Esperanto (the Universal Language) J. C. O'Connor, 2016-07-22 Excerpt from Esperanto the Universal Language The Student's Complete d104 Book Containing Full Grammar Exercises Conversations Commercial Letters and Two Vocabularies This revised edition of my Grammar of the Auxiliary International Language      International Planned Languages Detlev Blanke, 2019-01-05 The author of this book the German interlinguist and Esperanto researcher Detlev Blanke 1941 2016 has influenced the study of planned languages like no one else It is to a large extent due to his lifelong scholarly devotion to this area of research that Interlinguistics and Esperanto Studies Esperantology have become serious subjects of study in the academic world In his publications Blanke gives an overview of the history of language creation He describes the most important planned language systems and presents various systems of classification A special focus is put on Esperanto initiated by L L Zamenhof in 1887 Sabine Fiedler For Blanke a planned language was essentially a tool if it worked it was worthy of study and use if it failed to work he was interested in why though at the same time careful to avoid value judgments Blanke himself spoke a planned language namely Esperanto and recognised this language and language projects like it as arising out of a coherent theoretical base and addressing a recognisable problem Essentially independently of the sociolinguistic school in the west Blanke had reached a similar conclusion if a language phenomenon exists it is worthy of scholarly examination in itself Blanke was particularly interested in how planned languages related to ethnic languages how the artificiality of say Esperanto extended to indeed was synonymous with the artfulness of ethnic language and how planned language could solve taxonomic and terminological problems Humphrey Tonkin Esperanto the Universal Language Ludwik Lazar Zamenhof, 2014-02-21 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book The below data was compiled from various identification fields in the bibliographic record of this title This data is provided as an additional tool in helping to ensure edition identification Esperanto The Universal Language The Student s Complete Text Book Containing Full Grammar Exercises Conversations Commercial Letters And Two Vocabularies Ludwik Lazar Zamenhof John Charles O Connor John Charles O Connor Fleming H Revell Company 1903 Foreign Language Study English as a Second Language Esperanto Foreign Language Study English as a Second Language The Bible in the World ,1912
