Simons,2018-01-25 Excerpt from To One From Arcady And Other Poems Sometimes I dreamed you came from Arcady That you have lain upon the golden lawns In drowsy noontides with bronze breasted fauns Or mingled in their moonlight revelry Danced mid the sapphire hills which girt the sea That you have seen from out the reedy grass A pearl limbed naiad loom with hair like brass Flecked by the sun and shadows tracery Aye still the forest fragrance cleaves and clings TO your brown body and your perfumed hair Still in your movement lurks wild woodland grace Of wind stirred poplars that make leafy lair For startled dryads when the satyr sings Still you bring visions Of each God loved place About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
