Constructing Spain Nathan Richardson, 2012 Does fiction do more than just represent space Can our experiences with fictional storytelling be in themselves spatial In Constructing Spain The Re imagination of Space and Place in Fiction and Film Nathan Richardson explores relations between cultural representation and spatial transformation across fifty years of Spanish culture Beginning in 1953 the year Spanish space was officially reopened to Western thought and capital and culminating in 2003 the year of Aznar's unpopular involvement of his country in the second Iraq War Richardson traces in popular and critically acclaimed fiction and film an evolution in Spanish storytelling that while initially representative in nature increasingly engages its audience in spatial practices that go beyond mere perception or conception of local material geographies In original readings of films by Luis Berlanga Luis Buñuel Alex de la Iglesia Alejandro Amenábar and Julio Medem and novels by Juan Goytisolo Antonio Muñoz Molina and Javier Marías Richardson shows this formal evolution as a necessary response to developments restorations and transformations of local landscapes that resulted during these years from various human migrations tourist invasions urban development plans resurgent nationalisms and finally globalization As these changes occur Richardson traces a shift in the works studied from mere representation of spatial change toward actual engagement with shifting physical and social geographies as they inch ever closer toward the production of an actual spatial experience for their audiences In the final chapters of this book Richardson offers in depth and highly original readings of the storytelling projects of Medem and Marías in particular showing how these two artists invite readers to not only reconceive hegemonic notions of space and place but to practice alternative notions of being in place In these final readings Constructing Spain points to the newest developments in contemporary Spanish narrative and film a rise of new grammars of creation to challenge the ongoing capital driven creative destruction of globalized Spanish geography ESPANA OCULTA PB, 1995-08-17 When Spanish photographer Cristina Garcia Rodero went to study art in Italy in 1973 she fully understood the importance of home Yet her time abroad formed a deeper interest in what was happening in her own country and as a result at the age of 23 Garcia Rodero returned to Spain and started a project that she hoped would capture the essence of the myriad Spanish traditions religious practices and rites that were already fading away What started as a five year project ended up lasting 15 years and came to be the book Espa a Oculta Hidden Spain published in 1989 At 39 years old Garcia Rodero had managed to compile a kind of anthropological encyclopedia of her country The work also captured a key moment in Spain's history with Spanish dictator Franco dying in 1975 and the country commencing a period of transition something that would come to have a huge effect on the way the nation's cultural traditions and rites were experienced and performed from then on Featuring Post-national Spain Andrés Zamora, 2016 In the last quarter of the twentieth century a considerable number of Spanish films were involved in the task of essaying the nation that is of attempting to make it or make it over of trying to reshape a national identity inexorably dictated by General Francisco Franco up to his death The book explores four major issues in this regard 1 the filmic negotiations of the borders of the nation focusing particularly on the debated and controversial development of Basque cinema vis vis the films produced in the rest of Spain 2 the persistence of the old obsession with violence thought of as an inescapable native trait in a large amount of post dictatorial films 3 the newfound insatiable appetite for cinematic travelling for going out and coming in through all possible variations of the road and travel movie genres 4 and the vindication of the mother qua a benign emblem of the land and its people of the nation There is a narrative in Spanish cinema taken as a collective discourse which ties together these four cinematic topoi and proposes a nation whose specificity must be precisely its impurity difference within as essence a hybrid nation located in temporal and spatial rendezvous of past and present tradition and novelty centre and margin inside and outside on and beyond The Circulation of Penicillin in Spain María Jesús Santesmases, 2017-12-18 This book reconstructs the early circulation of penicillin in Spain a country exhausted by civil war 1936 1939 and oppressed by Franco's dictatorship Embedded in the post war recovery penicillin's voyages through time and across geographies professional political and social were both material and symbolic This powerful antimicrobial captivated the imagination of the general public medical practice science and industry creating high expectations among patients who at times experienced little or no effect Penicillin's lack of efficacy against some microbes fueled the search for new wonder drugs and sustained a decades long research agenda built on the post war concept of development through scientific and technological achievements This historical reconstruction of the social life of penicillin between the 1940s and 1980s through the dictatorship to democratic transition explores political public medical experimental and gender issues and the rise of antibiotic resistance Sex, Gender and the Sacred Joanna de Groot, Sue Morgan, 2014-04-03 Sex Gender and the Sacred presents a multi faith multi disciplinary collection of essays that explore the interlocking narratives of religion and gender encompassing 4 000 years of history Contains readings relating to sex and religion that encompass 4 000 years of gender history Features new research in religion and gender across diverse cultures periods and religious traditions Presents multi faith and multi disciplinary perspectives with significant comparative potential Offers original theories and concepts relating to gender religion and sexuality Includes innovative interpretations of the connections between visual verbal and material aspects of particular religious traditions

Center and periphery: Twenty-first-century literature, cinema, media from Spain Amparo Alpañés, 2025-01-07 In a country where the richness of diverse cultures is often overshadowed by historical conflicts this book delves into the complex relationship between the so called center and periphery within Spain's borders Traditionally the center has symbolized Castilian identity while the periphery encompassed other regional cultures But in today's rapidly evolving social landscape what do these terms really mean This groundbreaking work reexamines the center vs periphery paradigm through the lens of contemporary Spanish literature cinema and media It poses critical questions about the existence and nature of a unified Spanish identity and investigates whether the tension between these cultural spheres persists The book also challenges readers to consider which aspects linguistic gender or other forms of identity play the most significant role in this dynamic Furthermore it scrutinizes whether marginalized groups such as BIPOC LGBTQ and differently abled communities are relegated to the periphery in modern Spain With no other published work focusing on these issues in 21st century Spain this book offers a fresh and nuanced perspective on cultural tensions that have shaped and continue to shape the nation Its innovative approach makes it an indispensable reference for researchers and students in gender and women's studies Queer studies media studies Spanish literature and language as well as those exploring nationalism separatism race and Blackness

Seeing in Spanish Ryan Prout, Tilmann Altenberg, 2011-05-25 Seeing in Spanish brings together 22 chapters which share a focus on aspects of visual cultures from the Spanish speaking world Together these chapters address film photography cover art body art posters television architecture ekphrasis biography murals graffiti and digital photo montage Between Don Quixote and Daddy Yankee the essays move from the seventeenth century to the present and traverse Europe the Americas and cyberspace The book is divided into five sections The first of these on Spain includes chapters on the representation of women on LP covers in Spain in the 60s and 70s portrayals in Spanish cinema of Saint Teresa Luis Buñuel's adaptation of Tristana urban and rural space in recent Spanish documentary film Catalan television fine art in Don Quixote and visions of adoption in three narratives by Spanish writers and filmmakers The second section on Mexico and Peru includes chapters on the fragmentary body in images of Mexico the art of Abraham Angel Jes's Ruiz Durand's agrarian reform posters Diego Rivera's murals and the role of artistic production in staging the 2006 Oaxaca conflict The third section on Cuba looks at the portrayal of women and of children in recent cinema from the island It also examines Nancy Morejon's celebration of the life and art of exiled Cuban artist Ana Mendieta Section four includes chapters on Chile and Argentina It addresses street art and graffiti new forms of publishing Chilean cinema after Pinochet and Violeta Parra's appliqué and collage works. Section five embraces Colombia, Bolivia, and virtual spaces. The contributions to this last section of the book examine childhood in Colombian cinema, the online creativity of pro and anti fans of reggaeton, and the photographic diaries of T Ifor Rees, the UK's first ambassador to Bolivia. In addition to the geopolitical structure which underpins the book's five sections, the introduction suggests pathways through the contributions focussed on public art and graffiti, women, children, cyberspace, and diplomacy and reconstruction and disintegration. Seeing in Spanish includes 50 illustrations, stills from films, photographs, reproductions of paintings, and screen grabs from the internet which complement the chapters' analyses of aspects of Hispanic visual cultures. To aid accessibility, footnotes throughout the book provide English translations of all references from texts in other languages. Taken together, the book's 22 chapters make a valuable contribution to the existing literature on figures like Don Quixote and Saint Teresa. They also break new ground in approaches to novel areas of scholarship such as sleeve design, artisanal book production, and digital image manipulation. The book will appeal to students and scholars of Spain and Latin America as well as to a general readership with an interest in the visual cultures of the Spanish-speaking world.

The Travel Photo Essay Mark Edward Harris, 2017-09-22. Successful travel photographers have to wear more hats than perhaps any other photographic genre. In a single travel photo essay, they are at times architectural photographers, food photographers, music photographers, car photographers, the list encompassing every possible type of photography. The Travel Photo Essay teaches the reader the necessary techniques to create cohesive professional travel stories using images that go far beyond I was here photographs. From the establishing shots to the equipment list, this book discusses the techniques and concepts necessary to create professional-looking images in various genres, including portrait photography, landscape photography, wildlife photography, food photography, documentary photography, sports photography, and more. Covering issues such as lighting, writing, workflow, and the travel photography market, award-winning photographer and writer Mark Edward Harris explains how to marry photos with words, telling a cohesive story through a series of photographs.

White Gypsies Eva Woods Peiró, 2012. Reveals how Spanish film musicals long dismissed as unworthy of critical scrutiny illuminate Spain's relationship to modernity.

The Moderns Paul Julian Smith, 2000. This book offers a radically new account of the rich and varied culture of contemporary Spain. It focuses on three intellectuals who chronicle contemporary life, including journalist Francisco Umbral, three filmmakers who engage with the many nationalisms of the Spanish state, Victor Erice, Bigas Luna, and Julio Medem, and three crucial topics that are expressed in many media: the replaying of history, the rise and fall of the city, and the practice of everyday life. Ranging from the ethnographic photography of Cristina Garcia Rodero to the high-tech architecture of Santiago Calatrava and from the hyperrealist painting of Antonio Lopez to the neo-flamenco dance of Joaquín Cortés, this book is also the first to draw on theorists of the intellectual field, the production of space, and the arts of bricolage, Pierre Bourdieu, Henri Lefebvre, and Michel de Certeau. Refuting the charge that contemporary Spanish culture is trivial or superficial, this book argues that it is fully engaged in the aesthetic and historical project of modernity      La Biennale Di Venezia Rossella Martignoni, 2005      La Fiesta en el mundo hispánico William A. Christian, 2004 Las mil caras del homo ludens Ellas han jalonado de sus os inquietudes imaginaciones y a veces de perversiones la oficialidad del poder del sistema de lo social La fiesta ha sido y es el patrimonio exclusivo del ser humano racional y pasional a partes iguales por eso la fiesta ha sido y es evasión escape memoria Como patrimonio del quehacer colectivo el marco lúdico y festivo nos permite rastrear las huellas de nuestro pasado no siempre en su versión oficial porque indudablemente bajo el ropaje reglado e institucionalizado late la espontaneidad de la subversión Nos permite en fin reconstruir los parámetros de nuestra cultura de sus ejes y tensiones y evocarla o interpretarla en las muchas disciplinas que conjuga En parte ese es el propósito de este volumen En sus páginas hemos querido recoger algunas de las mil caras del homo ludens y tomar el pulso a muchos de aquellos discursos reales e imaginarios que alimentaron la fiesta que fueron y son la fiesta desde sus orígenes a su más inmediato presente
