Universal Basic Income in Historical Perspective Peter Sloman, Daniel Zamora Vargas, Pedro Ramos Pinto, 2021-11-19

This new edited collection brings together historians and social scientists to engage with the global history of Universal Basic Income UBI and offer historically rich perspectives on contemporary debates about the future of work In particular the book goes beyond a genealogy of a seemingly utopian idea to explore how the meaning and reception of basic income proposals has changed over time The study of UBI provides a prism through which we can understand how different intellectual traditions political agents and policy problems have opened up space for new thinking about work and welfare at critical moments Contributions range broadly across time and space from Milton Friedman and the debate over guaranteed income in the post war United States to the emergence of the European basic income movement in the 1980s and the politics of cash transfers in contemporary South Africa Taken together these chapters address comparative questions why do proposals for a guaranteed minimum income emerge at some times and recede into the background in others What kinds of problems is basic income designed to solve and how have policy proposals been shaped by changing attitudes to gender roles and the boundaries of social citizenship What role have transnational networks played in carrying UBI proposals between the global north and the global south and how does the politics of basic income vary between these contexts In short the book builds on a growing body of scholarship on UBI and lays the groundwork for a much richer understanding of the history of this radical proposal Chapter 3 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Index Numbers in Economic Theory and Practice R. G. D. Allen, 2017-07-12 There is no book currently available that gives a comprehensive treatment of the design construction and use of index numbers However there is a pressing need for one in view of the increasing and more sophisticated employment of index numbers in the whole range of applied economics and specifically in discussions of macroeconomic policy In this book R G D Allen meets this need in simple and consistent terms and with comprehensive coverage The text begins with an elementary survey of the index number problem before turning to more detailed treatments of the theory and practice of index numbers The binary case in which one time period is compared with another is first developed and illustrated with numerous examples This is to prepare the ground for the central part of the text on runs of index numbers Particular attention is paid both to fixed weighted and to chain forms as used in a wide range of published index numbers taken mainly from British official sources This work deals with some further problems in the construction of index numbers problems which are both troublesome and largely unresolved These include the use of sampling techniques in index number design and the theoretical and practical treatment of quality changes It is also devoted to a number of detailed and specific applications of index number techniques to problems ranging from national income accounting through the measurement of inequality of incomes and international comparisons of real incomes to the use of index numbers of stock market prices Aimed primarily at students of economics whatever their age and range of interests this work will also be of use to those who handle index numbers professionally      Agricultural Economics Research, 1949      Introductory Macroeconomics Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2024-03-03 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels      Interdisciplinary Economics Wilfred Dolfsma, Stefan Kesting, 2013-07-18 Kenneth Boulding was a prolific writer across so many different fields that not only is he often much referred to and cited he is considered a core member of many of these fields Boulding is the quintessential interdisciplinary scholar He died in 1993 but he has left a legacy in economics conflict studies systems theory ecology biology communication studies and ethics As an economist proper he has tested and expanded the boundaries of that field without unduly invading and undermining the expertise and established knowledge of the other social sciences This proposed volume will allow scholars who have worked or are starting to work in areas that Boulding has initiated established and made a continued contribution to to understand the links between these fields and other related ones The volume will establish a source of inspiration for some time to come      Modern Economic Theory Sampat Mukherjee, 2002 This Edition Includes Several New Topics To Make The Coverage More Comprehensive And Contemporary Various Concepts And Issues Involved In Economic Analysis Have Been Thoroughly Explained And Illustrated With The Help Of Examples Drawn From Our Daily Experience The Inter Relationships Between Different Concepts Have Been Suitably Highlighted The Application Of Economic Tools For Problem Solving Has Been Emphasised Review Questions And Exercises Have Been Included In Each Chapter To Help Students To Test Their Understanding And Prepare Confidently For Examinations The Book Would Serve As Excellent Text For B A B Com And Business Administration Students Candidates Preparing For Various Professional And Competitive Examinations Would Also Find It Very Useful      The Economics of Financial Services in Emerging Markets Bhagirath Prakash Baria, 2022-12-06 Any enquiry into the nature performance role demerits growth efficiency or other aspects of financial services such as banking and insurance activities requires rigorous estimates of their economic output i e the economic contributions made by these firms as well as by the industries as a whole Accordingly this book condenses several theoretical methodological empirical and philosophical issues in conceptualizing measuring and empirically operationalizing the economic output of the banking and insurance industries The analytical focus is on both Global and Emerging Markets perspectives The book synthesizes applied and conceptual evidence to locate the chosen theme s analytical patterns consensus and disagreements The selected subject matter is studied within the firm level and aggregate settings bringing literature of varied scopes together Contributions from various international academics practitioners and policymakers further enrich the narrative The book concludes with data driven case studies that analyze the extent to which the critical performance parameters of the banking and insurance industries in the BRIICS economies including estimation of
