

A collection of various office and school supplies is arranged on a light brown wooden surface. In the center is a black speech bubble with the words "FUNNY BUSINESS" in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. To the left, a black ruler with white markings is partially visible, with a wooden puzzle piece resting on it. Above the speech bubble, another black ruler is positioned diagonally. A silver paper clip is at the top center, and a blue paper clip is to the right of the speech bubble. In the bottom left, there is a roll of white paper. Scattered in the bottom right are several coins: a gold 10 Euro coin, a silver 2 Euro coin, and three copper coins. The scene is lit from the top left, casting soft shadows.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
