Evaluating The Arts In Education:

Evaluating and Assessing the Visual Arts in Education Douglas Boughton, Elliot W. Eisner, Johan Ligtoet, 1996-01-01

Evaluating the Arts in Education Robert E. Stake, 1975 Evaluating the Arts in Education, 1975 Evaluating the Arts in Education Robert E. Stake, 1975 Foundations for Curriculum Development and Evaluation in Art Education George W. Hardiman, Theodore Zernich, 1981 Partnerships for Learning Felicity Woolf, 1999 Assessment in Arts Education Philip Taylor, 2006 With the current emphases on standards and evidence based learning it's time to revisit the question of whether standards liberate or stifle excellence in arts education Assessment in Arts Education examines the pressing issues that educators everywhere and at all levels face as they make determinations about progress and achievement in the arts Assessment in Arts Education critiques the application of standards in arts education and the extent to which benchmarks and attainment levels are practically and educationally sensible It opens up an interdisciplinary discussion on arts education assessment and provides helpful advice for thinking about assessment and evaluation Leaders in drama music dance and the visual arts detail how they've navigated the issues around assessment and tackled tough questions such as How do assessment models shape teaching in the arts How much guidance should standards provide for arts educators Who benefits from national and local assessment standards in the arts What contributions have standards made to the teaching of the creative arts Meet standards and assessment head on Read Assessment in Arts Education and find evidence not only of how your students think and learn but of how the entire community of arts educators has considered and acted on the demands of these educational times Arts Evaluation and Assessment Rekha S. Rajan, Ivonne Chand O'Neal, 2017-10-24 This book addresses the challenges faced by arts organizations schools and community based settings when designing program evaluations and measuring artistic engagement and experience With contributions from leaders in the field this volume is an exemplary collection of complete program evaluations that assess music theater dance multimedia and the visual arts in a variety of contexts Assessing Expressive Learning Charles M. Dorn, Robert Sabol, Stanley S. Madeja, F. Robert Sabol, 2014-04-04 Explains and provides a model for how to develop teacher directed authentic model for visual arts assessment for grades 1-12 Based on a National Endowment for the Arts research study of how creative artwork can be quantified the measures can reliably assess Evaluating Creativity Julian Sefton-Green, Rebecca Sinker, 2000 By bringing together studies from different arts disciplines this book raises provocative questions about the function of evaluation in general It discusses how teaching disciplines draw on different models of teaching and learning The Art of Educational Evaluation Elliot W. Eisner, 1985 Measuring Up to the Challenge Ruth Mitchell, 1994 This book takes a detailed look at current knowledge as basis for assessment policy describes arts education assessment currently being developed or implemented and proposes policy directions The book is organized in 7 chapters 1 What Standards and Assessment Can Do for Arts Education brings together statements advocating standards and assessments as a means of making the arts equal to other disciplines in the K 12 curriculum 2 The Assessment Needs of Dance Music Theater and Visual Arts Education and Community based Arts Education Organizations demonstrates how the general argument made in the preceding chapter applies to specific art disciplines 3 Exemplary Assessment Programs mentions programs such as the Ohio Partnership the Florida Institute for Art Education and its Comprehensive and Holistic Assessment Task and an assessment in music based on Arts PROPEL 4 National and State Assessment Designs discusses proposed assessment efforts 5 Cautions The Magnitude of the Task Ahead surveys the components of the educational system which must change to support the implementation of arts standards and assessments 6 What are We Going To Do about It presents an action agenda for groups and organizations concerned with arts education assessments 7 Summary Present Knowledge Future Policy summarizes what is known about arts education assessment and outlines a policy for assessment Appendices include the 1992 Symposium information programs and related documents FB

Evaluating Art and Design Research Walter Ysebaert, Binke van Kerckhoven, 2019-05

Art and design research with its unique nature its distinct practice based research process and outcomes differs from scientific research and art and design praxis The institutionalization of art and design research programmes in the past decade therefore poses major challenges for the parties involved The contributions to this book address these challenges in different respects The first part of the book is devoted to the institutionalization of art and design research in Flanders the detrimental effects according to some authors the opportunities it brings according to others International contributors present an overview of the ways in which the uniqueness the distinct research process the exhibition of art and design research outcomes is dealt with in research evaluation practices in Australia Norway Sweden and Flanders The second part of the book showcases investigative paths and subsequent findings followed and found by researchers affiliated to the Flemish Schools of Arts The contributions address an audience of art and design research directors coordinators and researchers and research professionals outside the field It equally provides artists and designers with a selective overview of research activities being conducted within their domains of interest With contributions from Karel Vanhaesebrouck Luk Vaes Peter De Graeve Kathleen Coessens Michael Schwab Richard Blythe Rolf Hughes Gunnar Sivertsen Binke van Kerckhoven Walter Ysebaert Birgitte Martens Hannah Joris Jeroen D Hoe Jo Van den Berghe Aline Veiga Loureiro Anne Pustlauk Remco Roes Mekhitar Garabedian Jasper Rigole Bart Geerts Peter Van Goethem and Wesley Meuris

The Wow Factor Anne Bamford, 2006 More than ever before the arts are shaping and influencing our daily lives through the media and the creative industries The arts are no longer confined to museums and theatres but are adding value to our national economies and improving the quality of education This has implications for arts education However unlike other subjects taught at schools the arts have rarely made their purpose clear Why are they taught What is good arts education And what are the benefits of teaching creative subjects or using creative ways to teach In 2004 Professor Anne Bamford conducted the first international analysis of arts education research for UNESCO in partnership with IFACCA and the Australia Council Comparing data and case studies from more than 60 countries the book analyses the differences between education in the arts and education through the arts While appreciating that arts programmes are embedded in their unique social and cultural contexts Professor Bamford develops internationally comparable standards for quality arts education In addition she identifies a number of concrete educational cultural and social benefits of arts education This definitive work is of major interest to policy makers educators and artists Professor Anne Bamford is Director of the Engine Room at the University of the Arts London and has an international reputation for her research in arts education emerging literacies and visual communication Through her research as a World Scholar for UNESCO she has pursued issues of innovation social impact and equity and diversity She has conducted major national impact and evaluation studies for the governments of Denmark The Netherlands Belgium and Australia

International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler,2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature helps define the past and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research These areas include History of arts education curriculum evaluation cultural centers appreciation composition informal learning child culture creativity the body spirituality and technology The individual chapters address cross cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme

Culture and the Arts in Education Ralph Alexander Smith,2006-01-21 This collection of Ralph Smith s writings provides a comprehensive overview of his extraordinary contributions to understanding the importance of aesthetics in education These essays record his lifelong efforts to construct a defensible rationale for the arts in general education and a workable curriculum for art education in our public schools K 16 The topics covered range from liberal education to arts education the relationship of art aesthetics and aesthetic education to teaching and curriculum the arts and the humanities and cultural diversity

The Aesthetic Imperative Malcolm Ross,2014-05-20 The Aesthetic Imperative Relevance and Responsibility in Arts Education is a collection of papers that covers various concerns in assessment in the context of arts education In the first chapters the text examines the predicament of the arts The next two chapters relate assessment in the context of esthetic education and evaluation in the arts Chapter 4 talks about the assessment of esthetic developments in the visual mode The fifth chapter details the importance of evaluating the quality of the test itself while the sixth chapter covers the conflict between schools and art education In Chapter 7 the book talks about treating English as an art The eighth chapter discusses the relevance of art in education while the ninth chapter provides a conclusive discussion on art education The text will be of great interest to readers who are concerned with the status of art as part of a school curriculum Teaching Dance as Art in Education Brenda Pugh McCutchen, 2006 Brenda McCutchen provides an integrated approach to dance education using four cornerstones dancing and performing creating and composing historical and cultural inquiry and analysing and critiquing
