that holds modern significance Chinese aesthetics emphasizes the emotionality of aesthetics from the perspective of value theory distinguishing itself from the epistemological tradition of Western aesthetics It differs from Western consciousness aesthetics as it embodies corporeality representing aesthetics of experience that integrates body and mind It posits that aesthetic is not purely a spiritual activity nor is it a form of contemplation but rather an experience that integrates body and mind and an idealized way of life Therefore aesthetic can nurture temperament and poeticize life Furthermore in Chinese aesthetics it is emphasized that aesthetics serves as a mode of experiencing the Way The Way is discovered through aesthetic intuition and emotional experiences and it is actualized through imagery thereby laying the groundwork for an aesthetic phenomenology The reinterpretation and reconstruction of Chinese aesthetics is a product of the dialogue between Chinese and Western aesthetics Since its publication this book has garnered widespread attention and acclaim from the academic community in China It embodies professor Yang's Transcendental Aesthetic view with Inter subjectivity bridging ancient and modern perspectives and fostering communication between Chinese and Western Aesthetics

For the Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen, In For the Love of Beauty Pontynen begins by addressing the question of why the pursuit of truth be it called Dao Dharma God Logos Ideal etc is no longer acceptable in academic circles even though it has been intrinsic to the purpose of art at most times and in most cultures Lacking the pursuit of truth of some degree of knowledge of what is true and good the humanities necessarily lack intellectual and cultural grounding and purpose Fields of study such as philosophy music art and history are therefore trivialized and brutalized Pontynen's focus on the study of the visual arts details how the denial of purpose and quality in modernist and postmodernist aesthetics has denied art any possibility of transcending entertainment therapy or propaganda Pontynen engages with those elements of modernist and postmodernist thought that might be true His purpose is not simply to deny their validity but to engage a viewpoint that does not privilege the notion of a purposeless cosmos

The Revival of Beauty Catherine Wesselinoff, 2023-08-18 This book provides original descriptive accounts of two schools of thought in the philosophy of beauty the 20th century Anti Aesthetic movement and the 21st century Beauty Revival movement It also includes a positive defence of beauty as a lived experience extrapolated from Beauty Revival position Beauty was traditionally understood in the broadest sense as a notion that engages our sense perception and embraces everything evoked by that perception including mental products and affective states This book constructs and places in parallel with one another the Anti Aesthetic and Beauty Revival movements In the author s view Anti Aestheticism is devoted to a decisive negation of beauty denying its importance as a philosophical notion and its significance as a lived experience It suggests that beauty is a merely sensual experience which can be used at best as a distraction from justice and at worst as an instrument of evil Alternatively the Beauty Revival movement advances arguments for beauty as an experience that extends primarily to sensual experience but which also calls forth mental products and cognitive and affective states evoked by that experience After reconstructing these two positions the author elaborates on the notion of beauty as a lived experience through three key moments which occur in the process of our experiencing beautiful objects These moments are a the conditions that constitute an experience of beauty b the attitudinal features most likely to lead to the experience of beauty and c the results of the experience of beauty The Revival of Beauty will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in aesthetics history of philosophy and art history
