Asean-eu Partnership: The Untold Story Tommy Koh, Lay Hwee Yeo, 2020-09-25 The European Union is the most successful regional organisation in the world ASEAN is the most successful regional organisation in Asia The story of the important and multi faceted relationship between these two organisations has seldom been told This is the first book about the relationship written from the ASEAN perspective It contains essays from all the ten ASEAN countries The book describes the many areas in which ASEAN and the EU have convergent interests and the few areas in which they have divergent views The book also looks to the future and suggests some possible areas of cooperation The Foreword is written by Singapore's Foreign Minister Dr Vivian Balakrishnan

Are region-to-region relations between the EU and ASEAN possible? Martin Hiebsch, 2014-04-03 Essay from the year 2013 in the subject Politics Region Other States grade 13 King's College London language English abstract The relationship between the European Union EU and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN is perceived as having a unique importance Camroux 2009 4 The first formal meeting between ASEAN and the European Economic Community EEC took place in June 1972 Lim 2012 47 and was the first of its kind between the precursor to the EU and another regional entity Nowadays the relationship is widely considered as a model for interregional relations Camroux 2009 4 However there are many obstacles impeding a further institutionalisation of the region to region relations Negotiations about the enhancement of the cooperation often have stalled during the past decades and the progress of interregional convergence proceeds slowly The following essay will answer the question whether region to region relations between the EU and ASEAN are possible and analyse their degree of the institutionalisation In order to draw a picture of the development towards interregional cooperation the essay will summarise the historical emergence of the relationship and identify the obstacles within the current state of interactions The author will present the argument that region to region relations are possible and already exist However he will point out that because of ASEAN's lacking capacities the interregional relations continue to be limited to certain fields and agreements in the economical and political domain remain mostly bi and multilateral The essay will explain the structures of the already existing interregional cooperation and stress how an enhanced relationship would be beneficial for both organisations Finally it will summarise its findings and provide an outlook for the years to come

EU-ASEAN Relations in the 21st Century D. Novotny, C. Dent, 1999-08-12 The European Union and East Asia analyses the economic relationship that has evolved between the European Union and East Asia and the future prospects especially in the wake of the recent financial crisis that has shaken the latter region

International Relations in Southeast Asia Donald E. Weatherbee, 2009 This balanced comprehensive guide to Southeast Asian politics offers a sensible but nondogmatic realist approach to the region's international relations In this revised second edition Donald E Weatherbee lucidly explains the dynamics of the Southeast Asian subsystem as a struggle for autonomy in pursuit of national interests He explores three important questions the answers to which will shape the future Southeast Asia Will democratic regimes transform international relations in Southeast Asia Will national leaders succeed in reinventing ASEAN as a more effective collaborative mechanism Finally how will the evolving Chinese position balancing and perhaps displacing the United States as Asia's great power affect Southeast Asia's struggle for autonomy

Malaysia and the European Union Christoph Marcinkowski, Constance Chevallier-Govers, Ruhana Harun, 2011 EU Malaysian relations are all too often seen through the lens of economics and trade Although this is legitimate an extension of cooperation could also open up new avenues of collaboration and understanding between Europe and Asia This book brings together manifold perspectives on economics finance trade education history culture gender human rights and multiculturalism issues which are currently gaining in importance between Malaysia and the European Union Series Freiburger Sozialanthropologische Studien Freiburg Studies in Social Anthropology Etudes d'Anthropologie Sociale de l'Université de Fribourg Vol 32

Europe-Asia Interregional Relations Bart Gaens, 2016-04-29 This book examines the interregional relations of the European Union with East Asia through the prism of the Asia Europe Meeting ASEM ASEM currently brings together 16 Asian countries the 27 member states of the European Union as well as the ASEAN Secretariat and the European Commission ASEM's ten year anniversary and the Sixth Summit in Helsinki prompted reflection on the forum's accomplishments in three dimensions of interaction: its working methods, democratic involvement, public awareness, and global strategic potential. The volume provides an in-depth evaluation of ASEM's first decade from a European perspective, including the achievements of the ASEM6 Summit and its implications for the future of the process. It also analyzes the role of interregional interaction as a tool for EU foreign policy.

Western Europe and Southeast Asia Giuseppe Schiavone, 2016-01-06 The European Community and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations functions and powers have established a formal relationship which could provide a valuable model for interregional cooperation between industrialized and developing countries, now that repeated efforts to launch global North-South negotiations have come to a dead end. The proceedings of a conference convened to discuss opportunities for and obstacles to a closer relationship between the two groups are presented here.

Drivers of Integration and Regionalism in Europe and Asia Louis Brennan, Philomena Murray, 2015-05-22 This book examines the drivers of regionalism and integration in both Europe and Asia and seeks to forge comparative perspectives between the two regions. Comprising contributions from scholars, analysts, and policymakers, this volume explores and debates how and why regional bodies such as the European Union (EU) and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) are formed and sustained. Furthermore, it examines the drivers of and impediments to regionalism and integration. The debates regarding what and who constitute drivers are presented in a fresh, thematic, and comprehensive manner. Leadership and core states are also critically examined, whilst material, ideational, and normative factors are all assessed comparatively. Significantly, in light of the global financial crisis, the book considers the role of crisis as a driver of regionalism and integration. This book will be of interest to students, scholars, and policymakers interested in Asian and European politics and comparative politics.

Europe in Emerging Asia Fredrik Erixon, Krishnan Srinivasan, 2015-05-20 In light of the Eurozone crisis and the growth of Asian economies, new challenges have emerged for the relations between nations in these regions. As the Asian consumer class grows and its culture globalizes, what does this mean for the export of Eurocentric values and norms? And what does the future hold for the economic, political, and cultural policies between these two powerful regions? This book explores the relationship between European and emerging Asian economies as globalization changes the international economic and political landscape. Reflecting on past interactions and possibilities for the future, the book brings together Asian and European perspectives from former politicians, diplomats, and academic experts to examine questions around trade and security, rights and climate change, identity clashes, and the colonial legacy. The book is a timely consideration of highly topical questions that will shape international politics in the twenty-first century.
