Quality Matters John Winston Mayne, 2018-12-12 Information regular systematic reliable is the life blood of democracy and the fuel of effective management Surely today there is no problem with information for this is the age of information overload It pours onto our computer screens and out of our printers Indeed many governments claim often with some justification to be more open and transparent than ever before But what if the life blood is contaminated or the fuel polluted Then the body politic sickens and the engine of public management runs rough It is the vital issue of the quality of the information we receive that this book addresses Quality Matters compares approaches across different jurisdictional settings and across three different types of information evaluation The chapters describe and analyze quality assurance in a number of countries and within a variety of international organizations These have been selected either because they are widely considered to be leaders in evaluating information or because they have experience with assuring quality information that can instruct others Contributors are from Australia Canada the European Union France the Netherlands New Zealand Sweden Switzerland United Kingdom United States and the World Bank This pioneering study analyzes practices for assuring the quality of evaluation performance auditing and reporting in the face of political organizational and technical obstacles A final chapter addresses the extent to which quality assurance systems become bothersome rituals or remain meaningful mechanisms to ensure quality control This well structured volume will be of particular interest to policymakers and adds much to the literature on program evaluation and performance auditing

Metadata and Semantic Research Salvador Sanchez-Alonso, Ioannis N. Athanasiadis, 2010-10-08 Metadata and semantic research is a growing complex ecosystem of conceptual theoretical methodological and technological frameworks offering innovative computational solutions in the design and development of computer based systems Within this perspective researchers working in the area need to further develop and integrate a broad range of methods results and solutions coming from different areas MTSR has been designed as a forum allowing researchers to present and discuss specialized results as general contributions to the field This volume collects the papers selected for presentation at the 4th International Conference on Metadata and Semantic Research MTSR 2010 held in Alcala de Henares a world heritage city and birthplace of Miguel de Cervantes at the University of Alcala October 20-22 2010 The first MTSR conference was held online in 2005 followed by two more editions in Corfu 2007 and in Milan 2009 The experience acquired during the past five years and the warm welcome of MTSR by the research community encouraged us to organize this new edition of the series and turn it into a yearly event According to the number and quality of the contributions submitted for revision our 2010 effort was again a considerable success

Encyclopedia of Evaluation Sandra Mathison, 2005 All humans are nascent evaluators Evaluation has been with us throughout history and in its modern form has moved from the margins to the centers of organizations agencies educational institutions and corporate boardrooms No longer a specialized part time activity evaluation has become institutionalized a common practice and indeed an important commodity in political and social life The Encyclopedia of Evaluation is an authoritative first of its kind who what where why and how of the field of evaluation Covering professional practice as well as academia this volume chronicles the development of the field its history key figures theories approaches and goals From the leading publisher in the field of evaluation this work is a must have for all social science libraries departments that offer courses in evaluation and students and professional evaluators around the world The entries in this Encyclopedia capture the essence of evaluation as a practice methods techniques roles people as a profession professional obligations shared knowledge ethical imperatives events places and as a discipline theories and models of evaluation ontological and epistemological issues International Scope Despite the fact that evaluation practice is not institutionalized in the same way around the world the encyclopedia recognizes the international growth of the profession due in large part to organizations such as UNICEF the World Bank and USAID Entries cover the following Afghanistan Belgium Cambodia Ethiopia Germany Greece Guyana Israel Netherlands Niger Scotland South Africa Spain and Uganda In addition the international group of authors includes contributions from more than a dozen nations There are a number of stories about evaluation practice around the world that are set off as sidebars in the text These stories provide a glimpse into the nature of evaluation practice in a diverse set of circumstances delineate the common

Evaluation Thesaurus Michael Scriven, 1980 Functions, Methods and Concepts in Evaluation Research R. Stockmann, W. Meyer, 2013-11-27

By explaining the role of evaluation in modern societies and its historical development in the USA and Europe this book highlights the scientific roots of Evaluation and offers an overview of its fundamental theories and concepts The process of collecting analyzing and interpreting is explored giving an insight into the course of an evaluation

Evaluation Jan-Eric Furubo, 2018-02-06 Evaluation has come of age Today most social and political observers would have difficulty imagining a society where evaluation is not a fixture of daily life from individual programs to local authorities to parliamentary committees While university researchers grant makers and public servants may think there are too many types of evaluation rankings and reviews evaluation is nonetheless viewed positively by the public It is perceived as a tool for improvement and evaluators are seen as dedicated to using their knowledge for the benefit of society The book examines the degree to which evaluators seek power for their own interests This perspective is based on a simple assumption If you are in possession of an asset that can give you power why not use it for your own interests Can we really trust evaluation to be a force for the good To what degree can we talk about self interest in evaluation and is this self interest something that contradicts other interests such as the benefit of society Such questions and others are addressed in this brilliant innovative international collection of pioneering contributions Evaluating and Valuing in Social Research Thomas A. Schwandt, Emily F. Gates, 2021-08-04 Much applied research takes place as if complex social problems and evaluations of interventions to address them can be dealt with in a purely technical way In contrast this groundbreaking book offers an alternative approach that incorporates sustained systematic reflection about researchers values what values research promotes how decisions about what to value are made and by whom and how judging the value of social interventions takes place The authors offer practical and conceptual guidance to help researchers engage meaningfully with value conflicts and refine their capacity to engage in deliberative argumentation Pedagogical features include a detailed evaluation case Bridge to Practice exercises and annotated resources in most chapters and an end of book glossary Winner Third Place American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year Award Community Public Health Category
