Conversations with American Women Writers Sarah Anne Johnson,2004 Sena Jeter Naslund describes the origins of Ahab s Wife in a vision and a voice Ann Patchett mourns the ways in which the reality of a novel may fail to live up to her conception of it Andrea Barrett a winner of the National Book Award and the recipient of a MacArthur Fellowship nevertheless characterizes herself as a very clumsy writer in her early drafts The seventeen women interviewed by Sarah Anne Johnson are some of the most popular and accomplished writers at work today award winners critically acclaimed popular with book clubs Steeped in a thorough knowledge of each writer s work Johnson s questions range from technical issues of craft to the nurturing of fictional ideas to the daily practice of writing The authors offer insights into their own works that will delight their fans and also provide practical advice that will be cherished by aspiring writers From Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni s reflections on her experience of immigration to Lois Ann Yamanaka s insights on the question of a character s voice these interviews combine the personal with the professional experience of the writing life

Korea and Her Neighbors Isabella Lucy Bird,1897 Korean Tales Horace Newton Allen,2019-06-02

Korea Corea or Chosen morning calm occupies the peninsula hanging down from Manchooria and Russian Siberia between China and Japan and extending from the 33d to the 43d parallels of north latitude The area including the outlying islands is about one hundred thousand square miles The population according to the most reliable estimate is a little more than sixteen millions Yet as the people live in cities towns and hamlets the country does not seem to be thickly settled The climate varies much at the extremities of the peninsula owing to the fact that the southern portion is somewhat affected by the warm southern currents that give Japan its tropical climate but which are warded off from Korea proper by the Japanese islands The climate of the central and northern provinces is much the same as that of the northern central United States with fewer changes The large river at the capital is not uncommonly frozen over for weeks at a time during the winter so that heavy carts pass over on the ice Ice is always preserved for general use in summer The country is decidedly mountainous and well watered Heavy timber abounds in the northeast The valleys are very fertile and are well tilled as the people are mainly devoted to agriculture The mineral resources have only been developed in a crude way yet sufficiently to demonstrate the great wealth of the ore deposits Especially is this true in reference to the gold mines The most pessimistic visitors to Korea are unstinted in their praise of the beautiful scenery which is fully appreciated by the natives as well From ancient times they have had guide books setting forth the natural charms of particular localities and excursions to distant places for the sole purpose of enjoying the views are a common occurrence The King rules as absolute monarch He is assisted by the Prime Minister and his two associates the ministers of the Left and Right Next to these come the heads of the six departments of Etiquette and Ceremonies Finance War Public Works Justice and Registration with the heads of the two new departments that have been added as the result of the opening up of foreign intercourse the Foreign or outside Office and the Home or interior Office This body of officials forms the grand council of the King Each of the eight provinces is ruled by a governor who has under him prefects local magistrates supervisors of hamlets and petty officials so that the whole scale makes a very complete system and affords no lack of officials There are several special officers appointed by the King one of whom is the government inspector whose duty it is to go about in disguise learn the condition of the people and ascertain if any magistrate abuses his office and oppresses the people unjustly Any such he may bring to speedy justice The present Dynasty has existed 498 years Being founded by a revolting general named Ye it is known as the Ye Dynasty The King s name however is never used He is almost sacred to his people Those officials of sufficiently high rank to go in before him bow to the ground in his presence and only speak when spoken to then they use a highly honorific language only understood at court The revenues are paid in kind hence the annual income of an official may consist of a certain quantity of rice and other products in addition to his money compensation The King also has the whole revenue resulting from the sale of the ginseng for which the country is noted This forms his private purse The currency is the common copper cash worth some twelve hundred to the Mexican dollar though now that the new mint is in operation copper silver and gold coins are being made The old perforated cash will however be hard to supplant owing to its convenience in small transactions To be continue in this ebook     The Deseret Weekly ,1894     The Korean Woman John Altman,2019-04-09 North Korea s deadliest weapon is sleeper agent Song Sun Young Married with children and living the good life in New York City she has waited seven years to activate the mission she was trained to do infiltrate America s financial infrastructure She prays the call from her handlers will never come because she loves her husband and kids and affluent New York lifestyle But the call does come During volatile negotiations between the White House and Pyongyang Song is hurled back into a reality she had hoped to leave behind forever Unbeknownst to her the CIA has already broken her cover Working with retired Israeli operative Dalia Artzi they track the Korean agent as she relentlessly executes her mission Langley is pulling strings behind the scenes confident of its advantage in this high stakes game until an unforeseen wild card from within its very ranks hijacks the operation for an unthinkable purpose Dalia realizes that Song has been the unwitting catalyst for the disaster now unfolding and that she alone can stop it from engulfing the world     Base Encounters Elisabeth Schober,2016-04-20 Base Encounters explores the social friction that US bases have caused in South Korea where the entertainment districts next to American military installations have come under much scrutiny The Korean peninsula is one of the most heavily militarised regions in the world and the conflict between the North and South is continually exacerbated by the presence of nearly 30 000 US soldiers in the area Crimes committed in GI entertainment areas have been amplified by an outraged public as both a symbol for and a symptom of the uneven relationship between the United States and the small East Asian nation Elisabeth Schober s ethnographic history scrutinises these controversial zones in and near Seoul Sharing the lives of soldiers female entertainers and anti base activists she gives a comprehensive introduction to the social economic and political factors that have contributed to the tensions over US bases in South Korea     K'oria Misyŏn P'ildŭ ,1920     The Rainy Spell and Other Korean Stories Ji-moon Suh,2015-02-24 This anthology of short stories reflects the writers shared core experience of Korea s trajectory from an inward looking feudal state through Japanese colony and battle ground for the Korean War to a modernizing society Three stories have been added to the original edition     Quaint Korea Louise Jordan Miln,2019-11-29 In Quaint Korea Louise Jordan Miln embarks on a vivid exploration of Korea at the turn of the 20th century presenting a unique blend of travel narrative and cultural commentary Through her engaging prose Miln captures the intricate tapestry of Korean life detailing the customs traditions and societal structures that characterize the period With a keen eye for detail the author crafts her observations into a narrative that is both informative and reflective offering insights into the nation s historical context and the shifting dynamics brought about by modernization and foreign influence Miln's literary style is marked by a fluidity that balances descriptive richness with an analytical lens revealing both the beauty and complexity of the Korean landscape and its people Louise Jordan Miln an American author and journalist was inspired by her travels and experiences in East Asia which shaped her perspective on cultural exchange and understanding Her literary career was fueled by a desire to bridge gaps between cultures and provide Western audiences with a nuanced understanding of Asian societies Miln's distinctive voice emerges from her background in journalism allowing her to convey her experiences in Korea with clarity and sensitivity challenging stereotypes prevalent in her time For readers interested in cultural history travel literature or the intricacies of early 20th century Korea Quaint Korea is an essential read Miln's work not only serves as a snapshot of a transformative era but also encourages readers to reflect on their own cultural assumptions Through her vivid narrative Miln invites you to embark on a journey that celebrates the richness of a lesser known culture making this book a valuable addition to any literary collection
