George Ripley's Compound of Alchymy (1591) George Ripley, 2001 Biographical details for George Ripley c 1415 c 1490 one of England's best known alchemical authorities are sketchy but he is known to have travelled widely on the Continent in search of alchemical wisdom Whilst a canon regular at the Augustinian priory at Bridlington in Yorkshire he conducted alchemical experiments and wrote widely on the subject Ripley's popular alchemical poem The Compound of Alchemy has survived in many manuscript versions was first printed in 1591 with a dedication to Queen Elizabeth and prompted many explications and commentaries during the two centuries following Ripley's death Originally dedicated by Ripley to King Edward IV the poem figures the King as a kind of alchemical aspirant who having received instructions from Ripley his alchemical master is enabled to glimpse the arcane secrets of the art The Compound of Alchemy is not only a treatise concerning mastery of the twelve stages of the alchemical process leading to the philosopher's stone it is also a work of poetry composed in rhyme royal stanzas This modern critical edition is based on the full text of the 1591 printed edition and is preceded by an introduction containing a chronology of Ripley's life a survey of manuscripts an analysis of the 1591 printed edition and its cultural context and an examination of the ways in which Ripley's aims and objectives are closely linked to the work's verse format The edition also contains a commentary bibliography index and illustrations George Ripley's Compound of Alchymy (1591). Alchemy and Exemplary Poetry in Middle English Literature Curtis Runstedler, 2023-03-27 This book explores the different functions and metaphorical concepts of alchemy in fourteenth and fifteenth century Middle English poetry and bridges them together with the exempla tradition in late medieval English literature Such poetic narratives function as exemplary models which directly address the ambiguity of medieval English alchemical practice This book examines the foundation of this relationship between alchemical narrative and exemplum in the poetry of Gower and Chaucer in the fourteenth century before exploring its diffusion in lesser known anonymous poems and recipes in the fifteenth century namely alchemical dialogues between Morienus and Merlin Albertus Magnus and the Queen of Elves and an alchemical version of John Lydgate's poem The Churl and the Bird It investigates how this exemplarity can be read as inherent to understanding poetic narratives containing alchemy as well as enabling the reader to reassess the understanding and expectations of science and narrative within medieval English poetry
