Esoteric Christianity Or The Leber Mysteries:

Esoteric Christianity: The Lesser Mysteries Annie Wood Besant, 1966-01-01 Many perhaps most who see the title of this book will at once traverse it and will deny that there is anything valuable which can be rightly described as Esoteric Christianity There is a wide spread and withal a popular idea that there is no such thing as an occult teaching in connection with Christianity and that The Mysteries whether Lesser or Greater were a purely Pagan institution The very name of The Mysteries of Jesus so familiar in the ears of the Christians of the first centuries would come with a shock of surprise on those of their modern successors and if spoken as denoting a special and definite institution in the Early Church would cause a smile of incredulity It has actually been made a matter of boast that Christianity has no secrets that whatever it has to say it says to all and whatever it has to teach it teaches to all Its truths are supposed to be so simple that a way faring man though a fool may not err therein and the simple Gospel has become a stock phrase It is necessary therefore to prove clearly that in the Early Church at least Christianity was no whit behind other great religions in possessing a hidden side and that it guarded as a priceless treasure the secrets revealed only to a select few in its Mysteries But ere doing this it will be well to consider the whole question of this hidden side of religions and to see why such a side must exist if a religion is to be strong and stable for thus its existence in Christianity will appear as a foregone conclusion and the references to it in the writings of the Christian Fathers will appear simple and natural instead of surprising and unintelligible As a historical fact the existence of this esotericism is demonstrable but it may also be shown that intellectually it is a necessity The first question we have to answer is What is the object of religions They are given to the world by men wiser than the masses of the people on whom they are bestowed and are intended to quicken human evolution In order to do this effectively they must reach individuals and influence them Now all men are not at the same level of evolution but evolution might be figured as a rising gradient with men stationed on it at every point The most highly evolved are far above the least evolved both in intelligence and character the capacity alike to understand and to act varies at every stage It is therefore useless to give to all the same religious teaching that which would help the intellectual man would be entirely unintelligible to the stupid while that which would throw the saint into ecstasy would leave the criminal untouched If on the other hand the teaching be suitable to help the unintelligent it is intolerably crude and jejune to the philosopher while that which redeems the criminal is utterly useless to the saint Yet all the types need religion so that each may reach upward to a life higher than that which he is leading and no type or grade should be sacrificed to any other Religion must be as graduated as evolution else it fails in its object Next comes the question In what way do religions seek to quicken human evolution Religions seek to evolve the moral and intellectual natures and to aid the spiritual nature to unfold itself Regarding man as a complex being they seek to meet him at every point of his constitution and therefore to bring messages suitable for each teachings adequate to the most diverse human needs Teachings must therefore be adapted to each mind and heart to which they are addressed If a religion does not reach and master the intelligence if it does not purify and inspire the emotions it has failed in its object so far as the person addressed is concerned Esoteric Christianity Annie Besant,1901 Esoteric Christianity Annie Wood

Besant,2006-01-01 Early Christianity held secrets equal to those of other great religions says Annie Besant Its first followers guarded them as priceless treasures After an increasingly rigid hierarchy began to bury these truths in the early centuries A D they were known only to a few initiates who communicated them privately often in obscure language In Esoteric Christianity Besant s aim is to restore the secret truths underlying Christian doctrine As public interest grows in the Gnostic Gospels and the mystical side of Christianity Besant s remarkable book first published in 1901 is attracting new attention

Esoteric Christianity or The Lesser Mysteries Esoteric Christianity Annie Besant,Richard Lode,2017-01-12 Knowledge of spiritual truths must be obtained from the divine Spirit whose temple we are In other words it must come from that divine indwelling Spirit that mind of Christ or inner light that sheds itself upon our lower mind This is the way of Esoteric Christianity It is not a version of Hinduism or Buddhism or Taoism or any other religion It is Divine Wisdom It belongs equally to all religions but is exclusive to none This is that true Light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world John 1 9 Esoteric Christianity appeals to the few who hunger for more than ordinary religious teachings can give them

Self-Transformation Rudolf Steiner,1995 At the heart of Rudolf Steiner s spiritual philosophy is the esoteric path of inner development that can lead to true self transformation In these lectures Steiner shows how By developing certain qualities such as clear thinking inner tranquility and positivity as well as through meditative exercises it is possible to break out of the shadowy brain bound world of everyday consciousness Esoteric Christianity Or the Lesser Mysteries (Classic

Esoteric Christianity; or The lecture mysteries Annie Besant, The Star of Higher Knowledge Ron MacFarlane, 2015-02-06 When Christ Jesus walked the earth over two thousand years ago he established a two fold division in his teaching that has continued to this day To the general public he simplified his teaching and presented it in pictorial allegorical and figurative imagery in the form of stories parables and lessons that could be imaginatively and intuitively understood To his inner circle of disciples who were sufficiently prepared however he taught more plainly and directly in the form of intellectual concepts clear ideas and logical reasoning that could be understood on a much deeper and wider level of comprehension As biblically explained Then the disciples came and said to him Why do you speak to them the general public in parables And he answered them To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven but to them it has not been given This is why I speak to them in parables because seeing they do not see and hearing they do not hear nor do they understand Matt 13 10 13 Moreover in union with the divine Our Saviour was able to reveal sacred knowledge that had never been previously presented in the entire history of mankind I will explain mysteries hidden since the creation of the world Matt 13 35 This sacred and revealed knowledge has been termed Christ mysteries or mysteries of the Son After his glorious resurrection and ascension Christ Jesus institutionalized his two fold mystery teachings through St Peter and St John the Evangelist not the apostle Through St Peter Our Saviour instituted a universal Christian religion and theology to preserve promote and convey the more basic and simplified mystery teachings that are intended for the general public Through St John Christ Jesus instituted a universal Christian philosophy and theosophy to preserve promote and convey the more comprehensive and complex mystery teachings that are intended for the more advanced disciples Christian initiates In esoteric terminology the institutionalized teachings through St Peter are known as the lesser mysteries of exoteric Christianity The institutionalized teachings through St John are known as the greater mysteries of esoteric Christianity While both mystery teaching approaches are equally sacred profound and intended to complement each other corrupt and intolerant authorities within the universal institution Church of St Peter for many centuries persecuted and attacked any public expressions of esoteric Christianity Consequently genuine historical forms of esoteric Christianity such as the Knights of the Holy Grail and the Fraternity of the Rose Cross were forced to be secretive and publicly hidden during the past two thousand years Thankfully today the social political and intellectual climate has progressed to the point where the greater mystery teachings of esoteric Christianity can begin to be publicly revealed for the first time This modern day outpouring really began with the twentieth century establishment of anthroposophy by Rudolf Steiner 1861 1925 The information and approach presented in The Star of Knowledge The Five Guiding Mysteries of Esoteric Christianity is intended to augment and continue the mystery teachings of Christ Jesus as safeguarded by the Rosicrucian Fraternity and publicized through anthroposophy Consequently this particular discourse delves much more deeply and comprehensively into the cosmos changing salvational achievement of Christ Jesus the historical and cosmic preparations as well as his birth life death resurrection and ascension While much of this mystery information may be unfamiliar unknown and unexpected to mainstream exoteric Christianity it in no way is meant to criticize denigrate or displace the profound teachings of the universal Church but rather to complement to enhance and to enlarge for the betterment of true Christianity and thereby the betterment of all mankind The Christian Mystery Lois Lang-Sims,1980 Esoteric Christianity Annie underlying Christianity truths generally overlooked and only too often denied The generous wish to share with all what is precious to spread broadcast priceless truths to shut out none from the illumination of true knowledge has resulted in a zeal without discretion that has vulgarised Christianity and has presented its teachings in a form that often repels the heart and alienates the intellect The command to preach the Gospel to every creature 1 though admittedly of doubtful authenticity has been interpreted as forbidding the teaching of the Gnosis to a few and has apparently erased the less popular saying of the same Great Teacher Give not that which is holy unto the dogs neither cast ye your pearls before swine 2 This spurious sentimentality which refuses to recognise the obvious inequalities of intelligence and morality and thereby reduces the teaching of the highly developed to the level attainable by the least evolved sacrificing the higher to the lower in a way that injures both had no place in the virile common sense of the early Christians S Clement of Alexandria says quite bluntly after alluding to the Mysteries Even now I fear as it is said to cast the pearls before swine lest they tread them underfoot and turn and rend us For it is difficult to exhibit the really pure and transparent words respecting the true Light to swinish and untrained hearers 3 If true knowledge the Gnosis is again to form a part of Christian teachings it can only be under the old restrictions and the idea of levelling down to the capacities of the least developed must be definitely surrendered Only by teaching above the grasp of the little evolved can the way be opened up for a restoration of arcane knowledge and the study of the Lesser Mysteries must precede that of the Greater The Greater will never be published through the printing press they can only be given by Teacher to pupil from mouth to ear But the Lesser Mysteries the partial unveiling of deep truths can even now be restored and such a volume as the present is intended to outline these and to show the nature of the teachings which have to be mastered Where only hints are given quiet meditation on the truths hinted at will cause their outlines to become visible and the clearer light obtained by continued meditation will gradually show them more fully For meditation quiets the lower mind ever engaged in thinking about external objects and when the lower mind is tranquil then only can it be illuminated by the Spirit Knowledge of spiritual truths must be thus obtained from within and not from without from the divine Spirit whose temple we are 4 and not from an external Teacher These things are spiritually discerned by that divine indwelling Spirit that mind of Christ whereof speaks the Great Apostle 5 and that inner light is shed upon the lower mind
