George Müller of Bristol Arthur T. Pierson, Arthur Tappan Pierson, 1899 The classic biography of George Müller tells the story of one of England's greatest evangelists famed and admired for his establishment of orphanages in his hometown of Bristol George Müller was successful in caring for well over 10 000 orphans yet it was only after long and difficult campaigns and effort that such hard won victories against social and economic injustice were won Beginning his efforts in the 1820s and continuing as the United Kingdom's population ballooned in the midst of industrialization Müller encountered many obstacles on his path A passionate believer in both God and social justice Müller found opposition to his ideas among the wealthy Firm in the belief that the poor should receive a good standard of education he was ridiculed and dismissed as a foolish idealist Yet Müller proved the naysayers wrong decades of effort resulted in the Ashley Downs orphanage which housed thousands of impoverished children while he assisted in the establishment of 117 schools in all these ensured education for 120 000 children during Müller's lifetime In his later years Müller embarked on a seventeen year mission around the world where he evangelized on topics concerning both God and his accomplishments in assisting the poor Speaking far and wide to congregations in India South Africa Canada the United States and continental Europe he became a prominent figure seen to exemplify Christian kindness and good deeds As well as his work in society Müller was a profoundly religious person who would spend much of his life in prayer He prayed spontaneously and would request God's assistance in all manner of things the repair of a orphan house's boiler the health of a sick child and good weather and fortune during his long voyages on ship being just a few of his pleas to the Lord Joining God at the age of ninety two in 1898 George Müller's work changed countless lives and he continues to inspire Christians to this day George Muller of Bristol A. Pierson. With an Introd. by James Wright* Arthur T. Pierson, George Muller of Bristol Arthur Pierson, 2018-01-16 A HUMAN life filled with the presence and power of God is one of God's choicest gifts to His church and to the world Things which are unseen and eternal seem to the carnal man distant and indistinct while what is seen and temporal is vivid and real Practically any object in nature that can be seen or felt is thus more real and actual to most men than the Living God Every man who walks with God and finds Him a present Help in every time of need who puts His promises to the practical proof and verifies them in actual experience every believer who with the key of faith unlocks God's mysteries and with the key of prayer unlocks God's treasures thus furnishes to the race a demonstration and an illustration of the fact that He is and is a Rewarder of them that diligently seek Him George Müller was such an argument and example incarnated in human flesh Here was a man of like passions as we are and tempted in all points like as we are but who believed God and was established by believing who prayed earnestly that he might live a life and do a work which should be a convincing proof that God hears prayer and that it is safe to trust Him at all times and who has furnished just such a witness as he desired Like Enoch he truly walked with God and had abundant testimony borne to him that he pleased God And when on the tenth day of March 1898 it was told us of George Muller that he was not we knew that God had taken him it seemed more like a translation than like death To those who are familiar with his long life story and most of all to those who intimately knew him and felt the power of personal contact with him he was one of God's ripest saints and himself a living proof that a life of faith is possible that God may be known communed with found and may become a conscious companion in the daily life George Muller proved for himself and for all others who will receive his witness that to those who are willing to take God at His word and to yield self to His will He is the same yesterday and today and forever that the days of divine intervention and deliverance are past only to those with whom the days of faith and obedience are past in a word that believing prayer works still the wonders which our fathers told of in the days of old George Muller of Bristol Arthur Tappan Pierson, 2014-10-01 This revision of the classic biography George Muller of Bristol tells of a life characterized by prayer faith and self denial in the cause of Christ George Muller 1805-1898 was well known for his constant faith in God and for providing an education to the children under his care During his lifetime he established 117 schools that educated more than 120 000 young persons including orphans From the age of seventy until ninety Mr Muller made great evangelistic tours He traveled 200 000 miles going around the world and preaching in many lands and in several different languages George Muller of Bristol was written the year after Muller's death by his close friend American preacher and evangelist Arthur T Pierson 1837-1911 Pierson served prominent pulpits both in America and Great Britain preaching for two years at the Metropolitan Tabernacle following C H Spurgeon's death He lectured at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago Illinois and at Pierson Bible Institute in Seoul Korea Hendrickson Classic Biographies feature enduring stories about real people whose lives have been touched and transformed by God and who in turn have touched others with God's love Each story has been carefully selected gently edited if necessary and freshly typeset making every account be it ancient or contemporary a compelling read Great lives reaching across the ages to touch lives today encouraging challenging and inspiring George Müller of Bristol Arthur Tappan Pierson, 1849 George Muller of Bristol And His Witness to a Prayer-Hearing God Arthur T.
