Essays on International Criminal Justice Héctor Olásolo,2012-01-09 Crimes of atrocity have profound and long lasting effects on any society The difference between triggering and preventing these tragic crimes often amounts to the choice between national potential preserved or destroyed It is also important to recognise that they are not inevitable the commission of these crimes requires a collective effort an organisational context and long planning and preparation Thus the idea of strengthening preventative action has taken on greater relevance and is now encompassed in the emerging notion of responsibility to prevent International courts and tribunals contribute to this effort by ending impunity for past crimes Focusing investigations and prosecution on the highest leadership maximises the impact of this contribution The ICC has an additional preventative mandate which is fulfilled by its timely intervention in the form of preliminary examinations Moreover when situations of atrocity crimes are triggered its complementarity regime incentivises states to stop violence and comply with their duties to investigate and prosecute thus strengthening the rule of law at the national level The new role granted to victims by the Rome Statute is key to the ICC's successful fulfilment of these functions This new book of essays which includes the author's unpublished inaugural lecture at Utrecht University examines these issues and places particular emphasis on the additional preventative mandate of the ICC the ICC complementarity regime the new role granted to victims and the prosecution of the highest leadership through the notion of indirect perpetration The work of Professor Olasolo breaks new ground in the academic field of international criminal law as an analysis of the system as a whole I therefore wish to express my congratulations for this work From the Foreword by Luis Moreno Ocampo Prosecutor International Criminal Court The Hague 27 April 2011 Professor Hector Olasolo's compilation provides an enormous source of easy reference to students academia and legal actors in the field of international law A look at the titles compiled in this volume demonstrates the present challenges to international criminal justice From the Preliminary Reflections by Elizabeth Odio Benito Judge and Former Vice President International Criminal Court The Hague May 2011 This collection written by a brilliant and prolific scholar and practitioner of international criminal justice is an insightful and important contribution to the existing literature Each chapter in this collection is copiously footnoted and thoroughly researched making it an important reference tool for scholars and practitioners in the field Additionally and importantly the chapters explore without polemic areas of controversy and dissent and thoughtfully and scrupulously set forth arguments for and against particular doctrinal choices From the Introduction by Leila Nadya Sadat Henry H Oerschemp Professor of Law and Director Whitney R Harris World Law Institute Washington University School of Law Alexis de Tocqueville Distinguished Fulbright Chair Universit de Cergy Pontoise Paris Spring 2011

Mediation Klaus J. Hopt, Felix Steffek, 2018-12-13 Mediation provides an attractive alternative to resolving disputes through court proceedings Mediation promises just results in the interest of all parties concerned a reduction of the court caseload and cost savings for the parties involved as well as for the treasury The European Directive on Mediation has given mediation in Europe new momentum by establishing a common framework for cross border mediation Beyond Europe many states have tried in recent years to answer the question whether and if so how mediation should be regulated at a national and international level The aim of this book is to promote the understanding and discussion of regulatory issues by presenting comparative research on mediation It describes and analyses the law and practice of mediation in twenty two countries Europe is represented by chapters on mediation in Austria Bulgaria England France Germany Greece Hungary Ireland Italy the Netherlands Norway Poland Portugal and Spain The world beyond Europe is analysed in chapters on mediation in Australia Canada China Japan New Zealand Russia Switzerland and the USA Against this background further chapters on fundamental issues identify possible regulatory models and discuss central principles of mediation law and practice In particular the work considers harmonisation and diversity in the law of mediation as well as the economic and constitutional problems associated with privatising civil justice To the extent available empirical research is used as a point of reference in the critical analysis      Electronic Consumer Contracts in the Conflict of Laws Zheng Sophia

Tang,2015-10-22 The second edition of this highly recommended work addresses the interaction between conflict of laws dispute resolution electronic commerce and consumer contracts In addition it identifies specific difficulties that conflicts lawyers and consumer lawyers encounter in electronic commerce and proposes original approaches to balance the conflict of interest between consumers access to justice and business efficiency The European Union has played a leading role in this area of law and its initiatives are fully explored It pays particular attention to the most recent development in collective redress and alternative online dispute resolution By adopting multiple research methods including a comparative study of the EU and US approach historical analysis of protective conflict of laws doctrinal analysis of legal provisions and economic analysis of law it provides the most comprehensive examination of frameworks in cross border consumer contracts
