Collective Traumas Conny Mithander, 2007 Collective Traumas is about the traumatic European history of the 20th century war genocide dictatorship ethnic cleansing and how individuals communities and nations have dealt with their dark past through remembrance historiography and legal settlements Memories and especially collective memories serve as foundations for national identities and are politically charged Regardless whether memory is used to support or to challenge established ideologies it is inevitably subject to political tensions Consequently memory history and amnesia tend to be used and abused for different political and ideological purposes From the perspectives of historical literary and visual studies the essays focus on how the experiences of war and profound conflict have been represented and remembered in different national cultures and communities This volume is a vital contribution to memory studies and trauma theory Collective Traumas is a result of the multidisciplinary research project on Memory Culture that was initiated in 2002 at Karlstad University Sweden A previous publication with Peter Lang is Memory Work The Theory and Practice of Memory 2005
