German Images In Australian Literature F:

German Images in Australian Literature from the 1940s to the 1980s Irmtraud Petersson,1990 This cross cultural study examines German Australian relations by tracing patterns of representation in Australian writing The imagological approach enables comparisons to be made among a wide range of texts and of authors as diverse as Martin Boyd Dymphna Cusack Thomas Keneally David Martin E O Schlunke Patrick White The most common German images and stereotypes found are those associated with rural environment and romantic imagination on the one hand and with savagery and barbarity represented by Nazism on the other The significance of such images often links up with Australian perception of the Old World and its cultural legacy thus being part of the process of Australian self definition and self understanding Seeking the Centre Roslynn D. Haynes,1998 The desert has a hypnotic presence in Australian culture simultaneously alluring and repellent The Centre is distant and unknown to most Australians yet has become a symbol of the country This exciting book highly illustrated in full colour reveals the singular impact that the desert both geographical and metaphorical has had on Australian culture At the heart of the book is the profound relationship that Aboriginal Australians have with the desert and the complex ways in which they have been seen by white people in this context Australian national bibliography,1961

British Images of Germany R. Scully,2012-10-30 British Images of Germany is the first full length cultural history of Britain s relationship with Germany in the key period leading up to the First World War Richard Scully reassesses what is imagined to be a fraught relationship illuminating the sense of kinship Britons felt for Germany even in times of diplomatic tension APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service , Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office,2006 Language and Literature in the Formation of National and Cultural Communities International Federation for Modern Languages and Literatures. Congress,1976 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2013 Film And Television In Education Robert Watson,2003-09-02 First published in 1990 The aim of the series is to define and defend a comprehensive aesthetic both theoretical and practical for the teaching of the arts There can be little doubt that of the six great arts which the Library of Aesthetic Education is committed to defending and defining film has been the most ignored in the curriculum of our schools There is a grand irony in this for film is not only the one unique art form developed in our own century but also the most unequivocally popular Film was envisaged as part of a system of communications which had to be decoded in terms of ideology and contextualized in terms of power and control Robert Watson s Film and Television in Education with its telling subtitle An Aesthetic Approach to the Moving Image sets out to remedy the neglect Ludwig Leichhardt's Ghosts Andrew Wright Hurley,2018 A fascinating cultural studies account of the afterlife of Leichhardt revealing both German entanglement in British colonialism in Australia and in a broader sense what happens when we maintain an open stance to the ghosts of the past

Challenging Images of Women in the Media Theresa Carilli,Jane Campbell,2012-07-13 Challenging Images of Women and the Media Reinventing Women's Lives edited by Theresa Carilli and Jane Campbell collects fifteen articles addressing the status of women through an examination of depictions of women in the media This in depth study shows how mixed messages from the media muddle attempts at breaking the glass screen causing women to constantly question their role in global culture With cake ads followed by diet commercials the media's depiction of women is both confusing and contradictory While more and more women have begun to contribute to the media as respected anchors talk show hosts and commentators these portrayals are often counteracted by music videos and reality television shows such as Jersey Shore This collection seeks to analyze these depictions and their effects on women and culture The contributors to this anthology hail from such diverse locations as Japan Australia Pakistan India China Bulgaria and the United States With this global focus Challenging Images of Women in the Media scrutinizes issues of race ethnicity class and sexuality through a study of gendered media portrayals By challenging the status quo of media images the contributors to this essential volume invite a dialogue about women's lives

Middlebrow Modernism Melinda J. Cooper, 2022-10-01 Eleanor Dark 1901-85 is one of Australia's most innovative 20th century writers Her extensive oeuvre includes ten novels published from the early 1930s to the late 1950s and represents a significant engagement with global modernity from a unique position within settler culture Yet Dark's contribution to 20th century literature has been undervalued in the fields of both Australian literary studies and world literature Although two biographies have been written about her life there has been no book length critical study of her writing published since 1976 Middlebrow Modernism counters this neglect by providing the first full length critical survey of Eleanor Dark's writing to be published in over four decades Focusing on the fiction that Dark produced during the interwar years and reading this in the context of her larger body of work this book positions Dark's writing as important to the study of Australian literature and global modernism Melinda Cooper argues that Dark's fiction exhibits a distinctive aesthetic of middlebrow modernism which blends attributes of literary modernism with popular fiction It seeks to mediate and reconcile apparent binaries modernism and mass culture liberal humanism and experimental aesthetics settler society and international modernity The term middlebrow modernism also captures the way Dark negotiated cosmopolitan commitments with more place based attachments to nation and local community within the mid 20th century Middlebrow Modernism posits that Dark's fiction and the broader phenomenon of Australian modernism offer essential case studies for larger debates operating within global modernist and world literature studies providing perspectives these fields might otherwise miss A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service, Catalogue of the Books in the Circulating Library ... Toronto Public Libraries, 1889
