Joseph Irving

Events Of Our Times The Kent State Massacre:

Kent State/May 4 Scott L. Bills, 1988 The reverberations of the rifle shots that killed four students on May 4 1970 echoed across the nation and beyond Nowhere perhaps did they echo with more persistence and poignancy than at the place where it happened the Kent State University campus For more than ten years the university's name has been a symbol of the Sixties protest movements as the causes of the event were debated lawsuits embroiled participants and victims and concerned people struggled for appropriate means for remembrance and commemoration each issue leading to further if less violent arguments demonstrations and confrontations The May 4 episode has been recounted many times in many ways The events of the succeeding years particularly as they affected the community in which they happened are less well documented As event and as symbol Kent State May 4 means many things to many people This unique collection of essays and personal interviews presents a broad spectrum of these viewpoints in recounting the events of May 4 and those of the aftermath years The result is a composite history from the perspectives of many of those who lived it a reflection of the differing ideological stances and life experiences characteristic of that tumultuous era in American history Four Dead in Ohio William A. Gordon, 1995 Tells the shocking story behind the cover up of the May 4 1970 slayings of four students at Kent State University The Kent State Massacre R. W. Whitney, 1975 Witness in Our Time, Second Edition Ken Light, 2010-10-05 Witness in Our Time traces the recent history of social documentary photography in the words of twenty nine of the genre's best photographers editors and curators showing how the profession remains vital innovative and committed to social change The second edition includes a new section of interviews on documentary photography in the field and an exploration of the role of photojournalism in 21st century media Witness in Our Time provides an insider's view of a profession that continues to confront questions of art and truth while extending the definitions of both Lies of Our Times, 1990 The Fourth of May William A. Gordon, 1990 May 4 1990 marks the 20th anniversary of the day Ohio National Guardsmen fired on antiwar demonstrators at Kent State University killing four of them and wounding eight others Authors Sorvig and Gordon have produced two very different books relating to that event Sorvig's is a highly personal account of his reactions to the killings and his participation in an architectural contest to design a memorial to the casualties His book does not purport to be an examination of the incident itself and thus is not likely to be useful to readers attempting to understand what happened and why Because of its focus idiosyncratic style and impressionistic approach the book's limited audience is more likely to be readers interested in the creative process as it relates to landscape architectural design Gordon's book is a clearly written well documented account of the killings the subsequent investigations and the criminal and civil trials that followed While Gordon does not uncover sufficient evidence to justify a new explanation of the event he is able to cast doubts on the theories Peter Davies presented in The Truth About Kent State A Challenge to the American Conscience LJ 9 15 73 Gordon's work serves as a good starting point for general readers and scholars seeking to learn more about this tragic affair

Thomas H Ferrell Univ of Southwestern Louisiana Lafayette Library Journal The History and Evolution of Healthcare in America Thomas W. Loker, 2012-04-16 From the beginning of mankind health and health issues have played a major role in life but the issues and care have evolved enormously from the time when the first settlers set foot in America to the present In The History and Evolution of Healthcare in America author Thomas W Loker provides a historical perspective on the state of healthcare and offers fresh views on changes to Obamacare Insightful and thorough The History and Evolution of Healthcare in America offers a look at what healthcare was like at the birth of the nation how the practice of providing healthcare has changed for both caregivers and receivers why the process has become so corrupt and expensive what needs to happen to provide both choice and effective and efficient care for all where we need to most focus efforts to get the biggest change what is needed to get control over this out of control situation Loker narrates a journey through the history of American healthcare where we've been how we arrived where we are today and determine where we might need to go tomorrow The history illustrates how parts of the problem have been solved in the past and helps us understand what might be necessary to solve our remaining problems in the future A History of Our Time William Henry Chafe, William H. Chafe, Harvard Sitkoff, 1987 The second edition of this widely used anthology includes contemporary articles on the Cold War and the politics of the 1950s and 1960s as well as new discussions of the counterculture conservatism under the Reagan administration and the emergence of a new breed of poverty Grief, Identity, and the Arts Bram Lambrecht, Miriam Wendling, 2022-11-28 Death and grief have often elicited the response of creativity from elegies and requiems to memorial architecture Such artistic expressions of grief form the focus of Grief Identity and the Arts which brings together scholars from the disciplines of musicology literature sociology film studies social work and museum studies While presenting one or more case studies from a range of artistic disciplines historical periods or geographical areas each chapter addresses the interdependence of grief and identity in the arts The volume as a whole shows how artistic expressions of grief are both influenced by and contribute to constructions of religious national familial social and artistic identities Contributors to this volume Tammy Clewell Lizet Duyvendak David Gist Maryam Haiawi Owen Hansen Maggie Jackson Christoph Jedan Bram Lambrecht Carlo Leo Wolfgang Marx Tjil Nuyts Despoina Papastathi Julia P aczkiewicz Bavjola Shatro Caroline Supply Nicolette van den Bogerd Eric Venbrux Janneke Weijermars Miriam Wendling and Mariske Westendorp A History of Our Time William H. Chafe, Harvard Sitkoff, 1999 This popular and comprehensive anthology presents cogent provocative articles from differing political perspectives on major issues in post War America In addition to articles by leading historians the editors have assembled first person accounts of various issues by those who have contributed to the shaping of America's rich history including Joseph McCarthy Martin Luther King Jr and Bill Clinton This fifth edition has been considerably revised to incorporate up to date articles on the most significant issues facing contemporary America including essays on affirmative action Generation X and the crises of post Cold War foreign policy With lively and enlightening introductions to each section and headnotes providing a context for the articles A History of Our Time helps students make sense of the past fifty years in America s sometimes tumultuous but always fascinating history The Annals of Our Time Joseph Irving,1889
