Steve Park,2017-03-14 Clives Staples Lewis 1898 1963 called his theological writings as that of a layman and an amateur who merely attempted to restate ancient and orthodox doctrines However S Steve Park argues that Lewis s theological reflections are well informed thoughtful and weighty For instance Lewis s notion of mere Christianity consistently shows his commitment to supernaturalism vs naturalism and eucatastrophic salvationism vs ethical developmentalism in sharp contrast to many prevailing theologians of his time In this book the author expounded Lewis s theological writings rather comprehensively and organized the results according to Lewis s signature literary motif of the journey towards home in four stages Away from Home Homeward

Turning Home Away from Home and The Final Home Under these headings Lewis's major theological and literary themes find illuminating treatments with rich contents and penetrating analyses In so doing the author presents to the readers probably for the first time a systematic theology of C S Lewis It turns out that Lewis more than just a storyteller was a significant participant in the world of theological reflections demonstrating himself to be a rather formidable theological mind to be reckoned with
