Reinventing Foreign Aid William R. Easterly, 2008-05-09 Top experts in the field discuss how to improve the effectiveness of foreign aid proposing practical solutions to specific problems rather than a utopian master plan The urgency of reducing poverty in the developing world has been the subject of a public campaign by such unlikely policy experts as George Clooney Alicia Keyes Elton John Angelina Jolie and Bono And yet accompanying the call for more foreign aid is an almost universal discontent with the effectiveness of the existing aid system In Reinventing Foreign Aid development expert William Easterly has gathered top scholars in the field to discuss how to improve foreign aid These authors Easterly points out are not claiming that their ideas will to invoke a current slogan Make

Poverty History Rather they take on specific problems and propose some hard headed solutions Easterly himself in an expansive and impassioned introductory chapter makes a case for the searchers who explore solutions by trial and error and learn from feedback over the planners who throw an endless supply of resources at a big goal as the most likely to reduce poverty Other writers look at scientific evaluation of aid projects including randomized trials and describe projects found to be cost effective including vaccine delivery and HIV education consider how to deal with the government of the recipient state work through it or bypass a possibly dysfunctional government examine the roles of the International Monetary Fund a de facto aid provider and the World Bank and analyze some new and innovative proposals for distributing aid Contributors Abhijit Banerjee Nancy Birdsall Craig Burnside Esther Duflo Domenico Fanizza William Easterly Ruimin He Kurt Hoffman Stephen Knack Michael Kremer Mari Kuraishi Ruth Levine Bertin Martens John McMillan Edward Miguel Jonathan Morduch Todd Moss Gunilla Pettersson Lant Pritchett Steven Radelet Aminur Rahman Ritva Reinikka Jakob Svensson Nicolas van de Walle James Vreeland Dennis Whittle Michael Woolcock

Foreign Aid for Development George Mavrotas, 2010-02-25

Foreign aid is one of the few topics in the development discourse with such an uninterrupted yet volatile history in terms of interest and attention from academics policymakers and practitioners alike Does aid work in promoting growth and reducing poverty in the developing world Will a new big push approach accelerate progress towards the Millennium Development Goals or will another opportunity be missed Can the lessons of almost half a century of aid giving be learnt These are truly important questions in view of the emerging new landscape in foreign aid and recent developments related to the global financial crisis which are expected to have far reaching implications for both donors and recipients engaged in this area Against this shifting aid landscape there is a pressing need to evaluate progress to date and shed new light on emerging issues and agendas This volume brings together leading aid experts to review the progress achieved so far identify the challenges ahead and discuss the emerging policy agenda in foreign aid A central conclusion of this important and timely volume is that since development aid remains crucial for many developing countries a huge effort is needed from both donors and aid recipients to overcome the inefficiencies and make aid work better for poor people After all as global citizens we have a moral obligation to do the best we can to lift people out of poverty in the developing world The findings of this book will be of considerable interest to professionals and policymakers engaged in policy reforms in foreign aid and provide an essential one stop reference for students of development international finance and economics

Securing Development Bernard Harborne, William Dorotinsky, Paul M. Bisca, 2017-03-01

Securing Development Public Finance and the Security Sector highlights the role of public finance in the delivery of security and criminal justice services This book offers a framework for analyzing public financial management financial transparency and oversight as well as expenditure policy issues that determine how to most appropriately manage security and justice services The interplay among security justice and public finance is still a relatively unexplored area of development Such a perspective can help security actors provide more professional effective and efficient security and justice services for citizens while also strengthening systems for accountability The book is the result of a project undertaken jointly by staff from the World Bank and the United Nations integrating the disciplines where each institution holds a comparative advantage and a core mandate The primary audience includes government officials bearing both security and financial responsibilities staff of international organizations working on public expenditure management and security sector issues academics and development practitioners working in an advisory capacity Resources in Education, 1997

Land Reform in Ukraine Csaba Csáki, Zvi Lerman, 1997-01-01 This study summarizes the first five years 1991-96 of agrarian reforms in Ukraine presenting the results of a farm level survey conducted in 11 provinces between January and March 1996 The findings show that the growth of private farming has slowed down

Easing Barriers to Movement of Plant Varieties for Agricultural Development David Gisselquist, Jitendra Srivastava, 1997-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 364 The trade policies of the countries of the Andean Group Bolivia Colombia Ecuador Peru and Venezuela are in the midst of rapid change particularly in agriculture where trade policies are being overhauled and trade rules rewritten on domestic regional and global levels This paper highlights the trade options open to each country by looking at agricultural policy in light of general trade policy The report also discusses the particular role the Andean Group is playing and how the trade pact may influence the liberalization of agricultural markets

A Commercial Bank's Microfinance Program Bikki K. Randhawa, Orlando J. Sacay, 1997-01-01 Banking Sri Lanka's Rubber Industry Yusuf Choudhry, Douglas W. Lister, 1997 World Bank Technical Paper No 359 As the telecommunications sector evolves toward a more competitive environment in which the private actors become the main players it is essential to develop policies that will reduce the disparities between urban and rural telecommunications services This report provides a comprehensive analysis of the technical and financial parameters that have to be considered in formulating such policies It presents an array of options for commercial operation of rural telecommunications and challenges the general perception that rural telecommunications services are unprofitable It demonstrates that services can be economically delivered to rural areas at affordable prices while simultaneously providing reasonable financial returns to investors A planning tool kit is included that assists in the design of the various options

Poverty Reduction and Human Development in the Caribbean Judy L. Baker, 1997-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 366 Despite impressive success in improving living conditions in many Caribbean countries poverty still persists throughout the region This study seeks to improve our understanding of poverty in the Caribbean and the current efforts to address it It analyzes the causes and characteristics of poverty in 15 Caribbean countries and reviews the experiences with the poverty and alleviation efforts that countries have pursued Prepared for the 1996 meeting of the Caribbean Group for Cooperation in Economic Development this report provides recommendations on how macroeconomic and social policies can be further oriented to reduce poverty and promote human resource development

Sri Lanka's Tea Industry Ridwan Ali, 1997-01-01 World Bank Discussion

Paper No 367 Many developing countries enforce seed regulations and other policies that obstruct private companies from operating and delivering new technology This volume presents recommendations and selected papers from an international workshop organized by the World Bank in 1995 to review seed policies and to develop recommendations on ways of easing entry barriers for certain varieties of seeds in developing countries The papers and discussions identified reforms to speed the flow of private seed technology to these countries with a particular focus on reforms and their impacts in Bangladesh India Peru and Turkey China Todd Johnson,1996-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 335 Presents the proceedings of a high level international symposium on Chinese state owned enterprise reform held in Beijing China June 1995 This report includes five policy option papers presented by Chinese officials and one presented by the World Bank Group that makes recommendations for reform on the basis of the Group s international experience in this area Policy Options for Reform of Chinese State-owned Enterprises Harry G. Broadman,1996-01-01 Annotation World Bank Discussion Paper No 335 Presents the proceedings of a high level international symposium on Chinese state owned enterprise reform held in Beijing China June 1995 This report includes five policy option papers presented by Chinese officials and one presented by the World Bank Group that makes recommendations for reform on the basis of the Group s international experience in this area

Frontier and Developing Asia Mr.Alfred Schipke,2015-04-10 With a combined population of more than 350 million people frontier and developing Asia which includes countries such as Vietnam Cambodia and Bangladesh is located in the world s fastest growing region and has favorable demographics The countries share a number of common macroeconomic financial and structural challenges This book addresses issues related to economic growth and structural transformation as well as the risk of a poverty trap and rising income inequality Ownership Leadership and Transformation Thomas Theisohn,Carlos Lopes,2013-07-04 The third and final in a series this text bridges the conceptual foundations of capacity development and the difficulties and practical realities in the field It demystifies the process of capacity development to make it more user friendly The book has two parts The first shows how long standing development dilemmas can be turned into opportunities for capacity development and societal transformation It proposes a set of principles to guide the search for context specific approaches as the norm and based on these default principles the authors explore relevant issues in comprehensible stages through a capacity lens The second part is a compilation of experiences and lessons from around the world to showcase promising initiatives and innovative solutions It forms a casebook of insights and good rather than best practices on how development stakeholders can turn development dilemmas into opportunities tailored to the needs of their societies World Bank HIV/AIDS Interventions Julia Dayton,1998-01-01 The AIDS epidemic is one of the greatest development challenges of the 20th century Since 1986 the World Bank has supported member countries efforts to fight the epidemic in many ways including committing over US 550 million to HIV AIDS prevention and mitigation efforts This paper the first comprehensive study of all World Bank HIV AIDS related activities assesses the appropriateness of Bank interventions from the perspective of public economies and reviews the economic evaluation and implementation of projects

Integrating Social Concerns Into Private Sector Decisionmaking Kathryn McPhail, Aidan Davy, 1998 This paper contains two separate but intimately linked reports that deal with corporate social responsibility The first explores the critical success factors supporting the integration of social concerns into the planning and implementation of privately financed projects in the mining oil and gas sectors The second reviews corporate practices with respect to social and environmental assessment and the integration between the two
