Miguel Angel Corzo,Getty Conservation Institute,1999 Artists collectors and art professionals discuss the nature and conservation of contemporary art Living in the Anthropocene W. John Kress,Jeffrey K. Stine,2017-09-26 Explores the causes and implications of the Anthropocene or Age of Humans from multiple points of view including anthropological scientific social artistic and economic Although we arrived only recently in Earth s timeline humans are driving major changes to the planet s ecosystems Even now the basic requirements for human life air water shelter food nature and culture are rapidly transforming the planet as billions of people compete for resources These changes have become so noticeable on a global scale that scientists believe we are living in a new chapter in Earth s story the Anthropocene or Age of Humans Living in the Anthropocene Earth in the Age of Humans is a vital look at this era The book contextualizes the Anthropocene by presenting paleontological historical and contemporary views of various human effects on Earth It discusses environmental and biological systems that have been changed and affected the causes of the Anthropocene such as agricultural spread pollution and urbanization how societies are responding and adapting to these changes how these changes have been represented in art film television and literature and finally offers a look toward the future of our environment and our own lives Georgie Papageorge ,1989 Rift Georgie Papageorge,Art First (Gallery),2006 Georgia Papageorge s new work is the result of a remarkable journey undertaken in January 2006 Starting in South Africa her route explored the Great East African Rift Valley as far as northern Tanzania The Rift Valley is a spectacular formation which occurred approximately 20 million years ago It is the greatest visible tear on the earth s surface and is a powerful metaphor in Georgia Papageorge s view for the political social and ecological upheavals which continue to disrupt the continent This show is an artist s passionate expression of the human desire for unity and healing against the recent background of schism and waste and the far historical facts of terrific geological force The works employ both new and old media to distil the inherent poetry the statistical and geographical facts and the journey s psychological force into Papageorge s land based art High Performance ,1994 New Critical Spaces in Transitional Justice Arnaud Kurze,Christopher K. Lamont,2019-01-10 Since the 1980s transitional justice mechanisms have been increasingly applied to account for mass atrocities and grave human rights violations throughout the world Over time post conflict justice practices have expanded across continents and state borders and have fueled the creation of new ideas that go beyond traditional notions of amnesty retribution and reconciliation Gathering work from contributors in international law political science sociology and history New Critical Spaces in Transitional Justice addresses issues of space and time in transitional justice studies It explains new trends in responses to post conflict and post authoritarian nations and offers original empirical research to help define the field for the future African Textiles Today Chris Spring,2012-10-09

African Textiles Today illustrates how African history is read told and recorded in cloth All artifacts or works of art hold within them stories that range far beyond the time of their creation or the lifetime of their creator and African textiles are patterned with these hidden histories In Africa cloth may be used to memorialize or commemorate something an event a person a political cause which in other parts of the world might be written down in detail or recorded by a plaque or monument History in Africa can be read told and recorded in cloth Making and trading numerous types of cloth have been vital elements in African life and culture for at least two millennia linking different parts of the continent with each other and the rest of the world Africa s long engagement with the peoples of the Mediterranean and the islands of the Atlantic and Indian Oceans provides a story of change and continuity African Textiles Today shows how ideas techniques materials and markets have adapted and flourished and how the dynamic traditions in African textiles have provided inspiration for the continent s foremost contemporary artists and photographers With a concluding chapter discussing the impact of African designs across the world the book offers a fascinating insight into the living history of Africa New York Magazine
