Black and Indigenous Resistance in the Americas Juliet Hooker, 2020-03-04 Black and Indigenous Resistance in the Americas is an essential roadmap to understanding contemporary racial politics across the Americas where openly white supremacist politics are on the rise It is the product of a multiyear transnational research project by the Anti racist Research and Action Network of the Americas in collaboration with resistance movements confronting racial retrenchment in Brazil Bolivia Chile Colombia Guatemala Mexico and the United States How did we get here And what anti racist strategies are equal to the dire task of confronting resurgent racism This volume provides powerful answers to these pressing questions 1 It traces the making and contestation of state led racial projects in response to black and indigenous mobilization during an era of expansion of multicultural rights in the context of neoliberal capitalism 2 It identifies the origins and manifestations of the backlash against hard fought but hardly far reaching gains by marginalized peoples showing that contrary to critiques of identity politics the losses and anxieties produced by the failures of neoliberalism have been understood in racial terms 3 It distills a path forward for progressive anti racist activism in the Americas that looks beyond state centered rights seeking strategies and instead situates a critique of racial capitalism as central to the contestation of white supremacy

New Argentine Cinema Jens Andermann, 2011-11-30 Argentine filmmaking from the mid 1990s to the present has enjoyed worldwide success New Argentine Cinema explores this cinema in order to discover the elements that have made for this success in relation to the country's profound political social and cultural crisis during the same period Jens Andermann shows how the most recent wave of films differs markedly from the Argentine cinema of the preceding decade following the end of the dictatorship in 1983 Studying films by Lisandro Alonso Albertina Carri Lucrecia

Martel Raul Perrone Martin Rejtman and Pablo Trapero among others he identifies a shift in aesthetic sensibilities between these directors and those of the previous generation as well as a profound change in the way films are being made and their relation to the audiovisual field at large In combining close comparative analyses with a review of the changing models of production editing actorship and location Andermann uncovers the ways in which Argentine films have managed to construct a complex multilayered account of their own present as shot through or perforated by the still unresolved legacies of the past
