German Monitor 1949 1989 Cultural Perspe:

1949/1989 Clare Flanagan, Stuart Taberner, 2000 The German Question and the International Order, 1943–48 N. Lewkowicz, 2010-09-30 An analysis of the German Question's influence on the origins of the Cold War arguing that the legal and diplomatic intercourse between the Allies regarding the treatment of the German Question brought forward the elements of intervention and coexistence which formed the basis for a relatively peaceful postwar international order Aesthetics and Politics in Modern German Culture Brigid Haines, Stephen R. Parker, Colin Riordan, 2010 The papers were delivered at a conference Aesthetics and Politics in Modern German Culture which was held in honour of Professor Rhys W Williams the conference took place from 31 August to 2 September 2008 at the University of Wales Conference Centre Gregynog Hall Foreword The German Question and the Origins of the Cold War Nicolas Lewkowicz, 2008 The book analyses the role of the German Question in the origins of the Cold War The work evaluates the transformation which occurred in Germany and the post war international order due to the inter Allied work on denazification The author analyses the Rationalist aspects of superpower interaction with particular emphasis on the legal and diplomatic framework which sustained not only the treatment of the German Question but also the general context of inter Allied relations The author also tackles the conflictual aspects of the treatment of the German Question by examining superpower interaction in relation to the enforcement of their structural interests The main argument of the book is that due to the interaction between the elements of intervention and coexistence the German Question constituted the most significant issue in the configuration of the post war international order 1949/1989, 2021-11-01 Searching for a New German Identity Theresa M. Ganter, 2008 Theresa M Ganter investigates Heiner Muller's use of the Geschichtsdrama as a tool in his search for post World War II and post reunification German identity in Germania Tod in Berlin 1956 1971 and Germania 3 Gespenster am Toten Mann 1996 respectively German-speaking Exiles in Great Britain Anthony Grenville, 2000 Eleven essays most in English and a handful in German reflect the experience of German and Austrian refugees who landed in Great Britain during the Nazi era Three are case studies of academics and professionals who built new careers in England two focus on refugee children one concentrating on the fate of those educated at leading German Jewish institutions and one on the reading habits of children across two cultures and the remaining essays examine developments in the political and cultural spheres The index lists names only not subjects c Book News Inc Border Wall Aesthetics Elisa Ganivet, 2019-09-24 30 years after the fall of the Berlin Wall we live in a time of globalization and free trade Nevertheless 70 new border walls have been built in this period put together they would cover the total circumference of the Earth While governments offer manifold justifications for building these separation barriers they invariably attract the attention of artists Is it merely the lure of transgression however that attracts them or is there a deeper significance in the artistic encounter with border walls And which artistic strategies do these artists employ to approach them In order to address these questions lisa Ganivet revisits the history of border wall aesthetics and compares more recent border related works by 100 artists including Joseph Beuys Berlin Banksy Israel Palestine and Frida Kahlo Mexico US Through art and thus beyond art we understand the flaws and shortcomings of supposedly well oiled systems With a preface by Elisabeth Vallet 1949/1989 Clare Flanagan, Stuart Taberner, 2000

James Joyce and the Fabrication of an Irish Identity Michael Patrick Gillespie, 2001 Deutsch, Lehren und Lernen, 2000 Beyond Boundaries Andy Hollis, 2000 Despite the recent growth in university courses on European Studies and Cultural Studies and notwithstanding increasing public concern about questions of national identity within Europe there is currently little material available which explores the diversity of European identities specifically within the context of European literary and filmic culture In tackling ten novels six plays four films three short stories three books of travel writing and one diary covering fifteen nationalities in all the authors of this volume are seeking to fill this gap The twelve essays contain detailed textual analysis embedded within a framework of cultural theory whose most celebrated reference points include Freud Edward Said Benedict Anderson and Homi Bhabha This volume is aimed not only at specialists in identity studies and those concerned with the artistic landscape of a wider Europe including Russia the Balkans Finland and Turkey It will also interest those preoccupied with building an imaginative and imagined identity for Europe an identity which might help to sustain it as a political entity and lend it greater popular legitimacy than it enjoys at present Jews in German Literature Since 1945 Pól Ó Dochartaigh, 2000 This volume contains some 46 essays on various aspects of contemporary German Jewish literature The approaches are diverse reflecting the international origins of the contributors who are based in seventeen different countries Holocaust literature is just one theme in this context others are memory identity Christian Jewish relations anti Zionism la belle juive and more Prose poetry and drama are all represented and there is a major debate on the controversial attempt to stage Fassbinder's Der Müll, die Stadt und der Tod in 1985 The overall approach of the volume is an inclusive one In his introduction the editor calls for a reappraisal of the terms of German Jewish discourse away from the notion of Germans and Jews and towards the idea that both Jews and non Jews all of them Germans have contributed to the corpus of German Jewish literature Europeanization: Institution, Identities and Citizenship Robert Harmsen, Thomas M. Wilson, 2000 The theme of Europeanization has in recent years come to figure prominently in a wide range of social science analyses concerning both the process of European integration and broader patterns of change in contemporary Europe Yet though increasingly a staple of academic discourse no widely accepted definition of the term has emerged This volume of the European Studies represents one of the first interdisciplinary attempts to examine the manifold uses and possibilities of a Europeanization problematic An international team of contributors drawn from the disciplines of Politics Sociology History Anthropology and Law explore processes of institution building and identity formation through the optic of Europeanization Their work offers new insights as regards the development of European integration pointing particularly to the need for a genuinely interdisciplinary European Studies which encompasses but is not limited to the study of the European Union Performing the Local and the Global Jane Wilkinson, 2007 This book explores the interplay between global and local influences in theatre festivals in the German speaking border region around Lake Constance Whilst opening up a fascinating yet under researched theatre region to academic study it also provides much needed empirical grounding for often vague theories of place globalisation and culture Do we really live in a shrinking world dominated by a homogenising global culture industry or are we experiencing the revival of local particularism To what extent is an apparently place dependent cultural form such as theatre affected by the processes of cultural globalisation Through detailed analysis of theatrical case studies from Lake Constance and the application of an interdisciplinary theoretical framework this book begins to answer such important questions The empirical focus is on the defining features of the Lake Constance region the beautiful and often romanticised natural landscape of lake and mountains and the presence of the nation state borders which make this the crossroads of the German speaking world The author thus examines both open air summer theatre festivals such as the internationally renowned Bregenzer Festspiele and politically focused cross border theatre festivals such as the youth festival TRIANGEL
