Brazilian popular culture including music dance theater and film played a key role in transnational performance circuits inter American and transatlantic from the latter nineteenth century to the middle of the twentieth century Brazilian performers both drew inspiration from and provided models for cultural production in France Portugal Argentina the United States and elsewhere These transnational exchanges also helped construct new ideas about and representations of racial identity in Brazil Tropical Travels fruitfully examines how perceptions of race were negotiated within popular performance in Rio de Janeiro and how these issues engaged with wider transnational trends during the period Lisa Shaw analyzes how local cultural forms were shaped by contact with imported performance traditions and transnational vogues in Brazil as well as by the movement of Brazilian performers overseas She focuses specifically on samba and the maxixe in Paris between 1910 and 1922 teatro de revista the Brazilian equivalent of vaudeville in Rio in the long 1920s and a popular Brazilian female archetype the baiana who moved to and fro across national borders and oceans Shaw demonstrates that these transnational encounters generated redefinitions of Brazilian identity through the performance of race and ethnicity in popular culture Shifting the traditional focus of Atlantic studies from the northern to the southern hemisphere Tropical Travels also contributes to a fuller understanding of inter hemispheric cultural influences within the Americas

Matchmaking and the Marriage Market in Postrevolutionary France Andrea Mansker,2024-12-15 Matchmaking and the Marriage Market in Postrevolutionary France uncovers the unexplored history of matrimonial agents their novel marketing tactics and the rise of personal advertisements to track the commercialization of marriage in nineteenth century France Brokers transformed courtship and marriage into forms of commercial exchange linking them to the burgeoning urban values of abundance pleasure and social mobility By studying agents and readers media fictions on love alongside court cases legislation and literature surrounding the industry Andrea Mansker reveals the intimate and socioeconomic pressures of finding a spouse At the same time she demonstrates how contemporaries used the business of matrimony to reimagine their public identities relationships and courtship rituals following unprecedented historical change due to the French Revolution and Napoleonic wars The matchmaking business both responded to and helped shape national anxieties over fluctuating nuptial rates and changing laws on marriage and divorce As a result marriage itself was reconceived as a commercial contract inseparable from the atomistic and corrupt marketplace The debates and pressures Mansker describes in Matchmaking and the Marriage Market in Postrevolutionary France are still relevant today As contemporary online daters likely understand the possibility of finding a mate in an expanded pool of candidates beyond one s family locality and nation offered individuals the liberating opportunity to explore new personas just as it produced a novel sense of danger about these
