The Cumulative Book Index , 1996 A world list of books in the English language

State Territory and International Law Josephat Ezenwajiaku, 2020-05-31 This book proposes a re interpretation of Article 2 4 of the Charter of the United Nations to read or at least include respect for the inviolability of State territory While States purport to obey the prohibition of the Use of Force they frequently engage in activities that could undermine international peace and security In this book the author argues that State practice opinio juris as well as contentious and advisory opinions of the International Court of Justice have promoted the first limb of Article 2 4 Although wars between States have decreased the maintenance of international peace and security remains a mirage as shown by the increase in intra and inter State conflicts across the world The author seeks to initiate a rethinking of the provision of Article 2 4 which the International Court of Justice has described as the cornerstone of the United Nations The author argues that the time is ripe for States to embrace an evolutive interpretation of Article 2 4 to mean respect as opposed to the traditional view of the threat or the use of force He also evaluates the discourse regarding territorial jurisdiction in cyberspace and argues that the efforts made by the international community to apply Article 2 4 to cyberspace suggest that the article is a flexible and live instrument that should be adjusted to address the circumstances that endanger international peace and security This book will engineer a serious debate regarding the scope of Article 2 4 which before now has always been limited to the threat or use of force As a result it will be of interest to academics and students of public international law as well as diplomats and policymakers

Cumulated Index to the Books, 1999

Hungary's

Crisis of Democracy Peter Wilkin, 2016-08-26 This book examines the crisis of democracy that has arisen in Hungary since the election of the Fidesz government in 2010 After moving swiftly to transform the Hungarian constitution Fidesz created a new political system which has led its critics to argue that the era of democracy in Hungary is over US Senator John McCain has gone so far as to describe Hungary as an illiberal democracy on a path toward fascism The author argues that Fidesz has sought to challenge the capitalist and democratic transformation that shaped Hungary for 20 years after the fall of communism by increasing the power of the state over crucial aspects of the economy society and the political system In so doing Fidesz actions resemble those undertaken by many authoritarian states that have emerged since the end of the Second World War all aiming to build up a national capitalism and protect their economies whilst undertaking nation building To make sense of this the author draws upon two traditions of thought world systems analysis which situates Hungary in the context of its incorporation in the modern capitalist world system after the fall of communism and anarchist social thought which provides a unique way of seeing the actions of states and political elites In so doing the book argues that the events unfolding in Hungary cannot be explained on the basis of Hungarian exceptionalism but must be situated in the broader political and economic context that has shaped the development of Hungary since 1990 The form of capitalism introduced in Hungary and across the region of East and Central Europe has systematically undermined the strong state and social security that had existed under communism and when added to the failure of the left and liberals in the region it has paved the way for far right and neo fascist political movements to emerge claiming the mantle of defenders of society from the market This represents a fundamental threat to the enlightenment traditions that have shaped dominant modern political ideologies and raises profound problems for both the EU and NATO

Mirrors of the Economy Yoshiko M.

Herrera,2017-08-28 As international institutions multiply and more governments sign on to standardized ways of organizing economies and societies resistance to globalization persists In Mirrors of the Economy Yoshiko M Herrera explores the variance in implementation of international institutions through an examination of the international System of National Accounts SNA and in particular the success of post Soviet Russia and other formerly communist countries in implementing the SNA The SNA is the basis for all national economic indicators including Gross Domestic Product and is therefore a critical institution for economic policy and development Herrera tests existing theories of implementation of international institutions and proposes a novel theoretical concept conditional norms to suggest that the conditions attached to norms may result in institutional change On the basis of content analysis of statistical publications and more than seventy five interviews throughout Russia particularly in Moscow and in Washington she forms a clear picture of the implementation of the SNA in Russia in the early 1990s In Soviet times a stable conditional norm delineated the appropriateness of statistical institutions based on the structure of the economy The transformation of the economic system triggered a shift in support among Russian and Eastern European statisticians in favor of the SNA Herrera s argument increases our understanding of the role of norms structural conditions and professional communities in institutional implementation

The Criminalisation of Communism in the European Political Space after the Cold War Laure Neumayer,2018-07-06 Memory has taken centre stage in European level policies after the Cold War as the Western historical narrative based on the uniqueness of the Holocaust was being challenged by calls for an equal condemnation of Communism and Nazism This book retraces the anti communist mobilisations carried out by Central European representatives in the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe and in the European Parliament since the early 1990s Based on archive consultation interviews and ethnographic observation it analyses the memory entrepreneurs requests for collective remembrance and legal accountability of Communist crimes in European institutions Pan European political parties and transnational advocacy networks The book argues that these newcomers managed to strengthen their positions and impose a totalitarian interpretation of Communism in the European assemblies which directly shaped the EU s remembrance policy However the rules of the European political game and recurring ideological conflicts with left wing opponents reduced the legal and judicial implications of this anti communist grammar at the European level This text will be of key interest to scholars and graduate students in memory studies post Communist politics and European studies and more broadly in history political science and sociology CliffsNotes AP

European History Cram Plan Malcolm Mafi, 2017-11-14 This new edition of CliffsNotes AP European History Cram Plan calendarizes a study plan for AP European History test takers depending on how much time they have left before they take the May exam European Citizenship--in the Process of Construction Ditta Dolejšiová, Miguel Angel García López, Youth Partnership (Organization), Council of Europe, European Commission, 2009-01-01 European citizenship is still a contested concept bringing together two notions and therefore two different debates one around Europe and European identity And The other related to citizenship and non citizenship Europe In an ongoing process of construction should be shaped and defined by its citizens Young people in particular have a special interest in and concern about what kind of Europe they want to live in it is therefore important to reflect on how European citizenship and debates around European identity could help and empower young people to actively contribute to building Europe The essays collected here address this issue They present the debates and findings of the research seminar entitled Young People and Active European Citizenship organised by the Youth Partnership between the Council of Europe And The European Commission European citizenship remains one of the main priorities of this partnership
