Elizabeth Hanford Dole Molly M. Wertheimer, Nichola D. Gutgold, 2004-12-30 As a politician what you say and how you say it is almost as important as what you do Political careers are made based not only on substantive achievements but also on style presentation speeches and debates Dole's is no exception After a career in government service spanning six presidents from Lyndon B Johnson to George H W Bush she became widely recognized as a leading Republican politician in her own right after her 1996 speech at the GOP convention In 1999 she spent six months campaigning for president before dropping out of the race due to a lack of adequate funds and in 2002 she was elected U S Senator from North Carolina In this biography of Dole the authors show how she has been able to advance the causes she cares about as well as her political career through her consummate skills as a public speaker Dole's career included service in two cabinets as Secretary of Transportation Reagan and Secretary of Labor Bush and she also served as president of the American Red Cross The authors quote liberally from her speeches and interviews to illustrate the events of her political career and to place her choices personal career and political in the context of the times and places in which she grew up and came of age Her trajectory from Southern belle debutante to Harvard Law School student and from political wife to presidential candidate and U S senator is fascinating and the deftness with which she has been able to deflect the criticisms thrown her way is instructive for women of both political parties and for politicians of both genders Presidential Road Show Diane J. Heith, 2015-12-03 In The Presidential Road Show Public Leadership in an Era of Party Polarization and Media Fragmentation Diane J Heith evaluates presidential leadership by critically examining a fundamental tenet of the presidency the national nature of the office The fact that the entire nation votes for the office seemingly imbues the presidency with leadership opportunities that rest on appeals to the mass public Yet presidents earn the office not by appealing to the nation but rather by assembling a coalition of supporters predominantly partisans Moreover once in office recent presidents have had trouble controlling their message in the fragmented media environment The combined constraints of the electoral coalition and media environment influence the nature of public leadership presidents can exercise Using a data set containing not only speech content but also the classification of the audience Diane J Heith finds that rhetorical leadership is constituency driven and targets audiences differently Comparing tone content and tactics of national and local speeches reveals that presidents are abandoning national strategies in favor of local leadership efforts that may be tailored to the variety of political contexts a president must confront

Crossfield,2025-03-17 Imagine growing up in a small Southern town surrounded by sugarcane fields snakes alligator infested canals and palm trees Imagine growing up in a city where most people struggle financially where the nearest grocery store is five miles away where there is no hospital where there is only one traffic light and where most people know one another Can you imagine growing up in a family that has many secrets that could either destroy family ties or create bonds that could last a lifetime Welcome to Latangela Coleman Crossfield s family secrets incest murder and lies It was once easy for Latangela to conclude that she was the culprit of her demise After all her mother often told her that she would not amount to a hill of beans that she was nothing and that she would never be anything She sometimes believes these perceptions yet struggles to conceive them as reality Latangela toils with succumbing to the harshness of her circumstances Perhaps it could be that she was once a great pretender pretending as if being raped molested and physically and verbally abused by a neighbor her uncle her babysitter and her mother had in no way influenced the choices that she made Latangela sometimes jolts and cringes as she recalls experiencing uninvited fondling kisses rape electric cord beatings abortion the murder of her stepfather homelessness and so much more Indeed the recollection of these former days brings tears to her eyes yet joy to her heart as she discovers that she is not to blame for these atrocities Unforgiveness is her psychological prison cell It is in this cell that Latangela allows herself to succumb to the pain and agony of her past Latangela s life changes when she has a supernatural encounter with Jesus Christ She realizes that forgiveness is the key to victory She learns to forgive her predators and herself for the poor choices that led to homelessness and unhealthy relationships In doing so the emotional prison cell that once held her captive ceases to exist Through prayer and supplication God gives her the wisdom knowledge and grace to separate agape love for her mother and her abusers from their indiscretions Latangela s life experiences do not prevent her from becoming an educator an author a minister a media personality an actress and a serial entrepreneur She plans to one day travel the globe to share how she was crushed but not defeated 0
