

Guide to Formal Essay Writing

This guide to essay writing has been created by teachers of Frederickton High School to help you research, write, reference, and format your essay. Each section contains a list of helpful links that will assist you with essay writing. These links have been tried and approved by FHS teachers.

At the end of this guide are three links to sample essays, formatted to match the three styles of writing that are used at FHS.

I. BEGINNING YOUR PAPER - Topic Selection and Research

- (a) Topic Selection: Your topic should be something you are interested in within the confines of the course you are taking and at the instructor's discretion.
- (b) Research: Read as much as you can about your topic. Find as many academic sources about your topic as possible. Books are best; however, academic websites work, too (these are primarily .edu sites).
- (c) Once you understand your topic, create a "why" or "how" question that will generate discussion or argument.
- (d) Thesis Statement: Formulate a thesis statement that begins to answer the question you have about your topic. This should include an argument and several reasons to help prove your argument.
- (e) Format: Establish the format for your paper. This may be dependent upon the class or discipline for which you are writing your paper. Common formats include APA style, Chicago-manual style, or MLA style.

Essays On The Essay:

Essays on the Essay Film Nora M. Alter, Timothy Corrigan, 2017-03-14 The essay with its emphasis on the provisional and explorative rather than on definitive statements has evolved from its literary beginnings and is now found in all mediums including film Today the essay film is arguably one of the most widely acclaimed and critically discussed forms of filmmaking around the world with practitioners such as Chris Marker Hito Steyerl Errol Morris Trinh T Minh ha and Rithy Panh Characteristics of the essay film include the blending of fact and fiction the mixing of art and documentary film styles the foregrounding of subjective points of view a concentration on public life a tension between acoustic and visual discourses and a dialogic encounter with audiences This anthology of fundamental statements on the essay film offers a range of crucial historical and philosophical perspectives It provides early critical articulations of the essay film as it evolved through the 1950s and 1960s key contemporary scholarly essays and a selection of writings by essay filmmakers It features texts on the foundations of the essay film by writers such as Hans Richter and Andr Bazin contemporary positions by among others Phillip Lopate and Michael Renov and original essays by filmmakers themselves including Laura Mulvey and Isaac Julien

Essayists on the Essay Carl H. Klaus, Ned Stuckey-French, 2012-03-15 The first historically and internationally comprehensive collection of its kind Essayists on the Essay is a path breaking work that is nothing less than a richly varied sourcebook for anyone interested in the theory practice and art of the essay This unique work includes a selection of fifty distinctive pieces by American Canadian English European and South American essayists from Montaigne to the present many of which have not previously been anthologized or translated as well as a detailed bibliographical and thematic guide to hundreds of additional works about the essay From a buoyant introduction that provides a sweeping historical and analytic overview of essayists thinking about their genre a collective poetics of the essay to the detailed headnotes offering pointed information about both the essayists themselves and the anthologized selections to the richly detailed bibliographic sections Essayists on the Essay is essential to anyone who cares about the form This collection provides teachers scholars essayists and readers with the materials they need to take a fresh look at this important but often overlooked form that has for too long been relegated to the role of service genre used primarily to write about other more literary genres or to teach young people how to write Here in a single celebratory volume are four centuries of commentary and theory reminding us of the essay s storied history its international appeal and its relationship not just with poetry and fiction but also with radio film video and new media
