McNeil, 2017-05-03 You're about to become a library supervisor. In addition to excitement, you may also feel some uncertainty. Mentor, creator, monitor, and negotiator are some of the roles a supervisor must play, and wearing that many hats is a challenge that requires discipline and organization and a healthy sense of humor. This newly updated and revised edition of a classic text will give you the grounding to supervise, manage, and lead with confidence. A perfect handbook for those just moving into a supervisory position and a welcome refresher for current managers, this resource focuses on daily real-world issues, offering discussion of how to foster a positive work environment by determining the character of your organization, dozens of sample interview questions suitable for different contexts, and other pointers on the hiring process, advice on supervising all different kinds of employees from those with structural personalities to creative types, tactics for leading productive and focused staff meetings, guidance on how to develop shared accountability, overcoming the decision dilemma so common in group settings, and other strategies for building successful teams. Easy-to-follow tips for making email a genuine productivity tool, methods for meeting deadlines through backward planning, 11 steps for developing a clear and balanced performance appraisal, techniques for actively addressing complaints, and examples of non-monetary staff rewards such as flexible scheduling, job enrichment, and celebrations.
