

ALL ABOUT FLOWER & GEM ESSENCES

Flower & gem essences are herbal infusions made from the flowering part of the plant or the gem, which uniquely address emotional and mental aspects of wellness. The first 38 flower remedies were formulated by a British physician, Dr. Edward Bach, in the 1930's, although new remedies from other plant species, gems, and even special places are now available.

HOW DO THE ESSENCES WORK?

To understand how essences work requires a recognition that the human being is more than a physical body, but also incorporates a "body" of life energy, a "body" of sensitivity and feelings, and a spiritual essence or Self. Flower & gem essences are energetic imprints of the life force of the plants and minerals which interact with these subtle bodies of the human being, and evoke specific qualities within us. We can say that they work in a similar way to inspirational music or art, which carry meaning through the vehicle of sound or light, while the essences work through the medium of water.

HOW DO I USE FLOWER AND GEM ESSENCES?

They are typically taken orally from a dropper bottle; the standard dosage is four drops four times daily. You can take the drops directly from stock bottles available in stores; mix them in a glass of water; or make a dosage bottle by mixing several drops with water and brandy (typically 1/4 ounce) in a one ounce dropper bottle.

CAN I USE MORE THAN ONE ESSENCE AT A TIME?

Several essences can be taken together, mixed in a dosage bottle or glass of water. In making a combination, it is important to consider how the essences work together, as well as the appropriateness of each essence in the combination. It is best to limit the number of essences taken at any one time to three to five unless you are working with a skilled practitioner.

HOW DO I CHOOSE THE ESSENCES? HOW DO I DECIDE WHICH MENTAL OR EMOTIONAL ISSUES ARE MOST IN NEED OF ASSISTANCE?

The best way to get involved in choosing essences is to read some basic literature on the topic. The next step is to decide which mental and emotional issues are most important for your health and growth. Based on your choice, you then select the essence or essences which correspond with these issues.

You may also wish to talk with a friend or counselor, or to use an assessment questionnaire or repertory to help you sort through the many possible choices for flower essences. If you are just getting started, choose your most basic and obvious priorities.
