Evangelism In A Tangled World:

Evangelism in a Tangled World Wayne McDill, 1976 Invitation to Evangelism Timothy K. Beougher, 2021-08-24

Essential guidance for a lifestyle of sharing God's good news with a lost world What exactly does it mean to evangelize in a Christian sense And how is such evangelizing supposed to be done Longtime pastor evangelist and professor of evangelism Timothy K Beougher answers these questions and more from theological historical and practical perspectives Beougher demonstrates God's goodness in evangelism through relatable anecdotes Bible teaching and encouraging instruction Invitation to Evangelism welcomes believers into the experience of stepping out in faith of behalf of people God loves Most Christians know that they should be sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with nonbelievers and most also know they aren't witnessing very well or even at all They need help internalizing the content of gospel proclamation and identifying the best way to go about making evangelism a natural part of their lives Invitation to Evangelism guides readers through the essential issues of the gospel message evangelism methods and witnessing models so they are ready and excited to move out in faith as everyday evangelists Beougher's biblical theological historical and practical teaching revolves around following essential aspects of being an evangelist Having compassion as the motivation for evangelism Understanding the good news of Jesus Christ Seeing lost people as persons God loves Relying on the power of the Holy Spirit Paving the way for new believers to share their faith eagerly with others

Mission and Evangelism in a Secularizing World Narry F. Santos, Mark Naylor, 2019-02-14 Secularization as a movement away from a religious orientation to life is strong in Canada and has influence worldwide In this volume missiologists and practitioners across Canada consider how an agenda of Christian mission and evangelism can be advanced in a secularizing environment How can believers be curious and engaged rather than defensive and fearful What changes are required from the evangelical community so that there is productive dialogue and action in ways that maintain faithfulness to the cause of Christ What should the approach of mission be to a new generation steeped in secular narratives How do we answer negative caricatures of Christian mission in light of the history of Residential Schools What examples from the past teach us about developing an irenic approach What positive trends are currently evident in Canada and around the world that counter the secularizing narrative These questions and more are considered in this volume by Canadian scholars who recognize the importance of being relevant to society while maintaining integrity with the Gospel message The essays address secularism in Canadian and worldwide contexts with seriousness insight and an underlying theme of hope recognizing that God's mission has been accomplished is being accomplished and will be accomplished

Evangelism in an Age of Despair Andrew Root, 2025-03-11 Evangelism is a contested even conflicted word But churches are declining in numbers and resources What if we aren't thinking about evangelism in the right way culturally or theologically This book contextualizes evangelism in our late modern times and reimagines what the call to outreach means in today's world Our sad times are made sadder by the realization that our all out pursuit of happiness has made us stressed anxious lonely and depressed says leading practical theologian Andrew Root The French thinker Michel de Montaigne taught us to focus on making ourselves happy but Blaise Pascal pointed out that we are creatures of soul as much as self so happiness does not satisfy Root offers a vision for how a theology of consolation can shape a hopeful approach to evangelism We all need consolation others to care for us in our sadness if we can find such a minister and lean into our sorrow we will find the presence of Jesus Christ Root uses a fictional church to show rather than tell us how consolation evangelism works For support he looks to the ministries of Gregory of Nyssa and his sister Macrina Jean Gerson Johann von Staupitz and Martin Luther who all contend that consolation is central to our transformation into the life of God Faith Crisis Ron Dunn, 2013-06-01 Many well meaning Christians misunderstand the role that faith plays in our relationship with God And because we don't understand the ways of God we open ourselves up to losing faith if he doesn't deliver what we want when we want it But the Bible promises that God always rewards real faith So what then is true faith And how do we tell the difference between truth and a counterfeit faith that is nothing more than false advertising In Faith Crisis Ron Dunn guides us through a study of the nature of faith using Scripture and real life examples to show what the genuine article looks like so there's no mistaking it You'll learn that it's not about quantity but quality and that the reward of faith is not in blessings but in experiencing the very presence of God Televangelism and American Culture Quentin J. Schultze, 2003-09-15 Not just another trashing of televangelism Schultze's sensitive critique of present patterns of religious programming is meant to promote a more responsible Christian use of the television medium His book deserves to be read by all who care deeply about the obedient proclamation of the gospel in contemporary culture Richard Mouw The problems Schultze addresses are more profound than sexual or financial scandals They are rather problems of idolatry substituting a charismatic image on the screen of God heresy defining the faith by what it will do for me and ecclesiastical suicide transforming churches into audiences Amazingly after such an indictment Schultze holds out hope for the Christian use of television Mark Noll The most intelligent report on televangelism that I have read and I suspect the best ever Clearly the work of a smart student a discerning watcher and fair critic of the media but best of all a careful Christian mind Lewis Smedes Schultze s concluding chapter should be required reading for every Christian It provides solid biblical guidelines for calling religious broadcasters to accountability challenges individual Christians as well as the Christian media to be more critical and selective in their support of religious broadcasters and calls Christian educators to address the implications of living in the television age Steve Rabey Christianity Today A disturbing book useful both for the author s cultural and Christian critique and for his citation of a wide range of evidence Lloyd Averill The Christian Century The Christian Century ,1928 The Cumulative Book Index ,1903 Evangelism John MacArthur,2011-03-22 A clear biblical theology of evangelism presented with a historical foundation and practical instruction Expand your MacArthur Pastor s Library to include this much needed topic Evangelism begins by comparing the current state of outreach in American Christianity with evangelism throughout church history and also in the Bible Presenting a theology on the subject that addresses the theological principles that govern evangelism showing how they are played out in the church as well as the family and personal interaction It includes preaching one on one witnessing missions parenting evangelism and commissioning and supporting missionaries This book s substantive and doctrinally insightful guide to biblical outreach complements the previous volumes Preaching Biblical Counseling and Pastoral Ministry Paperbound Books in Print ,1982 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R.
