George Congo Recent Paintings:

The Necromancers Robert Hugh Benson, 1909 For he was perfectly aware that fear and a sickening kind of repulsion formed a very large element in his emotions For nearly two hours unless three persons had lied consummately he his essential being that sleepless self that underlies all had been in strange company had become identified in some horrible manner with the soul of a dead person Kingsmead Baroness Von Hutten, 1909 The Congo Wars Thomas Turner, 2007-04 Publisher Description The Congo Wars Doctor Thomas Turner, 2008-02-29 Since 1996 war has raged in the Congo while the world has looked away Waves of armed conflict and atrocities against civilians have resulted in over three million casualties making this one of the bloodiest yet least understood conflicts of recent times In The Congo Wars Thomas Turner provides the first in depth analysis of what happened The book describes a resource rich region suffering from years of deprivation and still profoundly affected by the shockwaves of the Rwandan genocide Turner looks at successive misguided and self interested interventions by other African powers including Uganda Angola Zimbabwe and Namibia as well as the impotence of United Nations troops Cutting through the historical myths so often used to understand the devastation Turner indicates the changes required of Congolese leaders neighbouring African states and the international community to bring about lasting peace and security Journal of the Society of Arts , 1885 Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain), 1883 Anthropology and Race in Belgium and the Congo (1839-1922) Maarten Couttenier, 2023-11-03 This book examines the history of Belgian physical anthropology in the long nineteenth century and discusses how the notion of race structured Belgian pasts and presents as well as relations between metropole and empire In a context of competing European nationalisms Belgian anthropologists mainly used physical characters like skull form and the color of hair and eyes to delimitate races which were believed to be permanent and existent Their belief in a supposed racial superiority was however above all telling about their own origins and physical characters Although it is often assumed that these ideas were subsequently transferred to the colony the case of Belgian colonization in Congo shows that colonial administrators at least in theory were reluctant to use the idea of permanent races because they needed the possibility of evolution to legitimize their actions as part of a civilizing mission In reality however colonization was based on military occupation and economic exploitation with devastating effects This book analyzes how in this violent context widespread racial prejudices in fact dehumanized Congolese This not only allowed colonizers to act inhuman but also reduced Congolese or their body parts to objects that could be measured photographed casted and collected This volume will be of use to students and scholars alike interested in social and cultural history as well as imperial and colonial history The Standard , 1909 Journal of the Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain), 1884 Journal of the Royal Society of Arts , 1884 Guide to Microforms in Print , 1994 Methodology, Ideology and Pedagogy of African Art Moyo Okediji, 2024-02-14 This edited volume including contributions from scholars with different areas of specialization investigates a broad range of methodologies ideologies and pedagogies focusing on the study of the art of Africa using theoretical reflections and applications from primitivism to metamodernism Chapters break the externally imposed boundaries of Africa related works beyond the conventional fragments of traditional contemporary and diaspora The contributions are significantly broad in their methodologies ideologies and pedagogical coverage yet they all address various aspects of African artistic creativity demonstrating the possibilities for analytical experiments that art history presents to scholars of the discipline today The w character of each approach is unique nevertheless each is useful toward a fuller understanding of African art studies as an independent aspect of art historical research that is a branch or bud of the larger family of art history The volume respects highlights and celebrates the distinctiveness of each methodical approach recognizing its contribution to the overall character or w of African art studies The book will be of interest to students in undergraduate or graduate intermediate or advanced courses as well as scholars in art history and African studies

Current Encyclopedia Samuel Fallows, Edmund Buckley, Shailer Mathews, 1905      Henry Van de Velde Katherine M. Kuenzli, 2019-01-01 The painter designer and architect Henry van de Velde 1863 1957 played a crucial role in expanding modernist aesthetics beyond Paris and beyond painting Opposing growing nationalism around 1900 he sought to make painting the basis of an aesthetic that transcended boundaries between the arts and between nations through his work in Belgium France Germany and the Netherlands Van de Velde s designs for homes museums and theaters received international recognition The artist often associated with the Art Nouveau and Jugendstil developed a style of abstraction that he taught in his School of Applied Arts in Weimar the immediate precursor of and model for the Bauhaus As a leading member of the German Werkbund he helped shaped the fields of modern architecture and design This long awaited book the first major work on van de Velde in English firmly positions him as one of the twentieth century s most influential artists and an essential voice within the modern movement      The Arts, 1928      Remembering the Present Johannes Fabian, 1996-12-19 This book combines ethnography with the study of art to present a fascinating new vision of African history It contains the paintings of a single artist depicting Zaire s history along with a series of ethnographic essays discussing local history its complex relationship to forms of self expression and self understanding and the aesthetics of contemporary urban African and Third World societies As a collaboration between ethnographer and painter this innovative study challenges text oriented approaches to understanding history and argues instead for an event and experience oriented model ultimately adding a fresh perspective to the discourse on the relationship between modernity and tradition During the 1970s Johannes Fabian encouraged Tshibumba Kanda Matulu to paint the history of Zaire The artist delivered the work in batches together with an oral narrative Fabian recorded these statements along with his own question and answer sessions with the painter The first part of the book is the complete series of 100 paintings with excerpts from the artist s narrative and the artist anthropologist dialogues Part Two consists of Fabian s essays about this and other popular painting in Zaire The
