

A detailed wood carving of a bear, likely a grizzly or brown bear, is shown in a walking or standing pose. The carving is made of light-colored wood and is placed on a dark, polished wooden surface. Wood shavings are scattered around the base of the carving, suggesting it is a work in progress or recently finished. Two carving knives with wooden handles and metal blades are also visible on the surface, one lying horizontally and the other vertically. A teal circular graphic with the text "WOOD CARVING BASICS" is overlaid on the left side of the image.
