Geriatric Oncology:

Comprehensive Geriatric Oncology Lodovico Balducci, Gary H. Lyman, William B. Ershler, Martine Extermann, 2004-03-01 Published in 2004 This new edition of Comprehensive Geriatric Oncology still offers an exhaustive review of the biology of cancer and aging of the epidemiologic trends in the country and in the world and of the clinical trials that concern cancer prevention and cancer treatment in the elderly

Practical Geriatric Oncology Arti Hurria, Harvey Jay Cohen, 2010-09-13 The risk of cancer increases with age and the number of older adults seeking treatment is increasing dramatically in line with the aging population The care of older patients differs from that of younger adults because of differences in the biology of the tumor age related differences in host physiology comorbidity burden and psychosocial issues which might impact the efficacy and side effects of cancer therapy Practical Geriatric Oncology is a comprehensive evidence based text that synthesizes the growing literature in this field and provides practical guidelines to the care of older adults with cancer Coverage includes patient assessment management of solid tumors and hematologic malignancies the impact of age on the pharmacology of cancer therapy surgical oncology and radiation oncology in the older adult symptom management and supportive care In addition to serving as core reading for oncologists and hematologists the book will also be a useful work for other healthcare professionals who provide oncology care including surgeons radiation oncologists palliative care doctors primary care providers geriatricians and nurses

Geriatric Oncology Arti Hurria, Lodovico Balducci, 2009-07-14 Cancer and aging are integrally related Cancer incidence and mortality increase with age with most cancer diagnoses and deaths occurring in patients aged 65 and older The aging of the Baby Boomer population along with an overall increase in life expectancy points to a doubling of the U S population over age 65 by the year 2030 This demographic shift combined with the known association of cancer and aging is expected to bring about a rapid growth in the older cancer patient population It is clear that geriatric principles must become part of oncology care The evaluation and development of treatment recommendations for an older adult with cancer can be challenging for many reasons Tumor biology and response to therapy are affected by age In addition age related factors may impact treatment patterns tolerance and efficacy These age related factors include functional status declines comorbid conditions changes in cognitive function weakening of organ function decreases in physiologic reserve and faltering social support
