European Research University An Historical Parenthesis:

The European Research University Guy Neave, 2018-01-08 In a modern Europe even with 900 years of history and learning behind it the European Research University faces major challenges on multiple fronts This book maps out both the present and the long term issues that the European Research University must now tackle The European Research University Guy Neave, Kjell Blücker, Thorsten Nybom, 2006-02-07 This book brings together leading scholars from both Europe and the United States to map out both present and long term issues that the Research University must now tackle as Europe's place in the rapidly emerging global society is formed A History of the University in Europe: Volume 4, Universities since 1945 Walter Rüegg, 2010-12-16 This is the final volume in a four part series covering the development of the university in Europe east and west from its origins to the present day focusing on a number of major themes viewed from a European perspective The originality of the series lies in its comparative interdisciplinary collaborative and transnational nature It deals also with the content of what was taught at the universities but its main purpose is an appreciation of the role and structures of the universities as seen against a backdrop of changing conditions ideas and values This volume deals with the reconstruction and epoch making expansion of higher education after 1945 which led to the triumph of modern science It traces the development of the relationship between universities and national states teachers and students their ambitions and political activities Special attention is paid to fundamental changes in the content of teaching at the universities

European Integration and the Governance of Higher Education and Research Alberto Amaral, Guy Neave, Christine Musselin, Peter Maassen, 2009-10-03 The high level Douro seminars are now a well established tradition in the annual activities promoted by Hedda a European consortium of nine centres and institutes devoted to research on higher education and CIPES its Portuguese associated centre At the seminars each member of a small group of invited researchers presents and discusses an original research based paper that is revised afterwards taking into account the comments of the participating colleagues The revised papers form the basis for the annual thematic book published by Springer in the book series called Higher Education Dynamics HEDY Paying tribute to the regularity of the seminars it was decided that the volumes originating from the initiative would be collected in a series in the series called the Douro Series Previous seminars were dedicated to in depth analyses of different aspects of higher education systems and institutions including institutional governance the emergence of managerialism markets as instruments of public policy cost sharing and accessibility of students to higher education and developments in quality assurance The present volume aims at analysing the change process which the European university is undergoing as a consequence of European integration efforts In the case of higher education these have materialised amongst other things in the implementation of the Bologna process while the Lisbon summit also has important consequences for the university In March 2000 the Lisbon European Council set the goal for the EU to become the most competitive and dynamic knowledge based society in the world by 2010 Academic Identities—Academic Challenges? American and European Experience of the Transformation of Higher Education and Research Tor Halvorsen, Atle Nyhagen, 2011-10-18 The university in Europe as a central institution of society is presently met with many new expectations challenging established practices and self understandings of academics across Europe In the European Union the higher education and research system has become a foremost tool of change Current reforms across national higher education systems are seen as a potential for creating a European Higher Education Area as well as an opportunity to introduce EU policies and ideas addressing how reforms can contribute to promote this as an EU dimension An argument that only reforms of the higher education institution in particular the research university as a European institution can make Europe regain its competitive force and economic growth potential has gained currency in the last decade with reference to the US The university system of the US particularly its highly regarded elite universities is also held forth as a model for the developments in the EU and thus for the reforms of the different countries of EU In this book however it is demonstrated that much of the political rhetoric about the construction of the future knowledge economy of Europe and the promotion of a European Higher Education Area may contradict basic values that give Europe its identity as a cultural region Promoting the US university as an ideal model does not do justice to the kind of problems the US is facing in their own reform efforts nor does it reflect properly the social costs of copying such an elite system The book raises a number of issues relating to elitism and democracy internationalisation and regionalisation and new forms of governance in higher education and research which current EU policies seem to neglect

The Evaluative State, Institutional Autonomy and Re-engineering Higher Education in Western Europe G. Neave, 2012-05-09 This pioneering book examines how policies to raise efficiency and performance in Europe's universities have profoundly altered ties between government society and higher education outlining how Evaluation Agencies have urged Europe's universities to meet the challenge of modernization

American Higher Education in a Global Context Cristina González, 2022-02-14 American Higher Education in a Global Context Historical Perspectives describes the current state of universities on each continent providing a comprehensive analysis of the numerous factors that have affected higher education systems around the world This book studies higher education from its emergence in antiquity to the establishment of the American research university model and its adoption around the globe through the current Covid 19 pandemic and concomitant economic and political crisis The author pays special attention to the shortcomings of the neoliberal trend of the last four decades which increased social stratification at institutions of higher learning Calling for an expansion of access to tertiary education and in particular to research universities this book examines the competition between China and the United States in the field of higher education stressing the importance of academic freedom without which there can be no true academic excellence

The Changing Face of Academic Life J. Enders, E. de Weert, Egbert de Weert, 2009-03-26 Bringing together an international line up of contributors this collection provides a transnational examination of recent developments within the academic profession in the light of changes to higher education systems globalization and marketization The Idea of the PhD Frances Jennifer Kelly,2016-12-19 The Idea of the PhD The doctorate in the twenty first century imagination analyses the PhD as it is articulated in diverse areas of contemporary discourse at a time in which the degree is undergoing growth change and scrutiny worldwide It considers not just institutional ideas of the PhD but those of the broader cultural and social domain as well as asking whether and to what extent the idea of the Doctor of Philosophy the highest achievable university award is being reimaged in the twenty first century In a world where the PhD is undergoing significant radical change and where inside universities doctoral enrolments are continually climbing as the demand for more graduates with high level research skills increases this book asks the following questions How do we understand how the PhD is currently imagined and conceptualised in the wider domain Where will we find ideas about the PhD from its purpose to the nature of research work undertaken and the kinds of pedagogies engaged to the researchers who undertake it and are shaped by it International in scope this is a text that explores the culturally inflected representation of the doctorate and its graduates in the imagination literature and media The Idea of the PhD contributes to the research literature in the field of doctoral education and higher education As such this will be a fascinating text for researchers postgraduates and academics interested in the idea of the university Star Sociologists Philipp Korom,2023-04-21 This book aims to overcome sociology s preoccupation with individual authors by exploring a larger social phenomenon that occurs in all academic disciplines but has been paid little attention the prestige elite Members of this elite attain the highest levels of peer recognition their books sometimes circulate by the hundreds of thousands and every student has read about them Based on large citation studies Star Sociologists provides a roster of eminent sociologists documents the changing elite s composition over time contrasts the elite s career pathways with those of the Nobel Laureates in economics gives insights into how scholars rise to or fall from eminence and empirically probes the gatekeeping power of one of its key proponents The book explores eminence by contextualising conditions that are outside of the elite and argues that in any discipline that is intellectually as disintegrated as sociology eminence is to be understood as a nested phenomenon scholars make it into the elite if their ideas are adopted in very different intellectual fields that share little common ground Christian Higher Education Joel Carpenter,Perry L. Glanzer,Nicholas S. Lantinga,2014-03-07 This book offers a fresh report and interpretation of what is happening at the intersection of two great contemporary movements the rapid growth of higher education worldwide and the rise of world Christianity It features on site evaluative studies by scholars from Africa Asia North America and South America Christian Higher Education A Global Reconnaissance visits some of the hotspots of Christian university development such as South Korea Kenya and Nigeria and compares what is happening there to places in Canada the United States and Europe where Christian higher education has a longer history Very little research until now has examined the scope and direction of Christian higher education throughout the world so this volume fills a real gap Managing Reform in Universities B. Stensaker,J. Välimaa,C. Sarrico,2012-09-27 This collection now in paperback explores how universities are coping with the range of reforms and changes taking place across higher education today Analyzing areas such as leadership quality management strategic thinking collegiality and academic work and from the perspective of different agents within higher education including students academics and management this book examines the various differences between reform attempts and the actual changes happening in universities Poor Relation Stuart Macintyre, 2010-07-01 What are the social sciences What do they do How are they practised in Australia The Poor Relation examines the place of the social sciences from economics and psychology to history law and philosophy in the teaching and research conducted by Australian universities Across sixty years The Poor Relation charts the changing circumstances of the social sciences and measures their contribution to public policy In doing so it also relates the arrangements made to support them and explains why they are so persistently treated as the poor relation of science and technology Widening

Participation in Higher Education T. Hinton-Smith, 2012-10-30 This collection offers an authoritative up to date commentary on the challenges facing higher education today across both the UK and internationally The book charts the impact of global economic trends and recent policy developments for students academics providers and changing course provision The Geography of Creativity Gunnar Törnqvist, 2011-01-01 Gunnar Törnqvist one of the world's most distinguished economic geographers can fairly claim to have discovered the notion of the geography of creativity over thirty years ago This remarkable book summarises his immensely original and important research on the subject which now dominates the geographical literature It is the book that the world has been waiting for him to publish Sir Peter Hall University College London UK This book offers a comprehensive perspective on the salience of context in fostering or hindering creativity After several decades of research and teaching Gunnar Törnqvist has become a foremost authority on the subject Here his elegant conceptual overview is complemented by a methodologically innovative scrutiny of career journeys including those of Nobel Prize laureates The Geography of Creativity will be warmly welcomed by not only cultural geographers but also by scholars in various fields of social science and humanities Anne Buttner University College Dublin Ireland What is creativity and who exactly is creative In this insightful and highly readable book Gunnar Törnqvist attempts to answer these questions by arguing that geographical milieux are hotbeds for creativity and renewal places where pioneers in art technology and science have gathered and developed their special abilities In light of ongoing social and economic transformations special attention is paid to the institutional settings in firms and universities The goal is to identify those features which facilitate and those which impede the creative process Individual lives are illustrated through the autobiographies of hundreds of Nobel Laureates Their life paths reveal the importance of geographic mobility and contact patterns for the development of creativity and international prestige From these biographies we can also see how local milieux and schools have influenced many scientists The Geography of Creativity will be of great benefit to academics and students in regional science economic geography and economics International Organizations and Higher Education

Policy Roberta Malee Bassett, Alma Maldonado-Maldonado, 2010-04-15 Higher Education operates in an increasingly global context and yet the examination of what drives and moves the field has remained largely focused on domestic campus leaders national governments and institutional actors International Organizations and Higher Education Policy expands the analysis to include the global drivers behind higher education policy including a full array of influential organizations such as the World Bank UNESCO OECD WTO bilateral aid agencies and major private foundations The significance of these organizations is especially pronounced in the developing world where the expansion of higher education is happening in conjunction with the broadening influence of globalization International Organizations and Higher Education Policy critically analyses the impact that these influential organizations have at different levels of policy development and implementation around the world It examines their role in higher education institutions examines the strength of these relationships and exposes both the positive and negative implications This edited volume is composed of scholars and members of these organizations from around the world They address How international organizations represent the interests of the developed world and subsequently have an impact on the developing world How these organizations drive and shape the global agenda for higher education How higher education as an international industry is subject to a myriad of influences from the international to the regional level What ethical issues emerge when international organizations intervene in national policy making processes

The Modernisation of European Universities Kwiek Marek, Kurkiewicz Andrzej, 2012-09-26 The recent decade brought about new ways of thinking about universities European level educational policies became increasingly influential as the agenda of university reforms was viewed as part of greater Lisbon strategy reforms National governments adopted the economic concept of the university consistently developed in subsequent official documents of the European Commission The EU member states currently need to balance their educational policies between the requirements of policies promoted by the EU and the requirements of their national systems Additionally the national educational policies are under high pressure due to globalisation European universities and European academics operate in the midst of these large scale changes Their interpretations of and their responses to what is termed the modernisation agenda of European universities are at the core of this volume

History of Universities Mordechai Feingold, 2013-08-29 Volume XXVII 1 of History of Universities contains the customary mix of learned articles and book reviews which makes this publication such an indispensable tool for the historian of higher education The volume is as always a lively combination of original research and invaluable reference material

Social Science at the Crossroads , 2019-05-20 The 38th World Congress of IIS addressed some of the most fundamental issues of sociological inquiry in light of global processes and the development of different fields of knowledge What does it mean to be human What is the nature of social as opposed to natural processes How do efforts to map the social and political world interact with that world and with traditional sociological practices What can we say about relationships between scientific political and religious beliefs This volume sets the stage for a sustained look at what social science can say about the twenty first century and to address the theme of the congress in 2008 Sociology Looks at the 21st Century From Local Universalism to Global Contextualism Contributors are Gustaf Arrhenius Rajeev Bhargava Craig Calhoun Shmuel N Eisenstadt Yehuda Elkana Raghavendra Gadagkar Peter Hedström Hans Joas Hannes Klapper Ivan Krastev Steven Lukes Vinh Kim Nguyen Helga Nowotny Shalini Randeria Alan Ryan Jyotirmaya Sharma Christina Torén Michel Wieviorka Björn Wittrock Petri Ylikoski Higher Education in Portugal 1974-2009 Guy Neave, Alberto Amaral, 2011-12-20 A comprehensive wide ranging and detailed account of the unfolding of higher education and higher education policy in Portugal from 1974 to 2009 by leading policy makers and scholars with the explicit purpose of showing how different disciplinary canons and perspectives contribute to the study of higher education and higher education policy including Law and Science Policy perspectives Whilst focusing on one referential system this book deals with current policy issues emerging in the wake of the post Bologna period It also examines their long term historical origins in addition to the measures taken to address them The substantive chapters are preceded by a detailed Introductory overview that places the issues treated in this volume in a solidly European perspective and sets out explicitly the differences in the dominant political cultural and social values that set Portuguese as other Continental European systems of higher education apart from their Anglo Saxon counterparts
