Ogan,2019-06-02 The doctrine of election challenges the human mind with the powerful proposition that God has total sovereignty over human life and eternal destiny Just as Adam and Eve chose freely to resist God's will so we resist the idea that God's way is the right way for us When it comes to God's choosing we resist trusting His judgment and try as we may we are determined to reason ourselves into His affairs in order to understand the details of His decisions The Sovereignty of God in Evangelism: How James I. Packer's Confident Evangelistic Theology Informs Contemporary Literature and Practice

Jeffrey William Clark,2007 The author raises important questions relative to the application of Packer's work for evangelism today First what in our post modern climate leads many to question God's sovereign authority A consideration of the evangelistic practices of Finney Graham and McLaren demonstrate that the sovereignty of God may no longer be assumed Second what are the limitations of Packer's word antimony describing the apparent contradiction of two compatible truths Different models and approaches are considered here while finally embracing compatibilism when talking about divine sovereignty and human responsibility A place for mystery must be reserved in this discussion in order to deal fairly with texts emphasizing both realities Evangelism and the Sovereignty of God Jason W. Robert M Solomon, The sovereignty of God is a doctrine that has been debated by Christians for centuries For some this remains a passionate topic creating different camps among Christians endlessly arguing about whether God's sovereignty and human free will can co exist For the majority the doctrine is a vague concept that remains to be explored This book deals with these issues by examining what the Bible says about God's sovereignty and human responsibility It explores the sovereignty of God by looking at God as the Creator Saviour Shepherd and Judge and tackles questions that commonly emerge If we believe that God is truly sovereign then we must live out the implications by living faithfully and responsibly by trusting and obeying Him amid the challenges of life praying to Him sharing about Him with others and serving and hoping in Him Our relationship with Him is an important way to understand how His grace purpose and power invite us to respond responsibly to Him in active discipleship Heart of the Living God Michael G. Maness,2004-06-23 Maness asks us to tie up our sneakers for we are going to have some fun as we hike into the Grand Canyon of Love Love is the treasure of life It is Love all the way Nothing else really matters outside of Love Best of all our Love will only get better in heaven The treasured ability to have loving relationships is God's gift to us in our Imago Dei the image of God we all share Likewise what we know of Love this side of heaven is but a dusty image of what God experiences I want to get personally involved says Maness Can we have a free will relationship with anyone even God if all of what we do and think is settled I don't think so Love is greater than that and I shall prove that and that is indeed a Grand Canyon Manes brings some of the brain splitting complexities of this to light with good humor introduces dynamic foreknowledge and challenges Classical Theisms avoidance of Love And he exposes some foul play in the process Thats the first half of the book For those wanting to strike out on their own wanting to see more of the depth and diversity of the Grand Canyon the second half contains reviews of about 60 major authors a 4 000 Abysmal Bibliography and a huge index to just about everything in the book Maness has thrown a gauntlet before the Classical Theists So tie up your sneakers and take a hike with Michael G Maness as he walks with you into the Grand Canyon see more at www.PreciousHeart.net Evangelism and the sovereignty of God [in Chinese] James Innell Packer, Reformation Translation Fellowship, 1972 J.
