George Alec Effinger, 2005 A collection of science fiction short stories A Thousand Deaths George Alec Effinger, 2014-04-01 Science fiction stories that offer a poignant glimpse into the author's psyche this bittersweet collection is one to be cherished Publishers Weekly When we first meet Courane he must face down TECT the self aware computer that has come to control Earth and its colonial planets Exiled to Planet D Courane races to cure the debilitating disease that attacks each of the planet's residents even as his own memory begins to fade Unfortunately his only source of information about the illness is TECT itself and the computer's agenda doesn't seem to line up with Courane's In the seven other stories contained in A Thousand Deaths Courane begins to blur reality and fiction as Effinger expertly plays with narrative conventions However these are not simply the whims of a science fiction writer they are the frameworks the Nebula and Hugo Award nominated author uses to answer questions about existence no one else even thought to ask While George Alec Effinger's Budayeen novel When Gravity Fails is perhaps his most famous work his lesser known novel The Wolves of Memory remained his favorite In it he introduced readers to Sandor Courane an everyman and Effinger stand in who struggles as he swims against the currents of fate In life and in his multiple deaths Sandor Courane serves as the unifying force in this collection of Effinger's stories starting with The Wolves of Memory and getting ever more clever and off the wall from there The Budayeen Cycle George Alec Effinger, 2017-08-08 The complete Hugo and Nebula Award nominated cyberpunk trilogy by an author whose work is wry and black and savage George R R Martin Praised as a perfect example of how exciting the subgenre can and should be George Alec Effinger's Budayeen Cycle is a towering and timeless science fiction achievement that continues to amaze shock and captivate readers SF Signal When Gravity Fails Set in a high tech

The Bird of Time George Alec Effinger,2014-04-01 Far into the future Hartstein s graduation present from his grandparents was a wonderful trip into the past He had a long future in the doughnut industry to look forward to but this trip was the icing on the cake It had been a long time since that first experiment in time travel was successfully pulled off although not without its flaws Now in the future time travel was a lucrative tourist industry But the time travel industry was keeping one little fact to itself two percent never came back This cover up was the work of the Agency The Agency knew what others did not that the past wasn t really the past but a complicated dynamic of individual perceptions of what the past might have been The past isn't real and reality becomes a state of mind While selling their particular brand of escapist entertainment and vacation packages the Agency didn't bother to tell its clients or the populace in general that a war was going on a time war The Agency was spending its time in a neck and neck battle with the Temporary Underground The battlefield was none other than the space time continuum the weapons were time shifts and theoretical mathematics Hartstein had no idea what his trip would be or where it would take him The Aliens Who Knew, I Mean, Everything and Target: Berlin!
