Universal Salvation? Robin A. Parry, Christopher H. Partridge, 2004-03-25 Foreword by Gabriel Fackre Will God one day save all people through Christ's atoning work That is the question at the heart of the debate in this volume a debate sure to challenge readers whatever their current perspective Featuring evangelical writers of exceptional insight and sensitivity Universal Salvation offers a conversation worth everyone's attention The volume opens with a rigorous three part defense of Christian universalism by philosopher Thomas Talbott who argues that Scripture teaches the ultimate salvation of all people including those in hell Gabriel Fackre in his foreword calls Talbott's work the most thoughtfully wrought argument for universalism to date from within the contemporary evangelical community The rest of the book gathers incisive responses to Talbott by Christian scholars from different disciplines who evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of Talbott's arguments take his thought in new directions or explain why they think he is mistaken Talbott then responds to his critics The aim of this volume is not to persuade people that universalism is true but to open up a fairer debate on a controversial subject of continuing importance to theologians and nontheologians alike By exploring universal salvation from biblical philosophical theological and historical perspectives the book helps readers think through the issues more carefully than has been possible with resources previously available Perspectives, 1991 God the Father Almighty Millard J. Erickson, 1998-03-01 In God the Father Almighty Erickson develops a sturdy exposition of the doctrine of God He interacts with criticism brought against the traditional view of God and offers a fresh analysis of the attributes of God in light of Scripture and the contemporary scene God the Father Almighty is a companion volume to Erickson's other theological monographs God in Three Persons and The Word Became Flesh South African Christian Experiences Kelebogile Thomas Resane, 2020-01-01 Some of the studies in this publication excavate lost or disappearing indigenous toponyms Those researchers contribute in a very concrete way to the preservation of indigenous toponyms and thereby also the associated cultural heritage The other papers explore how place naming functions as a mechanism with which to create mental maps and exert socio-political power Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University. Seventh-Day Adventist Theological Seminary, 1995 Baptist Theology James Leo Garrett, 2009 This title offers a comprehensive analysis of Baptist theology Embracing in one common trajectory the major Baptist confessions of faith the major Baptist theologians and the principal Baptist theological movements and controversies this book spans four centuries of Baptist doctrinal history Acknowledging first the pre-1609 roots patristic medieval and Reformational of Baptist theology it examines the Arminian versus Calvinist issues that were first expressed by the General Baptists and the Particular Baptists that dominated English and American Baptist theology during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries from Helwys and Smyth and from Bunyan and Kiffin to Gill Fuller Backus and Boyce and that were quickened by the awakenings and the missionary movement Concurrently there were the Baptist defense of the Baptist distinctives vis-à-vis the paedobaptist world and the unfolding of a strong Baptist confessional tradition Then during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the liberal versus evangelical issues became dominant with Hovey Strong Rauschenbusch and Henry in the North and Mullins Conner Hobbs and Criswell in the South even as a distinctive Baptist Landmarkism developed the discipline of biblical theology was practiced and a structured ecumenism was pursued Missiology both impacted Baptist theology and took it to all the continents where it became increasingly indigenous Conscious that Baptists belong to the free churches and to the believers churches a new generation of Baptist theologians at the advent of the twenty-first century appears somewhat more Calvinist than Arminian and decidedly more evangelical than liberal African Eco-Theology Ikechukwu Anthony KANU, 2022-07-18 This piece articulates in a theological manner African earth-based spiritual traditions and innovative spiritual practices that are emerging in response to the painful realities of climate change mass extinction biodiversity loss and the disruption of local and global ecosystems which have for long not received the attention that it deserves It is in this sense that this Book of Readings titled African Eco Theology Meaning Forms and Expressions will become one of the greatest ornaments and lights in the world of eco theology as it responds to fundamental questions looming at the corridors of ecological discourses New Dimensions in Evangelical Thought David S. Dockery,1998 Assessing the status of evangelical theology at the turn of the century a team of 26 scholars including Alister E McGrath Clark Pinnock Wolfhart Pannenberg and Stanley Grenz honor Millard J Erickson with this volume Edited by David S Dockery The Evangelical Left Millard J.
