Writers Without Borders Lynn Z. Bloom, 2008-07-02 In Writers Without Borders Writing and Teaching Writing in Troubled Times Lynn Z Bloom presents groundbreaking research on the nature of essays and on the political philosophical ethical and pragmatic considerations that influence how we read write and teach them in times troubled by terrorism transgressive students and uses and abuses of the Internet Writers Without Borders reinforces Bloom's reputation for presenting innovative and sophisticated research with a writer's art and a teacher's heart Each of the eleven essays addresses in its own way the essay itself as one way to live and learn with others

Trauma and the Teaching of Writing Shane Borrowman, 2012-02-01 Deepening and broadening our understanding of what it means to teach in times of trauma writing teachers analyze their own responses to national traumas ranging from the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor to the various appropriations of 9/11 Offering personal historical and cultural perspectives they question both the purposes and pedagogies of teaching writing

Working in the Archives Alexis E. Ramsey, Wendy B Sharer, Barbara L'Eplattenier, Lisa Mastrangelo- Do Not Use, 2009-12-14 Archival research of any magnitude can be daunting With this in mind Alexis E Ramsey Wendy B Sharer Barbara L Eplattenier and Lisa Mastrangelo have developed an indispensable volume for the first time researcher as well as the seasoned scholar Working in the Archives is a guide to the world of rhetoric and composition archives from locating an archival source and its materials to establishing one's own collection of archival materials This practical volume provides insightful information on a variety of helpful topics such as basic archival theory processes and principles the use of hidden or digital archives the intricacies of searching for and using letters and photographs strategies for addressing the dilemmas of archival organization without damaging the provenance of materials the benefits of seeking sources outside academia and the difficult yet often rewarding aspects of research on the Internet Working in the Archives moves beyond the basics to discuss the more personal and emotional aspects of archival work through the inclusion of interviews with experienced researchers such as Lyn e Lewis Gaillet Peter Mortensen Kathryn Fitzgerald Kenneth Lindblom and David Gold Each shares his or her personal stories of the joys and challenges that face today's researchers Packed with useful recommendations this volume draws on the knowledge and experiences of experts to present a well rounded guidebook to the often winding paths of academic archival investigation These in depth yet user friendly essays provide crucial answers to the myriad questions facing both fledgling and practiced researchers making Working in the Archives an essential resource

The Essay Connection Lynn Z. Bloom, 2004 This collection of 83 rhetorically arranged essays offers strong guidance to student writers Part I presents clear practical advice on the art of writing Part II helps students determine ideas in a sequence Part III focuses on clarifying ideas Part IV shows students how to write direct and indirect arguments and Part V provides a controversy in context The writing process is consistently reinforced throughout the text An argument casebook Controversy in Context Implications of World Terrorism and World Peace presents 17 readings true stories poetry and essays from a political scientist a philosopher a novelist a critic and a historian that help students focus on the most significant issues of the 21st century Student writing samples featured in 11 complete essays and in excerpts from 13 notebooks provide students with realistic models and show the writing process at work WPA, Writing Program Administration, 1994 Writing Visions of Hope Richard C. Raymond, 2013-05-01 This nine chapter book narrates a writing centered approach to the teaching of literature and literary research As the title suggests the book also embraces a thematic approach to reading and writing about twentieth century American literature focusing on the grounds for hope in an age of despair The first five chapters explore in detail the teaching of the twentieth century American literature course at the University of Pristina in Kosovo where the author served as Fulbright Professor of American Literature in the spring semester of 2012 Throughout these chapters narrate students in class interactions to illustrate writing to learn strategies for teaching the literature Chapter six then follows the same cohort of 22 students as they learned to ground their literary research in their own questions about American and Balkans narratives of oppression and liberty of despair and hope The last three chapters document the responses of students and their professors to this American theme of liberty and hope as seen through the Balkans lenses of ethnic violence and emerging republican government Specifically chapter seven focuses on students participation in a blog featuring Balkans literature that explores the same issues of liberty and justice examined in the American literature they have read Chapter eight then celebrates student writing the fruit of the writing to learn strategies narrated in earlier chapters Finally chapter nine narrates professors and students responses gathered through surveys and interviewing to questions about their country s violent past and the value of literary study in preparing citizens to shape a new republic What is "college-level" Writing? Patrick Sullivan, Howard B. Tinberg, 2006 Just what defines college level writing is a question that has confounded eluded and divided teachers of English at almost every level of our profession for many years This book seeks to engage this essential question with care patience and pragmatism Special features include perspectives from high school teachers student contributors the administrative perspective and interactive discussion between contributors From publisher s description Surviving Freshman Composition, 2007 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 American Book Publishing Record, 2001 The Essay Connection Lynn Z.
