decades, civil society has played a pivotal role in Europe, from the demise of Communist rule to the reunification of Europe, followed by the expansion of the single market to the reconstitution of democracy in the enlarged European Union. European civil society has emerged as a social space between EU governance and the citizens of the member states, populated by non-state agents claiming to represent, speak for or participate on behalf of the most varied social constituencies in EU decision making. This book consolidates European civil society research by reviewing its conceptual, normative and empirical analytical foundations. With contributors from political science to sociology to law, it captures the evolving practices of European civil society that stretch across the national, local, the European and the global realm. Developing an analytical framework that highlights the interplay between civil society building and polity building from above as well as from below within the legal and institutional framework of the EU, they examine whether and how civil society can contribute to making democracy work in normative, democratic theoretical perspectives. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of civil society, European politics, political science and sociology. Mobilising Politics and Society? Sonia Lucarelli, Claudio Maria Radaelli, Claudio Radaelli, 2013

In addition, the volume contains horizontal chapters on three important issues: the mobilisation of intellectuals, sub-national politics and the participation of women. The editors compare results of the country chapters in their conclusions. The book contains documentation on the EU Convention and South European participants. The Politics of Eurozone Reforms Zdenek

Kudrna, Sonja Puntscher Riekmann, Fabio Wasserfallen, 2021-08-20 Recent Eurozone reforms mark the most profound deepening of European integration since Maastricht The Politics of Eurozone Reforms analyses how member states formed preferences in the politics of these reforms and how preferences translated into policy outcomes on the European level The chapters summarize insights on the role of different actors and institutions from four datasets based on 200 expert interviews the analysis of 5000 policy documents and constitutional court cases in all EU member states The findings confirm some common wisdom dispel some myths and provide insight into mechanisms facilitating further reforms While quantitative analyses show that Northern and Southern member states were deeply divided case study chapters provide a more refined view Empirical data also indicates that reform decisions were dominated by governments and EU institutions but dispel the notion that Germany alone imposed its preferred policy This book goes further and unpacks the legacies of the EMU crisis that make future reforms dependent on the reduction of financial sector risks which is a necessary condition for rebuilding trust and restarting the gradual convergence of Eurozone reform preferences

Crisis Elections, New Contenders and Government Formation Anna Bosco, Susannah Verney, 2018-12-07 The parliamentary elections of 2015 16 in Greece Spain and Portugal had extraordinary consequences bringing repeat elections unprecedented processes of government formation and uncharted government outcomes Greece formed a coalition of radical left and radical right and Portugal its first government supported by the communist party while Spain took ten months to get a government These developments are especially astonishing in three states which in previous decades were a byword for democratic stability After the transitions following the fall of their dictatorships in the 1970s Greece Spain and Portugal established bipolar electoral competition and predictable patterns of government formation But more recently all three countries have been in the frontline of the economic crisis and austerity implementation triggering electoral realignments and turning the radical left into a major player This volume offers essential understanding of the political destabilisation of Southern Europe It includes detailed analyses of all five crisis elections and of Greece's bailout referendum It also provides studies of the five new contender parties SYRIZA Podemos Ciudadanos the Bloco Esquerda and the Portuguese Communist Party which played a key role in government formation for the first time The chapters originally published as a special issue in South European Society and Politics

The Lost Decade? The 1950s in European History, Politics, Society and Culture Heiko Feldner, Claire Gorrara, Kevin Passmore, 2010-10-12 This volume of essays explores the social political and cultural legacies of a decade which has until relatively recently received scant scholarly attention Sandwiched uncomfortably between the traumatic events of the Second World War and the dramatic changes of the 1960s the 1950s appeared as seemingly transitional years while they were in fact an astonishingly fecund period of reassessment and experimentation when traditional models were re evaluated and new models were road tested to be either developed or rejected An important intervention in the dynamic scholarly re examination of the 1950s this volume analyzes these years in relation to three broadly defined areas historiography politics and society and culture What emerges from all three parts of the volume is a vision of the 1950s as a decade which was to have a profound impact on post war European identities in two key respects as a time of accelerated European intellectual exchange and as a time of fertile receptivity to the new variously formulated and contested across and within national borders Written by experts in the field the contributions to this volume represent some of the most exciting work on the 1950s currently being undertaken in Europe and the US They combine high intellectual standards with accessibility and will appeal to academics students and the general reader alike
