Elements Of Aborigine Tradition:

The Elements of the Aborigine Tradition James Cowan, 1997 A survey of the religious ritual and mythological aspects of traditional Aboriginal culture origins of Aboriginal culture significance of the Dreaming associations with the dog dingo rainbow snake sky heroes paternity and conception celestial phenomena and cosmology totemism kinship totemic identity and sacred objects initiation ritual role of art in ritual Wandjina function of myth and its relation to landscape creation and powers of the clever men ritual sexual relations in northern Australia mortuary and after death beliefs

Elements of Aboriginal Tradition James Cowan, 1992 The Intersection of Sacredness and Archaeology Donna L.

Gillette, Thomas L. Sanders, 2024-10-01 At the point of the often contentious intersection of sacred site preservation and resource development archaeology has a unique and valuable role Archaeology has been criticized as a destroyer of sacred sites through the unbridled pursuit of knowledge through excavation or aiding unbridled development by failing to identify sacred sites However archaeology can act as a mitigator between the conflicting goals of preservation and development while giving the indigenous a voice At the heart of this mitigation is understanding the sacred how it might be physically manifested how those of diverse cultures understand it and how it is effected by the laws and norms of diverse cultures The purpose of this book is to enhance the discussion surrounding contemporary human interaction with our natural and cultural landscape Its first goal is make this discussion more productive and less contentious by presenting and thus recognizing the cultural ways of knowing and perspectives of indigenous people Its second goal is to foster the preservation of our scared landscape As more and more of our physical landscape is being altered worldwide through rapid growth and development the cultural landscape is also being changed and challenged These changes often reflect the interests of some members of society while the interests of others including those of Native and Indigenous communities and many archaeologists environmentalists and others who understand the importance of knowing the past are disregarded The latter group is dedicated toward preserving special places and continuing to provide for Native people the ability to celebrate their traditions and focusing on defining the sacred landscape Emerging Perspectives on Anti-oppressive Practice Canadian Association of Schools of Social Work. Meeting, Wes Shera, 2003 This book consists of 27 chapters developed from papers originally delivered at a recent conference at the University of Toronto on anti oppressive practice in social work Dr Shera has gathered expert contributors to discuss define and analyse theories of social work practice pedagogical issues fieldwork practice models of education of social work practitioners and current critical issues These selected conference papers lay the groundwork for anti oppressive practice in a way that will generate discussion and inspire researchers and practitioners

The Archaeology of Difference Anne Clarke, Robin Torrence, 2003-09-02 The Archaeology of Difference presents a new and radically different perspective on the archaeology of cross cultural contact and engagement The authors move away from acculturation or domination and resistance and concentrate on interaction and negotiation by using a wide variety of case studies which take a crucially indigenous rather than colonial standpoint Pacific Answers to Western Hegemony Jürg Wassmann, 2020-09-02 The destruction of local identity through the relentless encroachment of a McDonaldized cultural imperialism is a global phenomenon Yet the reactions of Pacific peoples to this Western hegemony are diverse and encourage the creation of independent cultural identities through sports and games political mediations tourism media and filmmaking and the struggles for land rights and titles particularly in Australia This book based on extensive fieldwork addresses a subject of great immediacy to peoples of the Pacific Island nations It fills an important gap in existing ethnographic literature on the region and confidently navigates what had previously been considered uncharted even unchartable waters that wide sea between the classic ethnography of Oceania and contemporary anthropology's theoretical concerns with global relations and transnational cultures Its breadth rigour and timely contribution to post colonial politics in Oceania are certain to ensure that this book will provide an enduring contribution to the field Protection of First Nations Cultural Heritage

Catherine Bell, Robert Paterson, 2009-05-01 Indigenous peoples around the world are seeking greater control over tangible and intangible cultural heritage In Canada issues concerning repatriation and trade of material culture heritage site protection treatment of ancestral remains and control over intangible heritage are governed by a complex legal and policy environment This volume looks at the key features of Canadian US and international law influencing indigenous cultural heritage in Canada Legal and extralegal avenues for reform are examined and opportunities and limits of existing frameworks are discussed Is a radical shift in legal and political relations necessary for First Nations concerns to be meaningfully addressed Power Without Law Alex M. Cameron, 2009 A close look at the momentous Marshall decision and how the Supreme Court got it wrong Circulating Cultures Amanda Harris, 2014-12-18 Circulating Cultures is an edited book about the transformation of cultural materials through the Australian landscape The book explores cultural circulation exchange and transit through events such as the geographical movement of song series across the Kimberley and Arnhem Land the transformation of Australian Aboriginal dance in the hands of an American choreographer and the indigenisation of symbolic meanings in heavy metal music Circulating Cultures crosses disciplinary boundaries with contributions from historians musicologists linguists and dance historians to depict shifts of cultural materials through time place and interventions from people It looks at the way Indigenous and non Indigenous performing arts have changed through intercultural influence and collaboration The Archaeology of CA-Mno-2122 Brooke S. Arkush, 1995-07-05 CA Mno 2122 is an extensive multi component site complex in the Mono Lake basin of east central California containing 31 native encampments and 4 wing traps dating between A D 500 and 1900 This archeological study of the site provides important information regarding communal pronghorn hunting the region's Protohistoric period and cultural continuity and change among the Mono Basin Paiute Genocide and Settler Society A. Dirk Moses, 2005-03-01 Colonial Genocide has been seen increasingly as a stepping stone to the European genocides of the twentieth century yet it remains an under researched phenomenon This volume reconstructs instances of Australian genocide and for the first time places them in a global context Beginning with the arrival of the British in 1788 and extending to the 1960s the authors identify the moments of radicalization and the escalation of British violence and ethnic engineering aimed at the Indigenous populations while carefully distinguishing between local massacres cultural genocide and genocide itself These essays reflect a growing concern with the nature of settler society in Australia and in particular with the fate of the tens of thousands of children who were forcibly taken away from their Aboriginal families by state agencies Long considered a relatively peaceful settlement Australian society contained many of the pathologies that led to the exterminatory and eugenic policies of twentieth century Europe

Decolonising and Indigenising Design Desiree Hernandez Ibinarriaga, 2025-03-03 This book offers a new approach to design theory and practice that draws on Indigenous knowledges methodologies and methods presenting concepts of decolonising and Indigenous design that are interweaved as theory storytelling and practices The arena of design sustainability social design and innovation has been a site of debate since the 1960s Yet the ways in which design has redefined this complex realm has not directly addressed Indigenous ways of being knowing and doing which could be of paramount importance to the transformation of the design field and beyond in creative practices In response this book offers valuable insights into how design practitioners can incorporate Indigenous practices to decolonise education research and design and dismantle colonised paradigms ways of thinking and practice in design This approach is presented through storytelling theory methodology methods and practical examples to enlighten the reader The book proposes a transformation in the role designers play through understanding relationality between people land and the immaterial while giving voice and agency to the land and waters Our Mother Earth Design is considered as a way to harness opportunities through the deep connection between people and Place and the book critically promotes a more contextual and dynamic understanding of decolonising and Indigenising design practices and spaces through relational design This book will be useful for students and scholars studying in the fields of design art architecture culture decolonising methodologies biocultural diversity and design beyond human and materiality

World Religions Jeffrey Brodd, 2003 The major religions of the world are a mystery to many high school teens Now you can help them unlock the doors of these traditions with our new text World Religions A Voyage of Discovery The book is an introductory survey that helps eleventh and twelfth graders understand the people dimensions and religious principles of the world's major religions The textbook includes a chapter on each of eleven major world religions including Christianity Islam Hinduism Buddhism Judaism and others The text offers the Catholic perspective on interreligious dialogue an overview of basic questions that religions address and Ninian Smart's seven dimensions of religion A glossary and word pronunciations in each chapter help students learn unfamiliar terms In addition the second edition of this text incorporates the following new features a new chapter on modern trends in religion new more detailed maps a new section on the Aztec religion of Mesoamerica a sidebar in each chapter offering examples of the seven dimensions of religion and review questions at the end of each chapter

Anti-colonialism and Education George Jerry Sefa Dei, Arlo Kempf, 2006 There is a rich intellectual history to the development of anti colonial thought and practice In discussing the politics of knowledge production this collection borrows from and builds upon this intellectual traditional to offer understandings of the macro political processes and structures of education delivery e g social organization of knowledge culture pedagogy and resistant politics The contributors raise key issues regarding the contestation of knowledge as well as the role of cultural and social values in understanding the way power shapes everyday relations of politics and subjectivity In reframing anti colonial thought and practice this book reclaims the power of critical oppositional discourse and theory for educational transformation Anti Colonialism and Education The Politics of Resistance includes some the most current theorizing around anti colonial practice written specifically for this collection Each of the essays extends the terrain of the discussion of what constitutes anti colonialism Among the many discursive highlights is the interrogation of the politics of embodied knowing the theoretical distinctions and connections between anti colonial thought and post colonial theory and the identification of the particular lessons of anti colonial theory for critical educational practice Essays explore such key issues as the challenge of articulating anti colonial thought as an epistemology of the colonized anchored in the indigenous sense of collective and common colonial consciousness the conceptualization of power configurations embedded in ideas cultures and histories of marginalized communities the understanding of indigeneity as pedagogical practice and the pursuit of agency resistance and subjective politics through anti colonial learning

In Your Element Michael White and Linn Wiggins, 2013-08 Are you seeking to understand yourself better If so In Your Element can provide you with wisdom to aid you in that quest It combines the knowledge regarding the early use of personality profiling and animal totems to describe the inherent differences in the way people approach life and learning This book explores how other cultures have used this knowledge to help guide people throughout their lives helping them to embrace who they are as individuals It outlines some of the many historical approaches taken to this topic and then overlays the use of simple lifestyle changes food as medicine and Australian traditional remedies as time honoured ways for people of all ages to enjoy better health and emotional wellbeing The simple truth that people are different not just in appearance but in thought and perception as well needs to be acknowledged What might work for one person may not have the same effect for another even down to the medicinal properties of plants Our modern way of life too often fails to take our inherent psychological and physiological differences into account a fact supported by substantial research and documentation Authors Michael White and Linn Wiggins offer a map for both unravelling some of the mysteries surrounding who you are and learning how to influence your physical and emotional health in a positive way This ancient wisdom for modern times can not only bring you closer to the truth of who you are but to the people around you as well

Indigenous Cultures and Mental Health Counselling Suzanne L. Stewart, Roy Moodley, Ashley Hyatt, 2016-08-12

North America's Indigenous population is a vulnerable group with specific psychological and healing needs that are not widely met in the mental health care system Indigenous peoples face certain historical cultural linguistic and socioeconomic barriers to mental health care access that government health care organizations and social agencies must work to overcome This volume examines ways Indigenous healing practices can complement Western psychological service to meet the needs of Indigenous peoples through traditional cultural concepts Bringing together leading experts in the fields of Aboriginal mental health and psychology it provides data and models of Indigenous cultural practices in psychology that are successful with Indigenous peoples It considers Indigenous epistemologies in applied psychology and research methodology and informs government policy on mental health service for these populations Archaeologies of Art Inés Domingo Sanz, Dánae

Fiore, Sally K May, 2016-07 This international volume draws together key research that examines visual arts of the past and contemporary indigenous societies Placing each art style in its temporal and geographic context the contributors show how depictions represent social mechanisms of identity construction and how stylistic differences in product and process serve to reinforce cultural identity Examples stretch from the Paleolithic to contemporary world and include rock art body art and portable arts Ethnographic studies of contemporary art production and use such as among contemporary Aboriginal groups are included to help illuminate artistic practices and meanings in the past The volume reflects the diversity of approaches used by archaeologists to incorporate visual arts into their analysis of past cultures and should be of great value to archaeologists anthropologists and art historians Sponsored by the World Archaeological Congress , Cultural Anthropology John H. Bodley, 2011-04-16 This introductory text introduces basic concepts in cultural anthropology by comparing cultures of increasing scale and focusing on specific universal issues throughout human history Cultural materials are presented in integrated ethnographic case studies organized by cultural and geographic areas to show how ideological social organization and material features fit together in specific sociocultural systems John H Bodley explicitly seeks a balance between ecological materialist and cultural ideological explanations of sociocultural systems while stressing the importance of individual power seeking and human agency Part One examines domestic scale autonomous tribal cultures Part Two presents politically organized class based civilizations and ancient empires in the imperial world Part Three surveys global industrial market based civilizations in the contemporary commercial world Cultural Anthropology uniquely challenges students to consider the big questions about the nature of cultural systems
