To make your bunny feet:

You will need: Flip-flops, poster board and coloured paper or cardboard (or print out the bunny feet provided to cut or cut out)

Draw and cut out two large Easter bunny feet from the poster board (you can make more if you have a number of players)

Cut out circles from the coloured paper to make toes, and stick them onto the feet. Alternatively, print off the bunny feet provided to cut or cut out. Mount onto thick cardboard or poster board to make them more sturdy. In the centre of each foot, glue a flip-flop. Make sure to use strong glue. Let all the glue dry before you are ready to play.

Egg Relay

You will need: A selection of plastic Easter eggs, a set of bunny feet per player or per team, a bucket or bowl per team

Split the players into teams (try to choose teams with similar-sized feet). Mark out a start and finish line. Place a bucket at the start line for each team and a set of plastic eggs at the finish line.

Each team queues up behind the start line. The first player on each team puts on their bunny feet.

When you shout 'ready, steady, go!', the starting player for each team must race to the finish line, collect an egg and return it to their team's bucket. They then pass the bunny feet to the next player who goes to collect the next egg.

The first team to return to the start with all their eggs in their bucket wins.

Egg Relay

You will need: A selection of different coloured plastic eggs or ceramic eggs, bunny feet per player, team bucket per player

Split the eggs around the playing area, making sure there are the same amount of each colour. Mark each player or egg colour to collect.

Each player puts on their bunny feet and stands around the edge of the playing area. On 'ready, steady, go!', the players race to collect all their eggs in equal order. They run the first player to collect all their coloured eggs in the correct order.

Egg and Beans

You will need: bunny feet per player, egg per player, beanbag, plastic or two tubs, space per player

Mark out a start and finish line. Players line up along the start line wearing their bunny feet, with an egg balanced on a spoon in one hand, and the other hand behind their back. On 'ready, steady, go!', the players race to the finish line, trying to keep their egg balanced on their spoon. The first player across the line is the winner.

Can you think of any of your own games to play whilst wearing your funny bunny feet?
