Floating Lives:

Quiver Susan B. A. Somers-Willett, 2009 At the crossroads of science mathematics and art lives Quiver a stunning collection of poems that seeks to reconcile the empirical truths of science with the emotional truths of human experience Through an ambitious set of poetic series and sequences Somers Willett reinvents the love poem rendering an exquisite world where the graph of a mathematical equation can become the image of love s witness running with its arms open all the way home With a deft meditative sense of music Quiver reveals a relationship between science and human sentiment that is as surprising as it is profound

Prostitution Teela Sanders, Maggie O'Neill, Jane Pitcher, 2009-09-15 This imaginative and comprehensive introduction to the sex industry is as welcome as it is timely This is a rewarding and topical book that I would urge all interested parties to consult Graham Scambler Professor of Medical Sociology University College London A remarkably thorough analysis of prostitution in contemporary society Situating sex work at the intersection of economy occupation and emotion the authors illuminate the complex forces that shape prostitution within an emerging global order Bringing their analysis full circle they close with a helpful exploration of the methods by which researchers are able to investigate an area of such danger and controversy All in all a courageous and important book Jeff Ferrell Visiting Professor of Criminology University of Kent UK and Professor of Sociology Texas Christian University USA This excellent text fills a gap in the market as it explores the full range of issues covering sex work policy and politics A fascinating and informative text which will become the leading handbook in this area Dr Louise Westmarland Senior Lecturer in Criminology The Open University Many commentators have attempted to analyze and explain the nature of prostitution However this is the first textbook to offer a complete overview of the way it operates within contemporary society its characteristics organizational structures and cultural contexts The book also explores how criminal social and health policies have sought to regulate and control the selling of sex This introduction to the sociology and criminology of sex work is comprehensive covering all key areas common to the study of the female sex industry and also includes male and transgender sex work and the sexual exploitation of young people interdisciplinary combining sociological approaches with criminology criminal justice studies social policy health research and sexuality studies comparative including the international context of the sex industry drawing on European and other examples of law regulation and systems that govern the sex industry student focused offering a lively writing style case studies summaries of relevant legislation study questions and guidance on further reading accessible assisting student learning and aiding lecturers in their teaching Written by leading experts with over 20 years experience in researching and teaching in the field this is a must for all criminology criminal justice and sociology students taking modules in sex industry and prostitution studies It will also appeal to those in gender studies and social policy

In the Vernacular, 2009-04 Collecting important works from one of Australia s leading scholars of media culture and policy this study brings sharper focus upon both historical and industrial contexts Engaging with the global debate on multiethnic societies by focusing on creativity at the margins this survey argues that industrial and social trends in media communications and culture are outstripping the academic frameworks that were erected to deal with them

Transnational Audiences Adrian Athique, 2017-09-05 In an interactive and densely connected world transnational communication has become a central feature of everyday life Taking account of a variety of media formats and different regions of the world Adrian Athique provides a much needed critical exploration of conceptual approaches to media reception on a global scale Engaging both the historical foundations and contemporary concerns of audience research Athique prompts us to reconsider our contemporary media experience within a transnational frame In the process he provides valuable insights on culture and belonging power and imagination Beautifully written and strongly argued Transnational Audiences Media Reception on a Global Scale will be essential reading for students and teachers of global media culture and communications

Korean Digital Diaspora Hojeong Lee, 2020-12-10 Through a critical examination of the Korean diaspora in transnational contexts as a case study Korean Digital Diaspora Transnational Social Movements and Diaspora Identity unmask the process of how people of the diaspora have built social interactions and communication with others online how they have orchestrated social movements and finally how they have narrated and reshaped their diaspora identities in their everyday lives Utilizing an ethnographical approach including in depth interviews participant observation and a field study in New York City and Philadelphia Hojeong Lee delineates how digital media technology has expanded into a new form of diaspora digital diaspora within the Korean diaspora community and how it has mobilized the social movements of Korean diaspora members Accordingly Korean diaspora members have begun to imagine their community as a transnational global diaspora Korean Digital Diaspora concludes with an analysis of how the changed attitudes of diaspora members have also influenced how they define themselves and how they are reshaping their diaspora identities This multi site three year study reveals the nexus of media individuals and society highlighting the transnational social movements of diaspora members

Handbook on Home and Migration Paolo Boccagni, 2023-06-01 This dynamic Handbook unpacks the entanglements between the two notions of home and migration which illuminate the lived experiences of in voluntary mobilities and the contested terrain of inclusion and belonging Drawing on cross disciplinary contributions from leading international scholars it advances research on the social study of home in relation to migration refugee displacement and diaspora studies This title contains one or more Open Access chapters

Narrating Poverty and Precarity in Britain Barbara Korte, Frédéric Regard, 2014-10-15 Poverty and precarity have gained a new societal and political presence in the twenty first century s advanced economies This is reflected in cultural production which this book discusses for a wide range of media and genres from the novel to reality television With a focus on Britain its chapters divide their attention between current representations of poverty and important earlier narratives that have retained significant relevance today The book s contributions discuss the representation of social suffering with attention to agencies of enunciation ethical implications of voice and listening limits of narratability the pitfalls of sensationalism voyeurism and sentimentalism potentials and restrictions inherent in specific representational techniques modes and genres cultural markets for poverty and precarity Overall the book suggests that analysis of poverty narratives requires an intersection of theoretical reflection and a close reading of texts EBOOK: Understanding Alternative Media Olga Bailey, Bart Cammaerts, Nico Carpentier, 2007-12-16 What are alternative media What roles do alternative media play in pluralistic democratic societies What are the similarities and differences between alternative media community media civil society media and rhizomatic media How do alternative media work in practice This clear and concise text offers a one stop guide through the complex political social and economic debates that surround alternative media and provides a fresh and insightful look at the renewed importance of this form of communication Combing diverse case studies from countries including the UK North America and Brazil the authors propose an original theoretical framework to help understand the subject Looking at both old and new media the book argues for the importance of an alternative media and suggests a political agenda as a way of broadening its scope Understanding Alternative Media is valuable reading for students in media journalism and communications studies researchers academics and journalists In Search of the Afropolitan Eva Rask Knudsen, Ulla Rahbek, 2016-07-18 In Search of the Afropolitan explores human encounters and moments that speak to the challenges of being a 21st century African of the world Against the background of an engaging evaluation of the heated debate on Afropolitanism and what constitutes an Afropolitan the authors turn to literature and its intrinsic capacity for unfolding the human figure of the African as inherently complex and multidimensional Through a detailed probing of the Afropolitan in literary narratives the book enters into conversations about self understanding and the signification of Africa in the contexts of global mobility The book conceives of Afropolitanism as a flexible space of inquiry that curbs the inclination to set the definition of the ism in stone Instead it attempts to distil through close up character analyses a multifarious sense of what it means to be Afropolitan in the contemporary moment In that sense the encounters we come across in the literary narratives produce unexpected ontological negotiations on what it means to be African in the world today As a special feature of In Search of the Afropolitan the authors conversations with prominent writers thinkers and critics provide a lively context for the ongoing debate on Afropolitanism and the Afropolitan Dyke's Automobile and Gasoline Engine Encyclopedia Andrew Lee Dyke, 1925 The Phoenix Years Madeleine O'Dea, 2017-10-03 By following the stories of nine contemporary Chinese artists The Phoenix Years shows how China's rise unleashed creativity thwarted hopes and sparked tensions between the individual and the state that continue to this day It relates the heady years of hope and creativity in the 1980s which ended in the disaster of the Tiananmen Square massacre Following that tragedy comes China's meteoric economic rise and the opportunities that emerged alongside the difficult compromises artists and others have to make to be citizens in modern China Foreign correspondent Madeleine O'Dea has been an eyewitness for over thirty years to the rise of China the explosion of its contemporary art and cultural scene and the long ongoing struggle for free expression

The stories of these artists and their art mirror the history of their country The Phoenix Years is vital reading for anyone interested in China today Far-Flung Families in Film Daniela Berghahn,2014-08-20 This book fills this gap and provides an essential resource for academics and researchers with an interest in cinematic representations of the family and transnational cinema The Australian TV Book Stuart Cunningham,2020-07-25 Television is the most pervasive mass medium of the industrialised world It is blamed for creating alienation and violence in society yet at the same time regarded as trivial and unworthy of serious attention It is the main purveyor of global popular culture yet also intensely local The Australian TV Book paints the big picture of the small screen in Australia It examines industry dynamics in a rapidly changing environment the impact of new technology recent changes in programming and the ways in which the television industry targets its audiences The authors highlight what is distinctive about television in Australia and how it is affected by international developments This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand Australian television today Stuart Cunningham is Professor of Media and Journalism at Queensland University of Technology Graeme Turner is director of the Centre for Critical and Cultural Studies at the University of Queensland They are editors of the leading textbook The Media in Australia and authors of many other works on the media Labels and Locations Louise Lightfoot,2015-02-27 Some happy occasions like the 1995 Commonwealth Writers Prize for Best Book to Bangladeshi Australian author Adib Khan the 2008 Man Booker Prize to Indian born Australian writer Arvinda Adiga and the 2013 Australian Prime Minister s Literary Award for Fiction to Sri Lankan Australian author Michele de Kretser have boosted the self confidence of South Asian Australian writers in Australia South Asian diasporic communities have also been the focus for relatively small but constantly growing studies by anthropologists and sociologists on the interrelation of gender race ethnicity and migration in Australia The terms Labels and Locations capture numerous aspects that contribute in the making of a diasporic consciousness This book critically examines the issues of identity gender family class and caste expressed in the short narratives of South Asian diaspora writers based in Australia Taking an interdisciplinary approach from literary cultural historical anthropological and sociological studies this book engages chiefly with the oeuvre of postcolonial writers and academics namely Mena Abdullah Adib Khan Yasmine Gooneratne Michelle De Kretser Chandani Lokug Chitra Fernando Satendra Nandan Suneeta Peres da Costa Hanifa Deen Christopher Cyrill Suvendrini Perera Sunil Govinnage Brij V Lal Sunil Badami Glenn D Cruz Chris Raja Manik Datar David De Vos Rashmere Bhatti Kirpal Singh Chauhi Sujhatha Fernandes Neelam Maharaj Sushie Narayan Madu Pasipanodya Shrishti Sharma Beryl T Mitchell and Sunitha This book will by calling upon the works of this much neglected South Asian diaspora group fill a lacuna in the broader critical rubric of diaspora studies Land, Indigenous Peoples and Conflict Alan C. Tidwell,Barry Scott Zellen,2015-10-05 Land Indigenous Peoples and Conflict presents an original comparative study of indigenous land and property rights worldwide The book explores how the ongoing constitutional legal and political integration of indigenous peoples into contemporary society has impacted on indigenous institutions and structures for managing land and property This book details some of the common problems experienced by indigenous peoples throughout the world providing lessons and insights from conflict resolution that may find application in other conflicts including inter state and civil and sectarian conflicts An interdisciplinary group of contributors present specific case material from indigenous land conflicts from the South Pacific Australasia South East Asia Africa North and South America and northern Eurasia These regional cases discuss issues such as modernization the evolution of systems and institutions regulating land use access and management and the resolution of indigenous land conflicts drawing out common problems and solutions The lessons learnt from the book will be of value to students researchers legal professionals and policy makers with an interest in land and property rights worldwide
