

Example of a logical structure

1) Introduction:

You must include an introduction this will be your brief and clear answer to the question (it must be clear here the point/argument that you are trying to make)

2) Middle section:

The middle section of your essay will include 3-6 paragraphs that include 3-6 points and evidence to back up all those points, you must ensure when using the evidence that you explain exactly why the evidence proves your point (your paragraphs should ideally include a point, evidence to back up the point, analysis of techniques used, explanation and development of the point by further analysis of historical context)
