German Rocket Fighters Of World War II:

German Rocket Fighters of World War II Hans-Peter Diedrich, 2005 This book is the first to present every rocket aircraft flown in Germany and the rocket systems developed by Walter and BMW as well as several of the most interesting projects drawn up by Germany's aviation industry In 1940 the Deutsche Forschungsanstalt für Segelflug launched the DFS 194 developed by Alexander Lippisch and the tests with this experimental plane laid the foundation for the Messerschmitt Me 163 the world's first operational rocket fighter Using a Walter rocket engine the Me 163 achieved hitherto unimaginable climb rates and speeds It was in this rocket powered plane that on 2 October 1941 Heini Dittmar reached 1003 km/h and thus became the first pilot in the world to break the magic mark of 1000 km/h In so doing he also brushed against the sound barrier The technology incorporated into Germany's rocket planes the Messerschmitt Me 163 Bs and Cs the Me 263 and Bachem Ba 349 Natter was recognized throughout the world as cutting edge and after the war had a major impact on the technological development of other countries This book is a must have for every aviation enthusiast

World War II in the Pacific Stanley Sandler, 2003-12-16 Stanley Sandler one of America's most respected and best known military historians has brought together over 300 entries by some 200 specialists in the field to create the first encyclopedia specifically devoted to the Pacific Theatre of World War II Extending far beyond battles and hardware the coverage ranges from high policy making grand strategy and the significant persons and battles of the conflict to the organization of the Allied and Japanese divisions aircraft armor artillery psychological warfare warships and the home fronts covering the interactions of each topic along the way

The Race for Hitler's X-Planes John Christopher, 2012-10-01 During World War 2 Hitler's engineers had pioneered an incredible array of futuristic secret weapons from the Me 262 the first operational jet fighter to the deadly V2 intercontinental ballistic missile With the Third Reich shattered and lying in ruins in the summer of 1945 the Allies launched a frantic race to grab what they saw as the justifiable spoils of war The Americans and Russians in particular were anxious to secure not only the aircraft and the research and production facilities but also the key German scientists and engineers This Nazi technology would define the balance of power in the phoney peace of the Cold War era launching an arms race that shaped our modern world for decades to come But what of Britain's role in this supermarket sweep The Race for Hitler's X Planes tells the untold story of the British mission to Germany

A Brief Illustrated History of Space Exploration Robert Snedden, 2017-01-01 A Brief Illustrated History of Space Exploration charts the history of space exploration and discovery all the way through from the early rocketeers through the first people in space and the Space Race to be first to reach the Moon the first Space Stations and all the way through to the incredible findings of today With stunning full color images and illustrations this beautiful book is sure to fascinate and charm the young reader

A Global Chronology of Conflict Spencer C. Tucker, 2009-12-23 This monumental six volume resource offers engaging entries of major diplomatic military and political events driving world conflicts from ancient times to the present Now from ABC CLIO long regarded as a premier publisher of military history comes a monumental resource that encapsulates the entire scope of conflict among human societies. Spanning nearly five millennia from the earliest documented fighting to the present, A Global Chronology of Conflict: From the Ancient World to the Modern Middle East provides a comprehensive survey of major military events. With coverage that reaches beyond the battles, this work examines the political and diplomatic forces driving world conflicts, revolutions, forced changes of governments, international treaties, and acts of aggression and terrorism. Written by acclaimed military historian Spencer C. Tucker, these six chronologically organized volumes offer an accessible, richly detailed timeline of military conflict across human history. The concise entries cover all important events on the battlefield and in the corridors of power, with special features highlighting hundreds of key leaders and weapon systems. From specific data on casualties to coverage of evolving weapons technology to insightful analyses of the social impact of war, A Global Chronology of Conflict is an essential resource for students, researchers, history buffs, and general readers alike. Sharks of the Air James Neal

Harvey, 2020-01-10. A perfect blend of sympathetic career biography and gripping military history, a definite winner for all World War II military history buffs. Library Journal. In July 1944, the Allies were stunned by the appearance of the Messerschmitt Me 262, the world's first operational jet warplane. More than one hundred mph faster than any other aircraft in the skies, the Me 262 gained scores of victories over Allied fighters and bombers, and by the end of the war, many of the Luftwaffe's greatest aces had clamored to be in their cockpits. Sharks of the Air tells the story of Willy Messerschmitt's life and shows how this aeronautical genius built many revolutionary airplanes, not excluding the Luftwaffe's mainstay, the Me 109, and culminating in the Me 262. It describes how his various warplanes fought in Spain, Poland, France, Britain, the USSR, and Germany, and it provides thrilling accounts of air battles drawn from combat reports and interviews with veterans. And finally, this biography gives insight into the life of a man who played a role in the Nazi war machine but is not defined by it. Scale Aviation Modeller International. Aspects of Messerschmitt's life, never before made public, are revealed, including his love affair with the beautiful Baroness Lilly Michel Rolino, a rich aristocrat who left her husband to live with Willy. Author James Harvey uses his 40 years of flying experience and experience of aviation to tell the fascinating story of Messerschmitt and how, given the right conditions, Messerschmitt and other German aircraft designers could have changed the course of WWII. Military Scale. World War II Spencer C. Tucker, 2016-09-06. With more than 1,700 cross-referenced entries covering every aspect of World War II, the events and developments of the era, and myriad related subjects, as well as a documents volume, this is the most comprehensive reference work available on the war. This encyclopedia represents a single source of authoritative information on World War II that provides accessible coverage of the causes, course, and consequences of the war. Its introductory overview, essays, and cross-referenced A-Z entries explain how various sources of friction culminated in a second worldwide conflict, document the events of the war, and why individual battles were won and lost, and identify numerous ways the war has permanently changed the world. The coverage addresses the individuals, campaigns, battles key weapons systems strategic decisions and technological developments of the conflict as well as the diplomatic economic and cultural aspects of World War II The five volume set provides comprehensive information that gives readers insight into the reasons for the war s direction and outcome Readers will understand the motivations behind Japan s decision to attack the United States appreciate how the concentration of German military resources on the Eastern Front affected the war s outcome understand the major strategic decisions of the war and the factors behind them grasp how the Second Sino Japanese War contributed to the start of World War II and see the direct impact of new military technology on the outcomes of the battles during the conflict The lengthy documents volume represents a valuable repository of additional information for student research

World War II in Europe David T. Zabecki, 2015-05-01 World War II defined the 20th century and shaped many events from the decolonization of Africa to the rise and fall of the Berlin Wall This encyclopedia offers a focused overview of this complex and volatile era the circumstances that led up to war the underlying causes its unfolding and consequences Organized for quick and precise access More than 1300 entries by 150 experts are arranged in six sections for easy reference and consultation All the key ideas events actions weapons individuals and organizations that played vital roles in the war are covered from the Axis Pact to the Arab League from the OSS to the Africa Korps from the Chetniks to the Jedburghs from the battle of Kursk to Operation Mincemeat from Bill Donovan to Otto Skorzeny from Gestapo to SMERSH from Georgi Zhukov to Jean Leclerc from the 88 gun to the Norden Bombsight Covers important neglected subjects The Encyclopedia puts special emphasis on the often neglected operations in Eastern Europe and Russia A key section inspects and rates all the major weapons with handy tables for easy comparison And in recognition of the first large scale participation of women in the war the volume thoroughly documents their individual and unit contributions to the Allied effort Finally the encyclopedia discusses battlefield realities that explain for example why the airborne drops at Normandy succeeded and the ones at Arnheim failed A bibliography glossary maps photographs and weapons and data tables enhance the coverage Also includes 16 maps
