Eva Frankfurter 1930-1959 Monica Bohm-Duchen, 2001-06-28 A major art book on a forgotten woman artist who committed suicide in 1959 Her humanity shines through the portraits of women and children immigrants in the East End fellow workers in the now defunct Lyons Corner House dockers Jews brides etc Using Image and Narrative in Therapy for Trauma, Addiction and Recovery James West, 2021-04-21 With contributions from well respected figures in the field this book explores the use of narrative and image in the therapeutic treatment of trauma and addiction The book considers topics such as early trauma and its impacts therapeutic methods based on images and narrative and recovery and post traumatic growth through community engagement Despite a close practical association between the two trauma and addiction are often addressed or treated separately By considering them together this book offers a rare perspective and is an invaluable tool for art and narrative therapists as well as professionals supporting those dealing with addiction or trauma Love of a God of Love Hugo Strandberg, 2011-09-15 Traditionally religious belief has in the philosophy of religion been understood along more or less epistemological lines Love of a God of Love develops another understanding of belief where the moral concept of love is central In this context what is distinctive about the concept of love is that it is both the what and the how of belief for the one who loves a God of love the concept of love characterizes both the content side and the act side of the belief In that respect this understanding of religious belief makes it possible to avoid certain formalist difficulties arising when the what and the how of belief are sharply distinguished The Frankfurt School, Jewish Lives, and Antisemitism Jack Jacobs, 2014-09-25 The history of the Frankfurt School cannot be fully told without examining the relationships of Critical Theorists to their Jewish family backgrounds Jewish matters had significant effects on key figures in the Frankfurt School including Max Horkheimer Theodor W Adorno Erich Fromm Leo Lowenthal and Herbert Marcuse At some points their Jewish family backgrounds clarify their life paths at others these backgrounds help to explain why the leaders of the School stressed the significance of antisemitism In the post Second World War era the differing relationships of Critical Theorists to their Jewish origins illuminate their distinctive stances toward Israel This book investigates how the Jewish backgrounds of major Critical Theorists and the ways in which they related to their origins impacted upon their work the history of the Frankfurt School and differences that emerged among them over time Jewish Artists Ben Uri Art Society, Ben Uri Collection, 1994 A catalogue of the collection was first published in 1987 but has been out of print for some time This new revised and expanded edition includes information on acquisitions since 1987 and updated biographies of artists covered in the first edition Art Therapy in Museums and Galleries Ali Coles, Helen Jury, 2020-02-21 This is the first book to explore and evaluate the potential of museum and gallery spaces and partnerships for art therapy Showcasing approaches by well known art therapists the edited collection contains descriptions of and reflections on art therapy in museums and galleries around the globe Case studies encompass a broad range of client groups including people with dementia refugees and clients recovering from substance abuse exploring the therapeutic skills required to work in these settings The collection also establishes the context for art therapy in museums and galleries through reviewing key literature and engaging with the latest research to consider wider perspectives on how these spaces inform therapeutic practice Offering a comprehensive look at ways in which these locations enable novel and creative therapeutic work this is an essential book for art therapists arts and health practitioners and museum professionals Human Dignity Werner Bonefeld, Kosmas Psychopedis, 2017-07-05 Against the background of growing uncertainty about the future development of capitalism and in the face of war terror and poverty this book asks What do we have to know to prevent misery What can we do to achieve conditions of human dignity And what must we hope for The volume argues that all social life is essentially practical and explores the central most important value of human dignity It discusses practical consequences in relation to the theory of revolution and contemporary anti globalization struggles Targeted towards advanced undergraduate courses and taught post graduate courses in the field of politics sociology political philosophy and new social movement studies it should also be welcomed in the study of critical theory Marxism labour studies and revolutionary thought Patriarchy and Accumulation on a World Scale Maria Mies, 2014-07-10 It is my thesis that this general production of life or subsistence production mainly performed through the non wage labour of women and other non wage labourers as slaves contract workers and peasants in the colonies constitutes the perennial basis upon which capitalist productive labour can be built up and exploited First published in 1986 Maria Mies's progressive book was hailed as a major paradigm shift for feminist theory and it remains a major contribution to development theory and practice today Tracing the social origins of the sexual division of labour it offers a history of the related processes of colonization and housewifization and extends this analysis to the contemporary new international division of labour Mies's theory of capitalist patriarchy has become even more relevant today This new edition includes a substantial new introduction in which she both applies her theory to the new globalized world and answers her critics

Cosmopolitanisms and the Jews Cathy Gelbin, Sander Gilman, 2019-01-25 Cosmopolitanisms and the Jews adds significantly to contemporary scholarship on cosmopolitanism by making the experience of Jews central to the discussion as it traces the evolution of Jewish cosmopolitanism over the last two centuries. The book sets out from an exploration of the nature and cultural political implications of the shifting perceptions of Jewish mobility and fluidity around 1800 when modern cosmopolitanist discourse arose. Through a series of case studies the authors analyze the historical and discursive junctures that mark the central paradigm shifts in the Jewish self image from the Wandering Jew to the rootless parasite, the cosmopolitan and the socialist internationalist. Chapters analyze the tensions and dualisms in the constructed relationship between cosmopolitanism and the Jews at particular historical junctures between 1800 and the present and probe into the relationship between earlier anti-Semitic discourses on Jewish cosmopolitanism and Stalinist rhetoric. Nietzsche's Nihilism in Walter Benjamin Mauro Ponzi, 2016-11-21 This book reconstructs the lines of nihilism that Walter Benjamin took from Friedrich Nietzsche that define both his theory of art and the avant garde and his approach to political action. It retraces the eccentric route of Benjamin's philosophical discourse in the representation of the modern as a place of permanent catastrophe where he attempts to overcome the Nietzschean nihilism through messianic hope. Using conventions from literary criticism this book explores the many sources of Benjamin's thought demonstrating that behind the materialism which Benjamin incorporates into his Theses on the Concept of History is hidden Nietzsche's nihilism. Mauro Ponzi analyses how Benjamin's Arcades Project uses figures such as Baudelaire, Marx, Aragon, Proust and Blanqui as allegories to explain many aspects of modernity. The author argues that Benjamin uses Baudelaire as a paradigm to emphasize the dark side of the modern era offering us a key to the interpretation of communicative and cultural trends of today. State Magazine, 1996 Eva Frankfurter - People, 1962 Look At This If You Love Great Art Chloë Ashby, 2021-04-06 Look At This If You Love Great Art is a must read for anyone with a passion for exceptional art. Featuring 100 of the best artworks ever produced inside is a collection of insightful summaries on just what it is that makes each one so vital. Art writer Chloë Ashby talks you through the pieces that resonate with her, revealing the fascinating stories behind them and offering her considered take on why each work should be regarded as a pinnacle of artistic endeavour. With entries curated to offer a unique juxtaposition of styles, mediums and schools of art, expect a contemporary take on classic artworks where titans of art history cross paths with under-appreciated examples from outside the traditional canon and where rebellious visionaries blaze trails that still influence today's cutting edge artists. Covering all the most important genres of art: Abstraction, Pop Art, Surrealism, Renaissance art, Impressionism and more, this engaging summary only deals with artworks that really matter and the reasons why you have to see them. Cultural Heritage and Prisoners of War Gilly Carr, Harold Mytum, 2012-04-27 This book focuses on the numerous examples of creativity produced by POWs and civilian internees during their captivity, including paintings, cartoons, craftwork, needlework, acting, musical compositions, magazine and newspaper articles wood carving and recycled Red Cross tins turned into plates mugs and makeshift stoves all which have previously received little attention The authors of this volume show the wide potential of such items to inform us about the daily life and struggle for survival behind barbed wire Previously dismissed as items which could only serve to illustrate POW memoirs and diaries this book argues for a central role of all items of creativity in helping us to understand the true experience of life in captivity The international authors draw upon a rich seam of material from their own case studies of POW and civilian internment camps across the world to offer a range of interpretations of this diverse and extraordinary material

Global Critical Theories Oliver Kozlarek, Gustavo Leyva Martínez, 2025-08-12 Today Critical Theory is no longer tied to a specific place in the world Rather genuine developments of Critical Theories can be observed in many academic contexts around the world The contributions collected in this book show that the various projects of Critical Theory have not always and not exclusively emerged from the reception of the so called Frankfurt School but that the successful global expansion of capitalist modernity has triggered developments of Critical Theories in many parts of the world as an appropriate academic and intellectual endeavor of critique Whether or not the tradition of the Frankfurt School is followed Critical Theories are always about an undogmatic reading of Marxist theory the critique of global capitalist modernity the question of how this critique should be normatively grounded and how different academic disciplines should complement each other in a common endeavor of critical social and cultural research The book provides an overview of debates and variants of critical theories in selected countries
