Foster, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2017-01-01 The fascinating story of the transformation of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 The formation of the American Watercolor Society in 1866 by a small dedicated group of painters transformed the perception of what had long been considered a marginal medium Artists of all ages styles and backgrounds took up watercolor in the 1870s inspiring younger generations of impressionists and modernists By the 1920s many would claim it as the American medium This engaging and comprehensive book tells the definitive story of the metamorphosis of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 identifying the artist constituencies and social forces that drove the new popularity of the medium The major artists of the movement Winslow Homer John Singer Sargent William Trost Richards Thomas Moran Thomas Eakins Charles Prendergast Childe Hassam Edward Hopper Charles Demuth and many others are represented with lavish color illustrations The result is a fresh and beautiful look at watercolor s central place in American art and culture Frank Paul Sauerwein Michael R. Grauer, Elaine Maher Harrison, 2002-06-01 One of the most capable of the late nineteenth century western artists Frank Paul Sauerwein 1871 1910 is also one of the most quietly admired Upon Sauerwein s untimely death friends were many family few only an ageing father And like even the best of friends they had their respective lives to lead There were no sons or daughters to continue that begun no wife to continue the mission embarked upon no war chest to promote his works Records lost diaries gone paintings placed to thwart the attic s draft writings long since misplaced And so for nearly a hundred years the light has been dimly lit perhaps as Sauerwein would have wanted it yet history has a way of locating those pilgrims of the past who in retrospect offered a vibrant message and timeless images Frank Paul Sauerwein the Biography brings to light an impressive quantity of information on the artist as well as an in depth analysis of his works from his early middle and late periods It features in color many of his works that have never been published and focuses on his seminal and epic paintings many of which have rarely been seen Several additional archival and original photographs of both Sauerwein and his works have likewise been located and reproduced Additionally the reader will find critical information on the artist and related data including a chronology a listing of known paintings and a discussion of certain of the techniques utilized by this master artist

Voyages and Beaches Alex Calder, Jonathan Lamb, Bridget Orr, 1999-04-01 What actually happened as Europeans and peoples of the Pacific discovered each other How have their respective senses of the past influenced their understanding of the present And what are the consequences of their meeting In this collection of essays scholars from European Polynesian and Settler backgrounds provide answers to these questions Writing from and between a variety of disciplines history anthropology Maori Studies literary criticism law cultural studies art history Pacific Studies they show how the Pacific reveals a more various and contradictory history than that supposed by such homogenizing metropolitan myths as the introduction of civilization to savage peoples the general ruin of indigenous cultures by an imperial juggernaut or the mimicry of European models by an abject population They examine contact from both sides of beaches throughout Polynesia exposing the many inconsistencies from which Pacific history is made Some of the essays consider the extent to which traditional European ideas about organizing and legitimizing claims to territory and power were invoked and problematized in the South Pacific some consider the violence endemic in such scenes others examine the aesthetic discourses with which early travelers and settlers attempted to make sense of the Pacific in the aftermath of discovery But rather than reiterate the myths and anti myths of conquest these essays show how local differences have made and do make a difference They emphasize the Pacific s capacity to absorb and transform the impact of Europe an impact that has been as notable for its ambivalence and confusion as for its single minded pursuit of hegemony The editors develop these themes in a wide ranging introduction that relates Pacific concerns to a more global set of theoretical and methodological problems including current work in post colonial and subaltern studies Translating Chinese Art and Modern Literature Yifeng Sun,Chris

Song,2019-02-25 Translating Chinese Art and Modern Literature examines issues in cross cultural dialogue in connection with translation and modern Chinese art and literature from interdisciplinary perspectives This comprises the text image dialogue in the context of Chinese modernity and cross cultural interaction between modern literature in Chinese and other literatures This edited collection approaches these issues with discrete foci and approaches and the ten chapters in this volume are to be divided into two distinct parts The first part highlights the mutual effects between literary texts and visual images in the media of book painting and film and the second part includes contributions by scholars of literary translation
